er's 10-yard run on a reverse to the New York 3.

Walker, who earlier scored on a one-yard run, also fumbled in the third quarter to start the Giants toward a go-ahead touchdown. Joe Morris, who ended a long squabble with the Giants by signing a four-year, $2.2 million contract before the game, ran two yards to give New York a 21-17 lead.

The Giants drove to the Cowboys' 25-yard-line in the final minute. With three seconds remaining, Simms threw a pass into the end zone that was batted down by Cowboy defender Cornell Gowdy, who earlier had been burned for a touchdown.

Walker, who rushed 11 times for 64 yards, caught a 24-yard pass that set Dallas' winning drive in motion, and Tony Hill's 35-yard reception to the New York 16 got the Cowboys within scoring distance.

Dallas caught the Giants in a maximum blitz to score the first points of the game. Dorsett caught White's screen pass in the left flat and used three blocks, the last thrown by Hill, to go 36 yards into the end zone.

The Giants gave Dallas a gift touchdown on their next possession. One play after a Simms fumble had pushed New York back to its own 7-yard line, Simms muffed a center snap and tackle Randy White recovered at the 2.

Walker scored his first NFL touchdown two plays later. He launched himself into the end zone from three yards away to give the Cowboys a 14-0 lead.

The Giants came back immediately, driving 74 yards in nine plays, with Simms hitting Johnson from 13 yards out after Johnson eluded Gowdy.

Just 84 seconds later, the Giants tied it, thanks to a 36-yard pass interference penalty on cornerback Everson Walls.

But New York got the touchdown anyway when Simms hit Robinson with a three-yard pass with 25 seconds left in the half.

The Cowboys scrambled back for a Rafael Septien field goal to take a 17-14 halftime lead.

Astros, Ryan pop Reds 3-1

HOUSTON (AP) — Nolan Ryan struck out 10 in six shutout innings and combined with Charlie Kerfeld on a three-hitter as the Houston Astros defeated the Cincinnati Reds 3-1 Monday night.

Ryan, 10-8, gave up two hits and walked three. He raised his all-time leading strikeout total to 4,246. It was the 161st time that Ryan had struck out 10 or more in a game.

Kerfeld came on in the seventh and pitched three innings to record his seventh save. Kerfeld allowed a run in the seventh on a walk, a single by Barry Larkin and Buddy Bell's RBI forceout.

Houston scored twice in the first inning against Chris Welsh, 5-5. Bill Doran doubled with one out, moved to third on a groundout and came home on Glenn Davis' single. Davis advanced on a wild pitch and scored on a single by Kevin Bass.

The Astros increased their lead to 3-0 in the second when Dickie Thon had an infield single, took second on Ryan's sacrifice and scored on a single by Billy Hatcher.

Recurring Headaches?
Dr. Stewart D. Stephenson, D.C.

Suffering from throbbing pain, stiffness in the neck, nausea, dizziness, eye and ear problems (spots in front of eyes, occasional ringing in ears), nervousness, insomnia or chronic tiredness. The above problems could lead to more serious complications or even a nervous breakdown if not corrected promptly.

These symptoms indicate a great possibility that there are spinal fixations with nerve degeneration. Dr. Stephenson seeks the exact location of these spinal fixations and corrects them through scientific healing. The treatments correct the cause, not cover up the effect.

The Stephenson Chiropractic Office asks "Why be sick when you can be well again?" To find out if your problem is one that can be helped by Chiropractic, pick up the telephone now and call for an appointment with Dr. Stephenson. Phone 776-4437 now.

Don't Ignore these danger signals:

- Lower back and leg pains
- Difficulty in breathing
- Recurring headaches and nervousness
- Numbness in hands, legs or feet
- Painful joints & restless nights
- Neck shoulder or arm pain
