

At Ease

CONTENTS

This week's At Ease features fiction, some ideas for you last-minute costume shoppers, a suggestion for tripping the light fantastic tonight and the return of that cool dude of advice columns, your pal and his, Uncle Leonard.

"Ghost Image" is the story of a guy named Steve who gets more than he bargains for when he buys a television. The set he purchases provides a picture that is so clear, sharp and beautiful that it's . . . a little seductive. But there may be more behind the screen than a picture tube and electronic circuits.

At Ease Staff

Editors Bill Hughes
Marybeth Rohsner
Staff writers Tony Cornett
Karen Kroesche
Nancy Neukirchner
Reviews Karl Pallmeyer
Photographer Bill Hughes

Features

Ghost Image _____ 6

Buying a TV set isn't what it used to be. Just ask Steve. He just bought one that has remote control, stereo speakers, state-of-the-art picture quality and . . . a little something extra.

Uncle Leonard returns! _____ 10

The mustachioed madman is back in all of his untamed glory. If you've got a problem, he can solve it for you without even thinking. If you don't have a problem, he can create one for you. He's been called "Mr. Rock 'N' Roll of the advice column" but here at At Ease, we just call him Uncle Len. Then we pay him and ask him to go away.

Departments

Previews _____ 3,4

Last-minute tips for finding a Halloween costume; Laser light show; Aggie Players present "A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum; MSC Town Hall/Broadway presents "Jesus Christ Superstar"

Reviews _____ 5

Movie Review: "Blue Velvet"

Movie Scene: What's showing around town