Daniloff returns, praises improved U.S.-Soviet affairs

CHANTILLY, Va. (AP) — A jubilant Nicholas Daniloff returned Tuesday to the United States, saying "I feel vindicated" and declaring that improved U.S.-Soviet relations are the "silver lining" in the cloud of his arrest on espionage charges.

The 51-year-old U.S. News & World Report correspondent, appearing at a news conference shortly after his arrival at Dulles International Airport, held up a "Free Nick Daniloff" T-shirt that had been altered. The new version read, "Freed Nick Daniloff."

Daniloff noted that the United States and the Soviet Union had announced that President Reagan and Soviet leader Mikhail S. Gorbachev will meet in Iceland on Oct. 11-12.

"I am pleased the cloud that hung over Soviet-American affairs is dissipating," he said. "This is a wonderful thing."

Referring to his Soviet heritage,

Daniloff recalled that his Russian grandmother in New Hampshire used to tell him that "there's a silver lining in every cloud. . . I feel that what has happened, as I've been flying across the ocean, has really illustrated that."

Daniloff said that Secretary of State George Shultz and Soviet Foreign Minister Eduard Shevardnadze spent 20 hours negotiating his release and as a result have gotten to know each other better as negotiators and as human beings.

Upon their arrival at the airport, Daniloff and his wife, Ruth, were whisked from the Pan Am airliner to the airport terminal for a reunion with daughter Miranda, 23, and son Caleb, 16.

Late Tuesday, the White House announced that time had been cleared on Reagan's schedule for a visit by the Daniloffs to the Oval Office Wednesday.

Task force says POWs being held in SE Asia

WASHINGTON (AP) — A task force reported to the Pentagon that it believes there is a strong possibility that American servicemen from the Vietnam War are still being held prisoner in Southeast Asia despite the lack of hard evidence.

The findings of the task force were released Tuesday by Lt. Gen. Leonard H. Perroots, head of the Defense Intelligence Agency. Perroots created the task force last spring to gain an independent assessment of his agency's work on the prisoner of war-missing in action issue.

Perroots, during a Pentagon briefing, said he could not adopt the panel's conclusion that there was a strong possibility of live American prisoners in Southeast Asia. He expressed concern that reports on the task force's work might raise false hopes among the families of missing Americans.

The task force failed to provide any facts, Perroots said. He said he doesn't know if there are live American prisoners in Southeast Asia but would ask the president to take action if he had any actual evidence.

The report by the task force, which was headed by one of Perroots' predecessors, retired Lt. Gen. Eugene F. Tighe Jr., has been classified and was not released to reporters. Perroots summarized its findings and read selected portions.

Perroots said the panel found no evidence of a cover-up by anyone in DIA or anywhere in the U.S. government in terms of handling POW information.

The task force, which included several former and current officials with the DIA and CIA, also made recommendations to improve investigation of POW reports, Perroots said.

Shultz says override of veto could chill negotiations

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State George P. Shultz told Republican senators Tuesday that a vote to override President Reagan's veto of South African sanctions would undercut Reagan's ability to negotiate with Soviet leader Mikhail Gorbachev.

The White House, fighting to save the administration's policy of moving slowly on attempts to punish the white-minority government for its policy of apartheid, also announced that Reagan is naming career diplomat Edward J. Perkins, 58, to be the first black American ambassador to Pretoria.

Shultz's appeal for votes to sustain Reagan's veto of tough legislative sanctions against P.W. Botha's government, along with the Perkins appointment, seems to have been coupled with Reagan's offer Monday to issue new but limited sanctions against South Africa by executive order.

Perkins has been serving as U.S. ambassador to Liberia. He would succeed Ambassador Herman W. Nickel in Pretoria when confirmed by the Senate.

Senate Majority Leader Bob Dole, R-Kan., said Shultz told the group of nine to 10 Republican lawmakers that it "wouldn't be of any help to the president when he sits down with Mr. Gorbachev to have been clobbered by the Congress on a foreign policy issue."
