Unhappy chairman resigns from UH prestigious posts

HOUSTON (AP) — The chairman of the University of Houston's NCAA athletic advisory committee has resigned from two other prestigious campus posts, citing unhappiness in the over-involvement of regents.

Bruce Oppenheimer, an associate professor of political science, has vacated his positions as the regents' appointee to the Intercollegiate Athletic Council and as the vice chairman of the Faculty Senate, saying he is frustrated and angry with the way school athletic problems have been handled.

Oppenheimer said Tuesday he plans to continue serving as a member of the NCAA-mandated athletic advisory committee composed of mostly faculty and several students. But he said the committee has had increasingly little influence over the school's athletics.

"My experiences, especially in the past year, convince me of the absence of leadership at the University of Houston," Oppenheimer said in a letter to the faculty senate. "The handling of the ongoing budgetary problems and of a variety of issues in our intercollegiate athletic program, as well as the over-involvement of the regents in the day-to-day operations of the university, confirm this leadership vacuum."

"The faculty members at this campus deserve better from the administration," he added.

Regents Chairwoman Debra Hanna declined to comment on Oppenheimer's letter saying she had not seen it.

"I'm sure Bruce is only speaking for himself," she said. "I've heard from many faculty members who've very excited about the direction the university is taking now."

Oppenheimer said he also had appointed that the university was trying slowly to improve the academic performance of athletes.

Clemens' right elbow suffers bruise

BOSTON (AP) — Boston right-hander Roger Clemens, making his last start before the American League playoffs, suffered a bruised right elbow Wednesday night when he was struck by a line drive during a game with the Baltimore Orioles. He is not expected to miss his Game 1 start in the playoffs.

Clemens, 24-4, apparently escaped serious injury less than three hours after being told by Manager John McNamara that he would start against the California Angels here Tuesday night in the opener of the AL Championship Series.

Dr. Arthur Pappas, the Red Sox' team physician, reported that X-rays disclosed no broken bones. He said that Clemens suffered a bruise and his status was "day-to-day."

Pappas said he expected Clemens to be pitching "in the early playoffs," and the Red Sox made no immediate plans to change their pitching strategy.

"X-rays showed no bone damage other than a bruise and now we just have to wait until tomorrow to see how much swelling and discomfort there is," Pappas said.

"The ball hit just above the elbow on the outside and there doesn't appear to be any muscle damage," the doctor added. "We just have to wait. We're not talking a matter of weeks, we're talking a matter of days."

Clemens was struck by a ball hit by Baltimore catcher John Stefero with runners on first and third and two outs in the second.

The ball struck Clemens on the outside of the right elbow as he turned away on his follow through.

Cleveland signs No. 1 NBA draft pick

RICHFIELD, Ohio (AP) — Brad Daugherty, the first player chosen in the 1986 NBA draft, became the highest-paid player in Cleveland Cavaliers' history Wednesday, signing a guaranteed six-year, $6 million contract.

The 7-footer from the University of North Carolina reportedly will be paid $500,000 in the first year of the deal, with annual raises until reaching $1.5 million in the sixth year.

Cleveland's highest-paid player previously was center Mel Tinpin, who is in the third year of a four-year deal worth an estimated $2.5 million.

Daugherty averaged 20.2 points and 9.0 rebounds per game in his senior year with the Tar Heels.

Brewers name Trebelhorn new manager

MILWAUKEE (AP) — The Milwaukee Brewers, nearing the end of a disappointing season in which they are battling to stay out of last place in the American League East, Wednesday chose Tom Trebelhorn as their manager for 1987.

Trebelhorn, 38, the club's third-base coach, became interim manager last Friday when George Bamberger retired. The Brewers had a 74-82 record going into Wednesday's games and were two games ahead of last-place Baltimore.

Terms of Trebelhorn's one-year contract were not announced, but the manager said "I've never been paid so handsomely in my life for something I love to do."

Packers sign Fusina, keep looking at Flutie

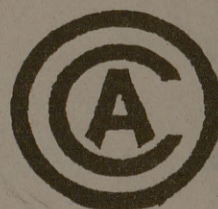

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — The struggling Green Bay Packers signed former USFL quarterback Chuck Fusina on Wednesday, but Coach Forrest Gregg said his team wasn't abandoning its pursuit of 1984 Heisman Trophy winner Doug Flutie.

Gregg said he talked to the Los Angeles Rams, who own the NFL rights to the 5-foot-9 Flutie, "but not in a serious manner."

Flutie and Fusina worked out with the Packers on Tuesday, as Gregg searched for a quarterback who could move his new ball control offense.

The 0-4 Packers have scored only two touchdowns with third-year pro Randy Wright and veteran backup Vince Ferragamo leading the offense.
