Cowboys squeak by Eagles

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Rafael Septien's 38-yard field goal with six seconds remaining rallied the Dallas Cowboys to a 17-14 NFL victory Sunday over the Philadelphia Eagles.

The Cowboys won narrowly despite a defense that collected 10 sacks, including three by defensive end Jim Jeffcoat and two each for strong safety Bill Bates and Randy White.

Eagles third-string quarterback Randall Cunningham, who was called upon in the second half after the Eagles could manage only 62 yards in the first two periods, ran 14 yards for a touchdown and threw a 15-yard scoring pass to wide receiver Mike Quick to forge a 14-14 tie with 7:41 left in the game.

The Cowboys' winning drive to their fifth victory against two losses started with 1:50 left to play at their 37.

Backup quarterback Steve Pelluer completed a 9-yard pass to Tony Dorsett and then scrambled 21 to a first down at the Eagles' 33.

Dallas Coach Tom Landry then sent in regular quarterback Danny White, who has been sidelined three weeks with a groin pull. White hit fullback Timmy Newsome for 18 yards and a first down at the Eagles' 18.

The Cowboys tried three plays and the Septien came on to kick his seventh field goal in eight attempts this year.

The Cowboys led 7-0 at halftime as the result of a seven-play, 76-yard, first-period drive that was capped by Pelluer's 22-yard touchdown pass to tight end Doug Cosbie. Cunningham, however, led Philadelphia to a game-tying touchdown 2:51 into the third quarter on a five-play, 80-yard drive, which he finished with a 14-yard scramble into the end zone.

The Cowboys surged ahead when Pelluer connected with wide receiver Tony Hill for 53 yards and a first down at the Eagles' 15.

On the next play, Dorsett raced wide right into the end zone for a 14-7 Dallas lead with 1:07 remaining in the quarter.

But Cunningham directed the Eagles 51 yards on six plays to knot it again at 14 with 7:19 remaining. The key play was a third and 16 completion to Ron Johnson for a first down at the Eagles' 24. Cunningham then threw the final 15 to Quick in the end zone.

Bengals stun Oilers with late TD

CINCINNATI (AP) — James Brooks bowled over two tacklers on a 21-yard touchdown run with 43 seconds to play Sunday afternoon, capping a desperate drive that gave the Cincinnati Bengals a 31-28 victory over the stunned Houston Oilers.

Houston, 1-6, had taken the lead just 43 seconds earlier when linebacker Robert Lyles picked up a fumble and ran 93 yards untouched for a touchdown and a 28-24 lead.

The 5-2 Bengals furiously covered 70 yards in five plays, capped by Brooks' second touchdown run of the game. Brooks led the Bengals offense with 133 yards on 18 carries and 62 yards on six catches.

The 1-6 Oilers suffered their sixth consecutive loss, extending their streak of futility against Cincinnati. The Oilers have lost their last six games at Riverfront Stadium since 1980 and have dropped 10 of their last 11 games to the Bengals.

The Bengals, 5-2, took sole possession of first place in the AFC Central Division with its best start since 1982, the last time they went to the playoffs with a 7-2 record in the strike-shortened season.

The Oilers appeared to have pulled a stunning reversal in the closing minutes, before quarterback Boomer Esiason rallied Cincinnati against the top-ranked defense in the American Conference.

Cincinnati was leading 24-21 and poised to run out the clock on the Oiler 5-yard line after Houston used its last time out.

Fullback Larry Kinnebrew took a hand-off, ran into the middle of the Oiler line and fumbled. The ball went to Lyles, who was laying on the ground. The replay confirmed he picked the ball up without being touched before sprinting for the Oilers' first lead of the game with 1:26 to play.

Esiason hit Cris Collinsworth with a 25-yard pass to start the Bengals' winning drive. He completed 13 of 25 passes for 192 yards in the game.
