Leonard-Hagler bout to be richest fight ever

NEW YORK (AP) — Sugar Ray Leonard, carrying the medical seal of approval from a number of doctors, will return to the ring in April to challenge Marvelous Marvin Hagler for the middleweight championship of the world in the richest fight in history, it was announced Monday.

Leonard, the former welterweight and junior middleweight champ, is guaranteed $11 million for the fight, while Hagler, the undisputed middleweight king, has a $12 million guarantee. The guarantees are the largest in boxing history.

"The original deal, which Leonard did not accept, would have paid him $8 million plus 30 percent of the revenue in excess of $25 million," promoter Bob Arum said at a news conference. "He opted instead to be bought out of the percentage for $3 million. If the fight does over $30 million, he lost money. If it does under $30 million, he made money. It was a businessman's decision.

"Marvin gets 50-75 percent of revenue over $25 million."

Arum said the fight, set for April 6 at Caesars Palace in Las Vegas, Nev., could have a potential closed circuit and pay-per-view audience of 3 million and might gross as much as $100 million. That would double the previous gross set by heavyweights Larry Holmes and Gerry Cooney at Caesars in 1982.

Closed circuit tickets went on sale at New York's Radio City Music Hall Monday at $60 each. The 15,000-seat arena at Caesars is scaled with a $700 top price and a sellout will yield $7,867,100 from the live gate.
