Clements attacks White's tax hikes, says Texas hurting

Republican candidate won't promise to reverse tax increases if elected

AUSTIN (AP) — While accusing Gov. Mark White of picking Texans' pockets with repeated tax increases, Republican Bill Clements stopped short Tuesday of pledging to reverse any of the White-approved tax hikes.

White enacted a total of $7 billion in new taxes during his four-year term, Clements said, seriously damaging the Texas economy.

However, Clements wouldn't promise a rollback when asked if he would try to repeal some of those new taxes.

"Whether we can in fact roll back taxes... I don't really know," Clements said.

Clements said that as governor he would examine the entire state tax structure to see if it should be overhauled to keep up with a changing economy.

"If we can roll back some of these more significant taxes that have been increased under Mark White, I would certainly be willing to take a hard look at that," Clements said.

"But the whole (tax) restructuring process has to be revenue-neutral. We are not going, overall, to increase taxes in the state of Texas while I'm governor during this next legislative session."

Candidates' TV debate canceled

DALLAS (AP) — Public television station KERA canceled Thursday's gubernatorial debate between Democratic incumbent Mark White and GOP challenger Bill Clements.

A statement Tuesday from the Dallas-Fort Worth-Denton station cited a decision by the Clements campaign not to participate. The station also reported an impasse with White on a workable format.

Clements' aides earlier had reported scheduling problems. KERA then promoted the forum as a one-chair debate.

"We will leave the 8 p.m. Thursday time slot open until the last possible moment, as well as offer any time on any date before the election in hopes that the candidates will reconsider their decisions," said KERA President and General Manager Dr. Richard J. Meyer.

In 1984, White signed a $4.8 billion sales and fuel tax increase to fund school reforms and highway improvements. Last month, in the face of a $2.8 billion state budget deficit, he OK'd temporary increases in the sales tax — raising it from 4 1/2 cents to 5 1/4 — and gasoline tax.

In a speech to officials of the Texas Soil and Water Conservation Districts, Clements said those tax increases had made Texas less appealing to businesses. That means fewer new jobs being created, he said.

"He's sent the worst possible message to businesses," Clements complained.

Clements said Massachusetts learned that lower taxes would help its economy several years ago and began to cut taxes.

"That state's economy has begun to grow again. Surely, what Massachusetts can do, Texas can also do and do better," he said.

The Republican said state spending under White has raged out of control, calling the swelling budget a major factor in the state's economic bust.

"Time and time again, Mark White insisted that he would not raise taxes," he said. "Then he increased state spending and taxes."

Texas unemployment steady in September

AUSTIN (AP) — Unemployment in Texas' urban areas during September remained close to the August figures, the Texas Employment Commission said Tuesday.

The statewide average for September was 9.1, the same as August. The unemployment rate for Bryan-College Station dropped from 6.9 in August to 6.4 in September.

"There's just not a whole lot of change," said John Kruse, TEC labor market analyst. "The situation continues to be bad throughout the state with high levels of unemployment."

The rates of unemployment for September, compared with revised August figures (in parenthesis) included the following:

- Abilene 9.5 (9.7)
- Amarillo 6.6 (6.6)
- Austin 5.8 (5.8)
- Beaumont-Port Arthur 14.1 (14.9)
- Brownsville-Harlingen 16.2 (15.0)
- Corpus Christi 12.1 (12.1)
- Dallas 5.9 (5.8)
- El Paso 13.5 (11.6)
- Fort Worth-Arlington 6.6 (6.7)
- Galveston-Texas City 11.3 (11.3)
- Houston 10.5 (10.6)
- Temple-Killeen 8.2 (7.9)
- Laredo 15.9 (16.1)
- Lubbock 6.5 (6.7)
- Midland 12.3 (12.2)
