

Previews

Best Bets

You can catch Thornton Wilder's "Our Town" tonight and tomorrow night. Stage Center, a local amateur theater group, is bringing the play to the A&M Presbyterian Church. Tickets are $4 for students and senior citizens and $6 for adults.

If you're a fan of The Judy's, watch for more information about the group's appearance at De Ware Fieldhouse the evening of Nov. 21. The Judy's, best known for "Guyana Punch," haven't performed in the Bryan/College Station area for quite a while, so it's a prime opportunity to see this offbeat band.

The final performances of the Aggie Players' production, "A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum" are tonight and tomorrow night. For more information, call Rudder Box Office at 845-1234.

Le Cabaret

Le Cabaret is in the Westgate Shopping Center on Wellborn Road. Anyone 21 or older admitted.

Call 846-1427 for more info.

Saturday - Just Us. Rhythm and blues, jazz, rock. Cover $3.

Next Wednesday - Lippman Music Co. Jam Session — local musicians. No cover.

Morgenstern's

This club is about one-half mile north of campus on College Main. Those 21 and older are admitted. Beer, wine and setups are served to legal drinkers. For more information, call 846-1812.

Friday - Alan Haynes and the Stepchildren. Reggae. Cover $5.

Saturday - I-Tex. Reggae. Cover $3.

Next Thursday - The Dishes. Rock. Cover $5.

Sunset Grill

Sunset Grill is between Charlie's Grocery and the Cow Hop at Northgate. Under 21 admitted. Serves beer, wine and setups to legal drinkers. For more information on cover charges, call 846-9351.

Friday - Dana Cooper's DC3. Original rock.

Saturday - B.A.D. Sneakers. Dance rock.

Sunday - Don Overby. Acoustic rock. No cover.

Next Tuesday - Locker 19. Classic rock. No cover.

Next Wednesday - Sneaky Pete. Solo guitarist. Cover $1.

Next Thursday - Pet Peeves. Rock.

The Aggie Players sing "Comedy Tonight," the opening number in "A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum."

'A Funny Thing' ends run with shows this weekend

Want some comedy tonight?

Go see the Aggie Players' production of "A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum."

"Forum" is a wild musical comedy written by Burt Shevelove and Larry Gelbart with music by Stephen Sondheim that takes place in the streets of Ancient Rome.

Hero, son of Roman senator Senex, is stuck on Philia, a girl who he has seen at the local house of ill repute. One of Senex's slaves, Pseudolus, offers to get the girl for Hero in exchange for his freedom. Pseudolus is taking advantage of Senex's absence to escape his bondage.

When Pseudolus tries to buy Philia for Hero, they find that she has already been sold to Captain Miles Gloriosus, a brave soldier due back in Rome any day now. Pseudolus cons Lycus, owner of the brothel, into letting him take Philia until the Captain gets back.

Before long, Philia and Hero fall madly in love. Senex unexpectedly returns home and finds Philia in his house. Philia believes Senex is her rightful owner, the Captain, and makes advances towards him. Senex gladly accepts those advances.

Senex and Hero try to win the love of Philia while the Captain arrives in town and starts looking for his wife-to-be. Then, a lot of funny things begin to happen.

"Forum" is directed by Roger Schultz, director of theater at Texas A&M and stars Donnie Wilson, Troy Herbolt, Mark Wilhite and Pamela Saxon.

Performances of the play, which opened Wednesday, will be held tonight and Saturday at 8 in Rudder Theater. Tickets, available at the Rudder Box Office, are $5 for students and senior citizens and $8 for non-students. Call 845-1234 for more details.

by Karl Palmeyer

UT drama department offers Williams' 'Glass Menagerie'

If you made it through high school, you've probably read Tennessee Williams' "The Glass Menagerie." Now you can see what all the hubbub was about when the University of Texas drama department performs the classic play and all-time favorite of high school English teachers.

"The Glass Menagerie" runs Nov. 18 through 23 at the Winship Drama Building at 23rd and San Jacinto in Austin.

The shy and withdrawn Laura, her domineering mother, Amanda, her sympathetic brother, Tom, and her "gentleman caller," Jim, are played by UT undergraduates. The production is a project of master's degree candidates.

The troupe will take advantage of the dream quality in Williams' writing by using sparse sets and simple costumes.

For more information about tickets, call (512)471-1444.

Battalion Classified 845-2611