Tax overhaul bill expected to pass by wide margin

WASHINGTON (AP) — A last-minute effort to restore full deductions for sales taxes and Individual Retirement Accounts apparently was doomed during a closed Republican caucus, clearing the way for a final House vote Thursday on a landmark tax-overhaul bill.
 Vote-counters working for the Democratic leadership predicted the bill will pass comfortably.
 A count compiled by Rangel showed 104 of the 253 Democrats solidly in support of the measure.
 Rep. Jack Kemp of New York, chairman of the Republican conference, predicted the 180 Republicans would be split 2-1 or 3-1 in favor.
 Combining the two parties' most conservative estimates would result in a total vote of about 280 for the bill. If all 433 members are present, 217 votes would be required for passage. There are two vacancies in the 435-member House.
 The compromise bill cannot be changed; the House and Senate must accept or reject the entire package.

President calls GOP 'party of opportunity'

OMAHA, Neb. (AP) — President Reagan, campaigning for two Midwestern Republicans who hope to be elected the nation's first black governor and his party's first woman governor, said Wednesday that the GOP, not the Democrats, is "the party of progress and opportunity."
 Campaigning for Kay Orr, the Republican candidate for governor of Nebraska, and earlier in the day for Michigan gubernatorial candidate William Lucas, Reagan said that in the six years of his administration new opportunities had opened for women and blacks.
 "We are showing as never before that we are truly the land of opportunity," Reagan said at a Detroit fundraiser for Lucas.
 "The number of women in elected offices has risen dramatically, now over 18,000 nationwide," he said. "In just six years, the number of elected black officials has risen from under 5,000 to almost 6,500."
 Venturing into the hard-hit farm belt, Reagan acknowledged that farmers are facing economic difficulty but contended his administration has put more money into farm support than previous presidents. "Yes, times are still hard for many Nebraska farmers, but they've begun to get better," he said.
 Orr said Nebraska farmers do not

Trail grows cold as search continues for accused killer

WRIGHT CITY, Mo. (AP) — Police pressed the search Wednesday for a former mental patient sought in a three-state rampage of murder and abduction, and authorities said they believed he was still in the area although the trail was growing cold.
 "We're assuming that he's still around here," Missouri Highway Patrol Capt. John Ford said. "We're talking about a man who has demonstrated that he has no respect for life or property. If he were out of this area, I think something would have happened by now."
 Federal, state and local law officers have been hunting for Michael W. Jackson, 41, since he allegedly went on a crime spree that started Monday in Indianapolis.
 Authorities suspect Jackson shot to death two people and abducted four in Indiana, and that he killed one man, wounded a police officer, abducted one person and tried to abduct two others after he crossed Illinois and reached eastern Missouri.
