Redskins stymie Montana, 49ers

WASHINGTON (AP) — George Rogers rushed for 104 yards and a touchdown as the Washington Redskins overcame a 441-yard passing effort by San Francisco quarterback Joe Montana to record a 14-6 victory over the 49ers Monday night.

The triumph enabled the Redskins to improve their record to 9-2 and stay in a first-place tie with the New York Giants in the NFC East.

San Francisco, 6-4-1, missed a chance to take over the top spot in the NFC West from the Los Angeles Rams.

Rogers' touchdown midway through the first quarter gave the Redskins the only points they needed. The only other touchdown of the night came in the third quarter when Washington quarterback Jay Schroeder hooked up with Gary Clark for a 27-yard score to make it 14-3.

Montana, in only his second game since returning from an eight-week layoff following back surgery, completed 33 of 60 passes but suffered three interceptions. Jerry caught a career-high 12 of 12 throws for 204 yards.

Although the 49ers had trouble moving the ball, they hurt themselves. San Francisco called for 15 penalties for 125 yards and committed four turnovers in the game that lasted nearly four hours.

Also, Montana missed an open Rice in the end zone in the third quarter and running back Cribbs dropped what appeared to be a sure touchdown pass in the period.

The doctors of optometry affiliated with Texas State Optical know that every contact lens prescription must be exact. The fit must be precise. You must be completely comfortable.

Yet every year people spend fortunes on contacts, put them away in a drawer and never wear them.

Because they're uncomfortable. They don't fit right.

These people have never been to Texas State Optical.

You can't afford contact lenses that don't fit right. At any price.
