

Aggie MIAs

Maj. William Fuller
Class of '57
MIA: Aug. 25, 1967
KIA: May 16, 1973

Fuller attended pilot training and was an instructor at Laughlin Air Force Base. He was an instructor in the first class to fly T-38 aircraft.

In 1967 he was reassigned to Cam Ranh Bay, South Vietnam, flying F-4C aircraft. On Aug. 25, the pilot of another aircraft saw Fuller's aircraft explode. No evidence has ever been found. ★

Maj. Murray Wortham
Class of '65
MIA: Dec. 30, 1967
KIA: May 13, 1973

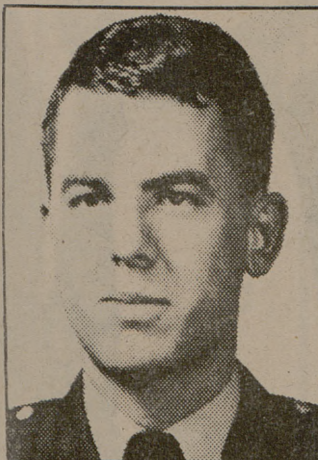

Wortham majored in accounting.

His F-4C jet aircraft went down on Dec. 30, 1967 in Laos during a night mission. It was Wortham's 33rd combat mission.

Wortham's decorations include the Distinguished Flying Cross, Air Medal with four oak leaf clusters, a Bronze Star, and the Purple Heart. ★

Lt. Michael Dunn
Class of '63
MIA: Jan. 26, 1968
KIA: Nov. 26, 1973

No other information is available. ★

Capt. Ronald Forrester
Class of '69
MIA: Dec. 27, 1972
KIA: Sept. 8, 1978

Forrester majored in civil engineering.

Before being based at Royal Air Base, Thailand, he was stationed at Pensacola Naval Air Station, Fla. and at Marine Corps Air Station in Cherry Point, N.C.

The report of his disappearance said Forrester's plane was hit while on a mission to take out a bridge near Dong Hoi, an industrialized North Vietnamese city. The report said one pilot was killed and one was captured, but it is not known which of these was Forrester.

Forrester's decorations include the Purple Heart; Air Medal, 3rd award; National Defense Service Medal; and Vietnam Cross of Gallantry with palm. ★

Capt. Dennis Graham
Class of '63
MIA: March 28, 1968
KIA: Feb. 15, 1974

A business administration major, Graham disappeared while flying an F-111A aircraft on his third mission in North Vietnam. He had been at Royal Thai Air Base, Thailand for only three weeks.

He was previously stationed at Reese Air Force Base, Elgin Air Force Base, Fla. and Nellis Air Force Base, Nev.

Graham's decorations include the Silver Star, the Distinguished Flying Cross, the Air Medal and a Purple Heart with three oak leaf clusters. ★

Lt. John Baldridge Jr.
Class of '68
MIA: Nov. 20, 1969
KIA: July 1973

No other information is available. ★

Lt. Col. Donald Luna
Class of '60
MIA: Feb. 1, 1969
KIA: Nov. 29, 1978

Luna attended Texas A&M for one year.

After completing pilot training school, he was an instructor at Laredo Air Force Base. Luna later was transferred to Randolph Air Force Base.

In 1968 he volunteered for service in Vietnam. He was stationed at Ubon, Thailand.

Luna was flying a mission in Laos when his radio quit working. A pilot flying in different territory asked Luna to respond to a series of questions with three clicks of his transmitter. Luna signified he was returning to base, but didn't show up by the appointed time. A search was started, but Luna was never found.

Luna's decorations include the Purple Heart, the Distinguished Flying Cross, the Air Medal with four oak leaf clusters. ★

Capt. Greg Hartness
Class of '60
MIA: Nov. 26, 1968
KIA: July 1, 1980

Hartness attended Texas A&M for one year and worked toward an engineering degree. Before going to Vietnam, he was stationed at Hahn Air Base, Germany.

Hartness' CO-2 aircraft was shot down during a night reconnaissance mission. The copilot bailed out of the plane and said he thought Hartness had followed him, but he could not be sure because there was no moon.

Hartness's decorations include the Purple Heart, the Distinguished Flying Cross and the Air Medal with 12 oak leaf clusters. ★

Capt. Neal Ward
Class of '67
MIA: June 13, 1969
KIA: June 20, 1978

Ward graduated with an animal science degree.

He earned his wings at

Webb Air Force Base, Tx. in June 1968. Ward was stationed at Nakhon Phanom, Thailand, and flew 85 missions before his A-1E aircraft was shot down during combat near Ban-Ban, Laos on June 13, 1969.

Ward's decorations include the Silver Star and the Distinguished Flying Cross. ★

Capt. Henry Mundt II
Class of '64
MIA: May 8, 1969
KIA: April 17, 1979

Mundt earned an accounting degree and was working on his master's. He trained at Reese Air Force Base, Tx. and at Davis-Montham Air Force Base, Ariz.

A pilot of an F-4C Phantom aircraft, he was shot down while on a mission over Laos.

Mundt's decorations include the Purple Heart and the Air Force Medal with an oak leaf cluster. ★

Col. William Campbell
Class of '52
MIA: Jan. 29, 1969
KIA: June 8, 1978

Campbell majored in agricultural economics. Before being sent overseas, his assignments in Texas included Reese Air Force Base, James Conley Air Force Base and Dyess Air Force Base.

When he disappeared, he was flying an F-4 Phantom aircraft out of Ubon, Thailand. Another pilot saw Campbell's plane hit by anti-aircraft fire and crash into a mountain. The pilot said he was not sure whether anyone was able to parachute out.

Campbell's decorations include the Purple Heart and the Silver Star. ★