Reports say cuffs used in UT hazing

AUSTIN (AP) — A University of Texas fraternity pledge, who died after drinking about 18 ounces of rum, had been handcuffed and told to drink the night before he was found dead in his dormitory room, it was reported Tuesday.

Quoting unnamed sources, the Austin American-Statesman said Mark Seeberger, 18, had one hand cuffed to the roof of a van during the "ride" with two other pledges and was ordered to drink.

The Travis County medical examiner has ruled that Seeberger, found in his room on Sept. 18, died of alcohol poisoning.

A ride is what some fraternities call the practice of taking pledges far from home and letting them out, often while intoxicated, to make their way back. UT officials say the practice is considered hazing.

An affidavit requesting a search warrant for the van that carried Seeberger and the others cited a statement to police by another Phi Kappa Psi pledge.

The statement confirmed that three pledges, including Seeberger, were handcuffed in the van on the night of Sept. 17.

Five liquor bottles were found in the van after District Judge Robert D. Jones issued a search warrant last week, the American-Statesman reported.

Court records also said no one in the van — the pledges, three regular fraternity members and a girlfriend of one member — had reached the legal drinking age of 21.

2 arrested after murder at Sour Lake

SOUR LAKE (AP) — Authorities using tracking dogs from Huntsville Tuesday captured two men suspected of fatally shooting a man who caught them burglarizing his home and wounding two others, authorities said.

Liberty County officials said a resident of Sour Lake in Hardin county, a town about 15 miles west of Beaumont, returned home Monday night with his brother and a friend and found two men inside his home at about 9 p.m.

The owner of the home was shot and killed. His brother and the friend were also shot.

The brother was treated and released and the other man was listed in fair condition at a local hospital, said a dispatcher who would not give his name.

Authorities found a truck belonging to the dead man between Baston and Sour Lake and arrested one of the suspects.

The second suspect was arrested shortly after midnight about four miles west of Sour Lake, he said.

Both men were being held without bond in the Liberty County Jail on charges of capital murder, he said.
