

A&M Sports Club Update

FENCING competed in the Rice Open Fencing Tournament last weekend. Top finishers for the Aggies in the 24-person epee field were Kevin Roy, who placed third, and Brad Campbell, who took fourth. Of the 38 individuals in the foil competition, Roy finished fifth, while Alan Curry placed seventh and Campbell grabbed eighth. This weekend the team competes in the Duel at Dallas.

MEN'S LACROSSE lost to its alumni team 15-10 Saturday. The team travels to play Rice at 11 a.m. Sunday.

RIFLERY is in the Triple Crown competition at TCU on Saturday and the University of Texas at Arlington Invitational on Sunday.

ROADRUNNERS will hold preregistration this Wednesday through Friday at 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. on the first floor of the Memorial Student Center for the Nov. 1 Trick or Trot 5-kilometer run.

RODEO will host the All Aggie Reunion Rodeo Friday and Saturday at 7:30 p.m. in the Dick Freeman Arena.

MEN'S RUGBY fell short in defense of its championship at the San Antonio Sevens tournament last weekend when it lost in the finals. The A team, made up of starters Stewart Nolan, David Henderson, John Beard, Mike Livergood, Randy Barr, Todd White and Lewis Marks lost 12-10 to the Houston Oldboys. The B side lost in the quarterfinals of the 32-team field.

The team returns to cup action this Saturday in Houston against the Strikers.

MEN'S SOCCER will take on Southwest Texas State University at the east campus fields Sunday at 2 p.m.

Note to Sports Clubs: We need your help in getting information about your club in this update. Please come by The Battalion at 216 Reed McDonald and fill out the A&M Sports Club Update form found in the sports department. These forms are due by 6 p.m. Monday.

Glanville mourns Oiler misfortunes

HOUSTON (AP) — Coach Jerry Glanville took a figurative midseason look in the mirror at his Houston Oilers Monday and decided the reflection was distorted.

"We're not showing the reflection of what we really are," Glanville said, reviewing Houston's seven-game losing streak and 1-7 record. "Each player is just about two inches away. If we multiply that by 45 and the coaches, it's going to make a big difference."

The Oilers emerged from Glanville's preseason program and compiled a 4-0 preseason record and won their season opener against Green Bay.

Glanville, starting his first season as head coach, became the "man in black," on the sidelines.

But after eight games, the Oilers are showing a different image. The Oilers' defense has ranked among the leaders in the NFL all season, but the offense has fizzled with quarterback Warren Moon taking the bruises and boos.

Moon was sacked by the Los Angeles Raiders six times Sunday during a 28-17 loss, threw four interceptions and had eight passes tipped by charging linemen.

In eight games, Moon has been sacked 26 times and thrown 17 interceptions, despite completing 52 percent of his passes.

Two weeks ago, linebacker Robert Lyles returned a fumble 93 yards for a touchdown in the final two minutes against Cincinnati.

It was just the kind of lift the Oilers needed to win a game and reverse their fortunes. Instead, the Bengals scored in less than a minute and won the game 31-28.

Against the Raiders, the Oilers were penalized 11 times for 80 yards compared with only three infractions for 15 yards against Los Angeles.

"The only one called for jamming the face mask was us," Glanville said.

While many teams at midseason are trying to build on the first half, Glanville says nothing of that.

"We've got to forget what's happened until now and go play the second half of the season," he said.

Rookie receiver Ernest Givins was Houston's leading rusher against the Raiders, gaining 43 yards on one carry, an end around for a touchdown.

To establish their running or passing game, the Oilers must get improved protection from the offensive line.

"We didn't block anybody on Sunday," Glanville said. "You've got to be able to run the football, but it would have taken drano for our backs to run through those holes."

Walker awaits noisy greeting in New Jersey

IRVING (AP) — Herschel Walker figures he'll be in for a hostile homecoming in New Jersey on Sunday.

Walker starred for the New Jersey Generals of the USFL before signing with the NFL Dallas Cowboys this summer. He's to go against the New York Giants for the first time in The Meadowlands, where he played for the Generals.

In a 37-6 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals on Sunday, Walker had his first 100-yard rushing day. Walker, subbing for an injured Tony Dorsett, rushed for 120 yards and scored two touchdowns.

Walker said he looked forward to the NFC showdown with the Giants.

"It will be tough to go back and play for the fans I care a great deal for," Walker said. "It's going to be a very tough game."

"You've heard about the 12th man, well, the New York fans are the loudest in the world. I still have a house in New York and a lot of friends there. It's going to be exciting," he said.

Walker scored on touchdown runs of 19 and 4 yards as Dallas, 6-2, defeated St. Louis, 1-7, for the second time this season. The Cowboys routed them 31-7 Sept. 29 in St. Louis.

Quarterback Danny White started his first game in a month and threw touchdown passes of 36 yards to rookie Mike Sherrard and 20 yards to Tony Hill.

White played only the first half. Dallas Coach Tom Landry decided to let White rest a pulled thigh muscle that has given the 34-year-old, 11-year veteran trouble most of the year.

"Danny was about 90 per cent," Landry said. "I didn't decide until right before the game to play him after talking with the doctors."

"I decided to take a chance and give him some playing time. I didn't plan on him playing more than a half at that time," he said.

Dallas not only didn't need White, who suffered a lacerated chin, but they trounced the Cardinals without the services of Dorsett.

Dorsett decided not to play because of a bruised knee.

White said he never asked Landry to come out of the game.

"There's no asking Coach Landry anything," White said. "If it had been up to me, I probably would have kept playing. My leg feels pretty good, but a little stiff."

The Cowboys downed the Giants 31-28 in the season opener.

Gervin finds 'icy' reception in Italian debut

ROME (AP) — Welcome to Italy, George Gervin and Bob McAdoo.

The former National Basketball Association stars got a rude jolt Sunday night in Gervin's debut in the Italian professional league.

With 24 seconds to play in overtime, and Gervin's Banco Di Roma team trailing McAdoo's Tracer of Milan by seven points, the fans at the Palex pelted the court with coins and other debris.

As the players covered their heads with towels and took refuge on the glass-enclosed sideline benches, the referees decided to suspend the game and declared Tracer a 104-97 winner.

Neither of the ex-NBA stars was hit, but a Milan player and team official were struck by coins.

Both teams left the court running through a glass-covered runway to the locker rooms.

"I was scared for my life," said Gervin, who spent most of his 14 years in the NBA with the San Antonio Spurs. "I was on the floor and put a towel on my head. It was dangerous. I hope they don't do that anymore."

"I guess it shows the fans are really into the game and wanted us to win," the "Iceman" said. "They got upset by some of the ref's calls and just reacted."

The Gervin-McAdoo matchup did not live up to the sensational billing given it by the Italian media.

Gervin was nowhere near the form that led him to win the NBA scoring title four times and make the league All-Star team five times. He hit 6-for-20 from the field and finished with 14 points.

McAdoo, a three-time NBA scoring champion with Buffalo, fouled out after scoring 12 points.

MSC CAFETERIA

MEMORIAL STUDENT CENTER-TEXAS A&M UNIVERSITY

SPECIALS

$2.89
PLUS TAX

MONDAY EVENING	SALISBURY STEAK Mushroom Gravy, Whipped Potatoes, Choice of Vegetable, Roll or Cornbread, Butter
TUESDAY EVENING	MEXICAN FIESTA Two Cheese Enchiladas With Chili, Rice, Beans, Tostadas
WEDNESDAY EVENING	CHICKEN FRIED STEAK Cream Gravy, Whipped Potatoes, Choice of Vegetable, Roll or Cornbread, Butter
THURSDAY EVENING	ITALIAN DINNER Spaghetti, Meatballs, Sauce, Parmesan Cheese, Tossed Salad, Hot Garlic Bread
FRIDAY EVENING	FRIED CATFISH Tartar Sauce, Cole Slaw, Hush Puppies, Choice of Vegetable
SATURDAY NOON & EVENING	YANKEE POT ROAST (Texas Style), Tossed Salad, Mashed Potatoes W/Gravy, Roll or Cornbread, Butter
SUNDAY NOON & EVENING	ROAST TURKEY DINNER Served with Cranberry Sauce, Cornbread Dressing, Roll or Cornbread, Butter, Giblet Gravy, Choice of Vegetable

TEA OR COFFEE INCLUDED
AT NO EXTRA CHARGE ON SPECIALS

EVENING SPECIALS AVAILABLE 4:00 PM TO 7:00 PM DAILY
MSC CAFETERIA OPEN 11:00 AM-1:30 PM AND 4:00 PM TO 7:00 PM DAILY

"Quality First"

Styling for Men & Women

$5 OFF Perms
(regular $35)

$2 OFF Haircuts
(regular $10)

with this coupon
Open M-F 9-6 Sat. 9-2

268-2051

Located in the Lower Level Memorial Student Center exp. 12/20/86

STUDENT GOVERNMENT
TEXAS A&M UNIVERSITY

Get Involved

STUDENT SENATE VACANCIES

Ward I
Ward II
Ward III

University Apartment
Liberal Arts Graduate
Education Graduates
Geosciences

OFF CAMPUS WARD SYSTEM:

SKAGGS	III
IV	UNIV. DR.
TAMU	I
II	POST OAK MALL

Requirements:
1. Attend all Senate meetings.
Fall Schedule: Nov 5, 19, Dec 3, 7-30 p.m. 204 Harrington
Spring Schedule to be announced.
2. Participants on one of six legislative committees (Academic Affairs, External Affairs, Internal Affairs, Finance, Rules and Regulations, Student Services)
3. Report to a student organization that is representative of your constituency.
4. Maintain a GPR of 2.25 or higher and post at least a 2.0 every semester while in office.

Applications are in 221 Pavilion and are due by Friday, Oct. 31 at 5 pm. If there are questions or more information needed, please call:
Miles Bradshaw, Speaker of the Senate 696-4387
Mason Hogan, Speaker Pro Tempore 260-3367

TECHNICAL SALES

Part-time

Millipore Corporation is the world leader in the field of Separations Technology - products and processes needed in the analysis and purification of fluids. We currently have part-time openings for qualified individuals to sell our Membrane Filtration products to universities and hospitals in the College Station area. These commissioned sales opportunities require a good science and technology background, strong interpersonal skills, and the ability to devote at least 10 hours of your time per week. Previous sales experience is preferred but not required. These are excellent opportunities for Graduate or Undergraduate Science majors to gain outstanding experience with an industry leader while earning a good income on a part-time basis.

Interested candidates should forward a letter and/or resume to Human Resources Department, Millipore Corporation, 117 Edinburg South, Suite 206, Cary, North Carolina 27511. No phone calls please.

An Equal Opportunity Employer M/F/H/V.

MILLIPORE

KANN SunGloss Sale

99.9 fm cable texas a&m university

Texas Aggies

Featuring Texas Aggie Super Dark Wayfarer

Wednesday, Oct. 29
8 am-5 pm

Also, all kinds of fashion sunglasses and sterling silver jewelry from WYNMERE LTD.

All glasses $7, free cord and case with sunglass purchase

Bring ad in for $1 off

FARMERS MARKET

announces the following

Rich Boy Sandwich,

your choice of chips & medium drink

only $2.19 plus tax
w/this coupon...($3.09 value)

offer valid until Nov. 7th

University Dr. at Northgate
846-6428

The Bridal Boutique

Dainty or Daring:

The Bridal Boutique has the formal for your holiday social.

25% OFF All Formals

- Dyed-to-match shoes, handbags
- Colorful hosiery
- Shoe clips and much more

Capture the Glitter of the everything with

The Bridal Boutique

693-9358 • Park Place Plaza • College Station

Are you reading this?

This could be an ad for your business

Think about it...

The Battalion
845-2611