Morris rushes for 181 yards as Giants hold off Cowboys

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. (AP) — New York's Joe Morris ran for 181 yards and two touchdowns, and the New York defense controlled the Cowboys' 30-point-a-game offense as the Giants beat the Cowboys 17-14 Sunday.

Morris, who ran for an 8-yard touchdown in the second quarter and a 6-yarder in the fourth, was virtually the entire New York offense as the Giants improved to 7-2 in the NFC East and dropped the Cowboys to 6-3.

The teams entered this critical NFC game tied for first in the division with the Washington Redskins, who recently past Minnesota 44-38 in overtime.

The New York defense, led by outside linebackers Carl Banks and Lawrence Taylor, didn't shut down Dallas. But it sacked Danny White, who later went out with a broken wrist, and Steve Pelluer, who replaced White, six times and made the key plays when it had to, including a 14-yard sack by George Martin that took Dallas out of field-goal range in the final minute. White's wrist was broken 10 minutes into the game after a sack by Banks. The injury will put White out for at least six weeks.

New York took a 10-7 lead in a first half despite turning the ball over three times. And the third period was scoreless despite almost total control by the Cowboys — the Giants gained just 10 yards in 11 plays during the period.

But things picked up in the fourth quarter.

The Cowboys then drove 90 yards in just eight plays. Tony Dorsett ran a draw play in from 23 yards out to make it 17-14 with 7:29 left. The key play in that drive was a 39-yard completion from Pelluer to Hersch Walker, who made the catch despite a fierce hit from Terry Kinard. Walker bounced off Kinard and ran for 15 more yards.

Dallas later attempted to tie it up with a 63-yard field goal by Rafael Septien, but it fell way short with only 13 seconds left.

Dolphins rip hapless Oilers 28-7

MIAMI (AP) — Dan Marino threw four touchdown passes, three in a 4:29 span in the second period, as the Miami Dolphins whipped the Houston Oilers 28-7 Sunday.

Marino's scoring tosses covered eight, 38, three and 85 yards as the Dolphins, 4-5, won consecutive games for the first time this year. Marino finished with 12 completions in 29 attempts for 220 yards with two interceptions.

The Oilers dropped to 1-8 with their eighth straight loss.

An interception and 36-yard return by safety Donovan Rose three plays later set up a 3-yard scoring pass from Marino to Tony Nathan 39 seconds before halftime.

The Dolphins scored again on their first second-half possession when Mark Duper snared a short pass over the middle and turned it into an 85-yard touchdown.

The Oilers moved 50 yards in seven plays after an interception by Richard Johnson for their only score. Mike Rozier scored on a 1-yard touchdown run with 12:46 to play.

On the second play of the next Miami possession, Davenport ripped off right tackle for 25 yards, the longest run from scrimmage for the Dolphins this year. Two plays later, Marino drilled one over the middle to Moore, who caught the ball at the 15 and side-stepped two defenders to get to the end zone.

Oilers starting quarterback Warren Moon was yanked from the lineup to start the second half, but backup Oliver Luck also had trouble creating much offense against the unusually strong Miami defense.

Luck was 9-of-19 for 119 yards, and Moon was 5-of-8 for 45 yards. Both threw one interception.

The Oilers suffered two major injuries. Defensive back Bo Eason and wide receiver Ernest Givins had to be taken off the field on stretches.

Eason with a knee injury and Givins with a neck problem. Givins didn't lose movement in his arms and legs.

There Are Some Things You Should Ask Bill Clements And His Campaign Workers Before You Go To The Polls Tomorrow

Why did he say that "If I had to name one state agency that was a greater waste than any other, it would have to be our institutions of higher education in this state?"

(Austin American Statesman, Oct. 20, 1986)

Why did he veto agricultural research at the Agricultural Experiment Station, Texas Tech, and West Texas State?

Why did he say that the state should raise tuition, because it would only cost students "half a coke a day"?

The Legislative Budget Board estimated that, without a tax increase, the Texas A&M budget would have to be cut by more than a third.

GOVERNOR MARK WHITE had the courage to fight for a tax increase to keep our colleges and universities open
