A glance at the A&M-TCU series

Texas A&M has won the last 13 games with Texas Christian to lead the overall series 45-29-7. Here are some highlights of the A&M-TCU series that began in 1897:

- 1985 - Safety Domingo Bryant's first quarter interception return for a touchdown and Kevin Murray's TD pass to Keith Woodside boosted the Aggies to a 53-6 win. With 46-0 lead, A&M kicked what TCU believed was an intentional onside kick, which fueled ill feelings after the game.
- 1984 - Cornerback James Flowers' TD return of an intercepted pass early in the first quarter helped A&M win 35-21 and knocked the Horned Frogs out of the Cotton Bowl.
- 1977 - In his first start, freshman quarterback Mike Mosely rushed for 98 yards, while George Woodard and Dickey each gained over 150 yards. A&M set school record for most yards rushing (606).
- 1976 - A&M led 35-3 at the half. Tony Franklin set school record with eight PATs. Running back Darrell Smith set A&M Kyle Field record with a 90-yard touchdown run. Smith also had a 47-yard TD run en route to 59-10 victory.
- 1975 - A&M scored touchdowns on first two possessions and then withstood late Frog rally 14-6. Injured defensive back Pat Thomas entered game in fourth quarter and shut down TCU wide receiver Mike Renfro.
- 1974 - Aggies won 17-0 as defense set school record for fewest yards allowed rushing (minus 58). A&M recorded 13 quarterback sacks. This was the last time A&M has shut out TCU.
- 1968 - Quarterback Edd Hargett completed career-long 84-yard touchdown pass to Barney Harris. Harris (four catches) and Tommy Maxwell (five receptions) each had over 100 yards receiving while other Aggie had a reception.
- 1967 - Coach Gene Stallings' SWC champs shut out Frogs' Linebacker Bill Hobbs set SWC record with 100-yard touchdown return of an intercepted pass. Hill finished with 132 yards in interception return yardage (an A&M record).
- 1960-63 - A&M scored 100 points each year; tied twice (1961, 1963) and lost twice (14-15 in 1961 and 14-20 in 1962).
- 1956 - Aggies won 7-6 game played under worst weather conditions ever at Kyle Field with heavy rain and high winds for most of the game. TCU failed to score on four downs near A&M goal line.
- 1955 - A&M won 19-16, the only TCU loss in the SWC that season.

Aggies to host TCU in swim meet

By Loyd Brumfield

Assistant Sports Editor

The Texas A&M men's and women's swimming teams will take on Texas Christian University here this weekend, but they'll be a bit handicapped.

A&M will start out trailing the Horned Frogs 28 points to zero because it does not have a diving team. "We just don't have the facilities for diving here," A&M Coach Mel Nash said. "Our indoor pool is too shallow and our outdoor pool gets too cold."

The meet will begin Saturday at 6 p.m. at the P.L. Downs Natatorium. The A&M men and women are coming off upsets of Southern Methodist University. The women's team is currently ranked No. 12 in the nation and the men are ranked 16th.

Nash said the wins over SMU have helped the Aggies gain respect nationally. "People are just now finding out how good we are," he said. "I don't think anyone knew it until our women beat SMU by as much as they did (113.5-69.5)."

Nash said both teams should be well-rested for the meet, but the Aggies are still plagued by injuries.

For the women's team, Suzanne Fiori is recovering from an ankle injury, but Nash said she should be able to compete Saturday. Lisa Sheedy is also out with an illness.

The men's team is hampered by several injuries. Aaron McDonough has a broken right hand, Marco Val has a knee injury, Eddie Altman is recovering from a shoulder injury and Mike Varozza has a sore throat.
