A&M Sports Club Update

ARCHERY hosted a tournament this weekend near the Zachry parking lots. In the men's division after the two-day tournament, A&M took the top three places in the following order: Gary Boecker, first; Tommy Thompson, second; Rick Stonebraker, third.

In the women's division, Texas' Jessica Schumacher grabbed first, Terry Quinn placed second on an open basis and A&M's Kathy Craig finished third.

POLO men's team went 1-1 in an intercollegiate tournament Saturday at the indoor facilities of the Retama Polo Center near San Antonio. A&M lost to Texas Tech 7-8, but came back to beat Texas 6-1.

RIFLERY hosted the Aggie Invitational last weekend and its two teams took first and second place out of a 10-team field from Texas and Louisiana. The University of Texas at Arlington finished third.

Individually for A&M in the .22-caliber rifle meet, Vinnie Pestilli took first with 1156 points of a possible 1200, Mike Moore grabbed second with 1152 and Annette Tyler and Chris Fedun tied for third at 1145.

The team competed at the Sam Houston State Invitational on Friday and also took first. The top three finishers were Pestilli, Fedun and Moore.

The Aggies also finished first as a junior team (20 years and younger) at the Texas State High-Power Rifle Match in San Antonio Sunday. A&M took the top spots with Mike Kurzy in first, Donna Goodloe in second and Allen Ludwig in third.

This weekend the seventh-ranked Aggies go to Colorado Springs, Colo. in a four-team competition with the Air Force Academy (ranked 10th), the University of Texas at El Paso and Wyoming.

RODEO competed in the National Intercollegiate Rodeo Association Rodeo in Uvalde this weekend. There are two types of competition: long-go, which is the preliminary action in an event; and short-go, in which the top 10 individuals from long-go action compete.

The placing for A&M was as follows (by event, long-go placing, short-go placing and average of the two): Tate Christensen, tie-down calf roping (8th, 3rd, 3rd); Anita Balch, barrel racing (6th, 3rd, 4th); Rebecca Powers, goat tying (8th, 5th, 6th); Renee Blackwell, breakaway racing (6th, 4th, 4th).

MEN'S RUGBY played Southwest Texas State University this weekend. SWTSU's A side beat A&M's A squad 20-4, but the Aggie B side beat SWTSU 22-6 behind Tim Cone's three tries.

This weekend the team travels to San Antonio to play the San Antonio club.

MEN'S SOCCER hosts Baylor at 10 a.m. Saturday on the Zachry field.

WOMEN'S SOCCER fought to a 1-1 tie Saturday with the University of Missouri at St. Louis on the A&M drill field. Pam Patack scored for the Aggies.

A&M, 4-5-1, will host Missouri Rolla Saturday at 2 p.m.

ULTIMATE FRISBEE hosted the Aggie Ultimate Experience this weekend with eight men's teams and three women's teams. The A&M women's team went 1-1 in the round-robin tournament, while the men were 0-3 in its four-team pool.

Baseball to be added to '92 Olympic Games

LAUSANNE, Switzerland (AP) — Baseball was added to the Olympics beginning in 1992 on Monday, while the top officials of the Games said they had reached the limit on the number of sports they were willing to move to try to avoid a North Korean boycott in 1988.

Teams from at least six nations will determine gold, silver and bronze medals in baseball, a demonstration sport in Los Angeles in 1984, Vitaly Smirnov, chairman of the International Olympic Committee's program commission, announced.

"Baseball is part of the Olympics, from 1992 on," Smirnov said.

He said the IOC's 91st session asked for a complete review of possible eligibility dilemmas with professional players and agreed that the tournament might have to be played on converted soccer fields if the host city doesn't have baseball diamonds.

An IOC member from the Soviet Union, Smirnov also mentioned that his country's Sports Ministry earlier this month had agreed to recognize and promote America's national pastime.

Japan beat the United States for the demonstration gold medal in baseball two years ago.

For 1988 in Seoul, he said, the IOC had voted to add men's and women's events in 50-meter freestyle swimming and team archery, while dropping the open judo class. This will bring the total number of events in the next Summer Games to 237, 16 more than in Los Angeles.

Smirnov said the committee had rejected proposals to add three other new medal sports in 1992 — bowling, women's modern pentathlon and roller skating.

It will give further consideration, he added, to the proposed addition of women's softball, water skiing, martial arts and lightweight rowing, as well as all possible medal additions to the Winter Games.

While the size of future Olympics grew, the fate of the 1988 Games again was thrown into the shadow of a possible North Korean walkout.

The 86-member IOC unanimously endorsed a stand taken last month by its Executive Board, giving Pyongyang until one year before the Games to formally accept the proposal to move table tennis, archery and parts of soccer and cycling from Seoul to the north.

If no written agreement is received by Sept. 17, 1987, "then North Korea might decide not to take part in the Olympic Games," Michele Verdier, the IOC spokeswoman, said.

Politically inspired boycotts have hit each of the last three Summer Games — in Montreal in 1976, Moscow in 1980 and Los Angeles in 1984.
