Senate OKs bill to fight illegal drugs

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate voted Tuesday 97-2 to approve a bill to combat illegal drugs. The Senate bill and a House-passed measure of Sept. 11 reflect Congress' response to increasing voter concern about drugs. The Congressional Budget Office said the House bill authorizes $6.1 billion through the 1991 fiscal year. The Senate bill authorizes $3.2 billion. The Senate measure would give the secretary of defense three months to prepare a list of actions the U.S. military could take to increase anti-drug efforts by civilian agencies. The House measure would give the president 30 days to deploy military equipment and personnel to halt smugglers at the borders and arrest them when in hot pursuit. The House bill would allow capital punishment for people who intentionally caused the death of another person. The House bill would allow admission of evidence found in warrantless searches provided federal officers acted in good faith.
