Inspections to be held at Zachry

By Olivier Uytendaele
Staff Writer

In the wake of the Sunday theft of two key rings from the Zachry Engineering Center, a security company will be inspecting packages belonging to people leaving the building in the evenings, says Bob Wiatt, director of security and traffic.

James Hebert, president of Professional Security Services, says that his firm was hired by the College of Engineering to conduct the inspections until the necessary lock changes are completed. University officials could not estimate how long the lock changes will take.

Wiatt made it clear to Hebert Thursday that the guards could only visually inspect belongings, and could not inspect touch belongings or detain anyone.

Appeals court sends Hunts back to Dallas

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — The billionaire Hunt brothers, fighting to keep 23 banks from foreclosing on $1.5 billion of their property, lost a round in the battle Thursday when a federal appeals court moved their bankruptcy cases to Dallas.

The Hunts had wanted to keep Chapter 11 bankruptcy proceedings in New Orleans, where they filed petitions on Aug 29. But the banks' attorneys argued to the 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals that the Hunts were trying to complicate an already complicated case.

"The game isn't to win," said attorney Melvyn Cantor, representing Manufacturers Hanover Trust. "The game is to spread things out."

In ruling that the Hunts must transfer the Chapter 11 case to Dallas, the 5th Circuit upheld an earlier order by U.S. District Judge Barefoot Sanders of Dallas.

The Hunts attended the Thursday morning hearing and left immediately thereafter for Dallas without commenting.

The ruling marked the latest skirmish in a complicated series of financial and legal battles pitting William Herbert Hunt, Nelson Bunker Hunt and Lamar Hunt — three sons of the late oil tycoon H.L. Hunt — against the 23 banks.

The banks are apparently ready to foreclose on about $1.5 billion of property owned by the Hunt brothers.

The Hunts, meanwhile, have sued the banks for $14 billion, claiming the banks conspired to drive them out of business.

To guard against foreclosure, three of the Hunts' business interests — Placid Oil, a Placid subsidiary and a personal trust of William Herbert Hunt — filed for protection from creditors under Chapter 11 of the federal bankruptcy code. They filed in New Orleans, but Sanders said that violated an earlier ruling he issued ordering lawyers involved in the Hunt legal battles to file any related suits in Dallas.

The Hunts argued that most of the assets of Placid Oil are in Louisiana.

IF YOUR BOOKSTORE DOESN'T CARRY SHARP CALCULATORS, CALL AND COMPLAIN.

Sharp calculators are designed to be first in their class.

Our EL-533 financial calculator for example, has twenty memories compared to just five for the competition. So it lets you do complex calculations like discounted cash flow analysis.

For those who prefer lab coats to pinstripes, there's our EL-506A scientific calculator. With its 10-digit display, direct formula entry and 93 scientific functions, it makes performing even the most difficult calculations easy as pi. And because it's sleek, slim and stylish, you'll never look out of step as science marches on.

The fact is, Sharp makes all kinds of ingenious little calculators that can help get you through college. And help you pay for it.

Because unlike college... they're surprisingly affordable.
