Security conference agreement to reduce risk of accidental war

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP) — Delegates to the 35-nation East-West security conference agreed Sunday on a package of information-sharing measures designed to reduce the risk that war could break out in Europe by accident. A formal vote on the agreement was scheduled for late Sunday but was put off until Monday so the document could be printed. It then must be ratified by the 35 governments, and is scheduled to take effect Jan. 1. Both U.S. and Soviet delegates praised the accord as contributing to a more stable military situation in Europe and improving East-West relations in general.

Soviet chief delegate Oleg Grinevsky described it as a "new foundation for the peace process in Europe." U.S. delegation chief Robert Barry said the agreement "shows East and West can say yes to each other for a change." However, a ranking U.S. delegate, speaking on condition of anonymity, said Soviet-required restrictions on verification through on-site inspection made the agreement inadequate.

The agreement stipulates that members of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and the Warsaw Pact must notify the other bloc at least 42 days in advance when planning military activities involving 13,000 soldiers or more or 300 tanks more. Any nation conducting military maneuvers involving 17,000 soldiers or more must invite observers from other participants in the Stockholm conference. When maneuvers involve amphibious landings or paratroops, nations must notify the other bloc if just 3,000 or more are involved, and invite observers if 5,000 troops or more are taking part. The Stockholm Conference on Security and Confidence-Building Measures and Disarmament in Europe began in January 1984.

Brothers wanted by France for Paris bombing keep vigil

QOBIAYAT, Lebanon (AP) — Four Lebanese brothers wanted by France in connection with deadly bombings in Paris said Sunday they are keeping a 24-hour vigil at their north Lebanon home because they fear French agents will try to kill them. Joseph Ibrahim Abdallah, 35, and his brothers, Emille, 30, Maurice, 23, and Robert, 20, stand guard in shifts at their two-story house on the eastern edge of their town, Qobaiyat.

About a dozen neighbors have been helping keep vigil since France announced Friday that the brothers were among nine Lebanese wanted in connection with the Paris bombings. The brothers have denied involvement. Prime Minister Rashid Karami said in a statement Sunday he would begin an investigation to clear the brothers, and accused Israel's Mossad secret service of involvement in the bombings.

The five bombings in Paris beginning Sept. 8 killed eight people and wounded 164. Responsibility has been claimed by the Committee for Solidarity with Arab and Middle Eastern Political Prisoners.

French police say they believe the Committee for Solidarity is a cover name for the Lebanese Armed Revolutionary Factions, and that the nine Lebanese they named, including the Abdallah brothers, belong to the group.

They believe the group is headed by a fifth Abdallah brother, Georges, 35, who is serving a four-year prison term in France for possessing weapons and false documents. He also faces trial on charges of complicity in the 1982 killings of a U.S. military attache and an Israeli diplomat.

United Nations (AP) — President Reagan will focus Monday on superpower relations, including arms control and the Daniloff case, when he addresses the United Nations for the first time.

With U.S.-Soviet relations strained by the espionage charge against American journalist Nicholas Daniloff, Reagan will "give considerable emphasis on human rights, and he will underscore the (Daniloff) case... with what would emphasize is straight talk on the matter," presidential spokesman Larry Speakes told reporters in Washington.

Speakes said the president's speech "will center mainly on East-West relations with a special and detailed emphasis on arms control."

Reagan is expected to include in his speech reaction to a letter from Soviet leader Mikhail Gorbachev. The Soviet leader's letter reportedly was in response to fresh U.S. arms control proposals.

Reagan "will stress we have an opportunity for progress in arms control," Speakes said.

Israel to support Lebanese militia

JERUSALEM (AP) — Defense Minister Yitzhak Rabin said Sunday that Israel would back up its Lebanese militia allies with Israeli-manned helicopter gunships and tanks in south Lebanon. He also suggested that Israel may increase the estimated 1,000 troops it keeps in south Lebanon, but declined to elaborate.

Rabin told reporters the Israeli assistance was meant "to absolutely break these attacks by inflicting large casualties" on Shiite Moslem guerrillas. A senior military officer, demanding anonymity, said Israel would deploy troops to reinforce the South Lebanon Army militia on a case-by-case basis, but did not intend to send in a big force.

The latest rocket attack Saturday wounded three Israeli soldiers, the Israeli military command said. The attack occurred in the Israeli-occupied buffer zone of south Lebanon, which stretches six to 10 miles deep along the border and is meant to prevent guerrillas from attacking Israel itself.

Two soldiers suffered slight injuries, and the third was hospitalized with moderate stomach wounds, the command said. The attack came one day after five French soldiers with the United Nations Interim Force in Lebanon were wounded in south Lebanon.
