Patriots ground Jets, 20-6

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. (AP) — Tony Collins caught two touchdown passes, one on an option pass from fellow running back Craig James, as the New England Patriots beat the New York Jets 20-6 Thursday night in an early-season AFC East showdown.

The Patriots, who defeated the Jets 26-14 last December in the AFC wild-card game and then marched to the Super Bowl where they lost to Chicago, are 2-0 this season and alone atop the division. They have allowed just nine points and no touchdowns in the two games.

The Jets, who lost star running back Freeman McNeil to a dislocated right elbow in the second quarter, are 1-1. Club officials said McNeil will be out from four to six weeks.

Collins was wide open for a six-yard touchdown toss from quarterback Tony Eason in the first quarter. He and James combined to clinch the victory at 6:25 of the third period on a gutsy fourth-and-1 call from the New York 10.

The Patriots called a timeout before Eason pitched to James, who was sweeping to the right. James stopped and lofted a pass over two defenders to the uncovered Collins at the goal line.

Tony Franklin added a 45-yard field goal at the end of the third quarter and a 42-yarder with 3:12 remaining.

The Jets got two field goals from Pat Leahy, who has hit on a club-record 14 consecutive attempts. Leahy hit from 33 and 47 yards.

Things did not start well for the Patriots as Eason fumbled on the third play from scrimmage.

Dropping back at his own 37, he was hit by nose tackle Joe Klecko and the ball bounced toward the New England end zone. Linebacker Lance Mehl fell on it at the 10.

But the Jets gave the ball back on the next play when Patriots nose tackle Toby Williams stripped full-back Tony Paige and end Brent Williams recovered.

New England scored first on an eight-play, 55-yard drive, culminating with Eason's pass to a wide-open Collins in the left flat. New England has thrown a touchdown pass in 27 straight games.

The first game official's call to be overruled after consultation with television replays occurred in the third quarter. New York's Al Toon caught a pass at the right sideline and was ruled out-of-bounds at the Jets 45.

NFL supervisor of officials Art McNally, who was in the press box, overruled the call after a 3½-minute delay as he watched ABC replays.

Twins slash Rangers, 6-2

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Mark Salas hit two home runs and drove in four runs and Frank Viola beat Texas for the seventh straight time as the Minnesota Twins defeated the Rangers 6-2 Thursday night.

Salas connected with the bases empty in the first inning, then hit a two-run homer in the third, giving Minnesota a 4-1 lead. He singled in a run in the fifth.

Viola, 14-11, gave up eight hits and three walks over seven innings and struck out a season high of 10 batters. George Frazier finished the game.

Viola's streak against Texas dates back to June 10, 1983.

The Rangers have lost seven of 10 games and now trail California by 8 1-2 games in the American League West.

Luv

by Murray Schisgal

Luv is Murray Schisgal's ludicrously absurd lampoon of love, loneliness, lost identity, marriage, housekeeping, wife-swapping, existentialism, psychology, success, the sexual revolution, avant garde theatre and just about anything else you could imagine. This deliciously funny comedy about "love," —its rites and wrongs, its uses, misuses, and abuses ran for 902 laugh-packed Broadway performances.

The critics called Luv: "A comic treasure!" "An evening of continuous laughter!" "The funniest play in several seasons!"
