NCAA begins inquiry of Texas Tech program

LUBBOCK (AP) — Texas Tech University has been advised by the NCAA that an official inquiry is under way into alleged recruiting violations between 1982 and 1984, the school announced Monday.

The university has until Nov. 3 to respond to the allegations, according to a statement issued by the school.

School officials refused to say Monday what sport the inquiry involves, but said the allegations do not involve members of the current coaching staff or academic irregularities.

Texas Tech has been asked to make its own inquiry into the allegations and then appear before the NCAA Committee on Infractions, the school said.

Tech President Lauro F. Cavazos said the university wants "to bring an early and conclusive end to the inquiry in the interests of all concerned."

"You may be assured of our cooperation and intent to correct any shortcomings, if they exist, in our athletic program," Cavazos said in a letter to David Berst, NCAA director of enforcement.

A&M Sports Club Update

ARCHERY held the Aggie 900 tournament Saturday on the Zachry Field. The top three finishers in the men's division were Wade Conover with 784 points, Gary Boecker with 779 and Tommy Thompson at 774.

The women's finishers were in the following order: Eugenia Al-gaze, 721; Julie Borg, 713; and Kathy Craig, 683.

MEN'S RUGBY, a division B team, lost to the division A Houston Oldboys, 28-3, Saturday. The team hosts the Woodlands team in its first cup match of the season this Saturday at the Rugby pitch behind the Zachry parking lot.

WOMEN'S RUGBY goes to Dallas this weekend for a five-team round-robin tournament. The other teams in the tourney will represent Dallas, Austin, New Orleans and Oklahoma.

MEN'S SOCCER defeated the Sam Houston State soccer team, 2-1, here Sunday. Tony Thomas scored the winning goal after Jon Carter tied the game at 1-1 early in the second half.

WOMEN'S SOCCER won twice last weekend in action on the drill field. On Saturday the team beat SMU, 4-1 and then shut out Arkansas, 7-0, in action Sunday. A&M's Jenny Lawson pulled a hat trick (3 goals in a game) against Arkansas.

ULTIMATE FRISBEE played in its first competition of the year in the North Texas State tournament last weekend. The men's team won one game and lost two, but missed the playoff round as it finished short on points in a three-way tie.

The women's team went 2-1 in a four-team round-robin tournament.

WATERSKI placed fourth in a 13-team competition at the Mississippi College Waterski Tournament last weekend. Top individuals for A&M were Russell Eppright with an eighth-place finish in jump competition and Gary Caldwell with a ninth-place finish in the slalom.

Valenzuela wins No. 20; tosses two-hitter at Astros

HOUSTON (AP) — Fernando Valenzuela became the first 20-game winner in the National League, pitching a two-hitter Monday night to lead the Los Angeles Dodgers to a 9-2 victory over the Houston Astros.

Valenzuela, 20-10, is the first Dodger to win 20 games since Tommy John did it in 1977. It was the first 20-game season for Valenzuela, who struck out five and walked three.

Valenzuela, the first Mexican ever to win 20, also got his major league leading 19th complete game. Milwaukee's Ted Higuera, also a Mexican, will try for his 20th win Wednesday night.

The loss cuts Houston's lead in

NL West to nine games over San Francisco with 12 games left in the regular season. The magic number is four, meaning any combination of Houston victories and San Francisco defeats totaling four would give the Astros the title.

Danny Darwin, 3-2, was the loser, going 3 1/3 innings and giving up six runs, only one of which was earned, on eight hits.

The Dodgers pounded Astros starter Darwin for six runs in the fourth. In the inning, Ralph Bryant hit his third home run and Steve Sax extended his hitting streak to 20 games with a two-run double.
