

Movie Review

Movie Scene

CINEMA III
Skaggs Center
846-6714

"Ran"
(R)

Japanese director Akira Kurosawa's newest film and epic masterpiece finally makes it to the Bryan-College Station area. See at all costs!

"Aliens"
(R)

Ripley (Sigourney Weaver) and a troop of Space Marines go to a strange planet to fight tons of carnivorous aliens in this science fiction thriller that keeps you on the edge of your seat. This sequel is more fun than the original.

"Armed Response"
(R)

Starts today.

PLAZA 3
226 Southwest Parkway
693-2457

"Crocodile Dundee"
(PG)

Australian comedian Paul Hogan comes to America and finds his life of kangaroos and boomerangs replaced with hookers and muggers.

"Top Gun"
(PG)

Tom Cruise and Kelly McGillis in a long commercial for the U.S. Armed Forces with a love story thrown in for good measure. The cinematography is great, especially if you like flying sequences. This movie has some of the best.

"Extremities"
(R)

Farrah Fawcett takes revenge on a guy who sexually assaulted her. He got what he deserved, but the audience shouldn't be made to suffer through it. Plastic acting doesn't help the dumb sceney.

MANOR EAST 3
Manor East Mall
823-8300

"Ruthless People"
(R)

Bette Midler and Danny DeVito in an updated version of an O. Henry story. A couple of kidnappers make off with DeVito's wife (Midler), only to find that DeVito doesn't want her back, no matter what the price. The kidnappers steal Midler, but she steals the show.

"Stand By Me"
(R)

Director Rob Reiner's version of Stephen King's novella "The Body." This is not another horror flick but a warm look at friendship, good times and growing up. One of the best screen adaptations of a King novel.

"Tough Guys"
(PG)

Starts today. See review page 10.

POST OAK III
Post Oak Mall
764-0616

"Room With A View"
(not rated)

Maggie Smith and Denholm Elliot in this filmed version of E.M. Forster's novel. A good story combined with rich cinematography, this movie is made the way they used to make them — with a plot. There is some brief male frontal nudity in one of the film's most hilarious scenes.

"Playing for Keeps"
(PG-13)

Starts today.

"Always"
(R)

Starts today.

SCHULMAN 6
2002 E. 29th
775-2463

"Armed and Dangerous"
(PG)

SCTVers John Candy and Eugene Levy play a couple of policemen who get into a lot of trouble with crooks and cops.

"Nothing in Common"
(PG)

Tom Hanks and Jackie Gleason in a bittersweet comedy about a successful businessman and his attempts to become closer to his father.

"Out of Bounds"
(R)

Starts today.

"Flight of the Navigator"
(PG)

A Walt Disney science fiction adventure.

"Link"
(R)

Starts today.

"Karate Kid II"
(PG)

Ralph Macchio and Pat Morita star in this sequel that takes them to Japan and yet another karate tournament.

AGGIE CINEMA/
CEPHEID VARIABLE
Rudder Theatre
Complex
845-1234

Friday

"9½ Weeks"
(R)

Mickey Rourke and Kim Basinger in a film about a strange sexual relationship. If you are a little kinky you might enjoy the sadomasochism but the film isn't very exciting.

Saturday

"Ladyhawke" and "Robin & Marion"
(PG)

In "Ladyhawke," Rutger Hauer, Michèle Pfeiffer and Matthew Broderick fight to end an evil bishop's curse in this fantasy adventure. "Robin and Marion" stars Sean Connery as the man who robs from the rich, gives to the poor and has a good time with the lady of the castle.

Wednesday

"101 Dalmations"
(G)

A wonderful Disney animated feature about a witchy woman trying to kidnap a bunch of dogs. Lots of animals and lots of fun.

Thursday

"Batman"
(PG)

Batman (Adam West) and Robin (Burt Ward) make their usual valiant effort to save the United Nations from the combined forces of the Catwoman (Lee Meriwether), the Penguin (Burgess Meredith), the Joker (Cesar Romero) and the Riddler (Frank Gorshin).