Shultz blasted by Dole for not backing Reagan

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Republican leader Bob Dole rebuked Secretary of State George Shultz on Sunday for "not doing anything" to support President Reagan in the Iran arms controversy, and suggested Reagan act quickly to "remove some of the problem."

Dole did not mention any administration officials by name when he said the president should move to "cut our losses," as the Iran issue continued to consume the administration and reports circulated that top advisers were calling for the ouster of Shultz, White House Chief of Staff Don Regan and National Security Adviser John Poindexter.

Dole, after praising Shultz's past performance, said, "But I think right now they ought to circle the wagons; either that, or let a couple of the wagons go over the cliff."

"I think the president was well-intentioned and well-motivated," in his decision to send arms to Iran, Dole said in an interview on CBS-TV's "Face The Nation."

"The next step is, I think, to remove some of the problem."

With his comments Sunday, Dole, R-Kan., added his voice to others calling for presidential action to restore administration unity as details continued to emerge about the Iran operation.

Reagan, returning Sunday from his weekend retreat at Camp David, Md., ignored reporters' shouted questions as he emerged from his helicopter and entered the White House.

White House spokesman Roman Popaduk said he had no information on reports in the Washington Post and Los Angeles Times that a group of presidential advisers was pushing for a high-level shakeup in Reagan's staff.

Dole said Regan told him earlier Sunday that he knew nothing about such an effort.

"It's all a little bizarre, frankly," Dole said. "The only person who could put this to rest is the president, and it would seem to me the quicker the better."

The Post said Attorney General Edwin Meese III and others had sounded out former Secretary of Transportation Drew Lewis about taking over as White House chief of staff.

But Patrick Korten, deputy director of public affairs for the Justice Department, said he knew of no such overtures. Harvey Turner, a spokesman for Lewis, who is now president of the Union Pacific Corp., said he would check with Lewis. But when a reporter later attempted to reach Turner by telephone, there was no answer.

Dole said, "When people say, 'Why aren't you supporting the president?' it's rather difficult when the secretary of state is not doing anything."

Shultz has made clear his opposition to the arms shipments and said last week that officials behind the operation had told him little about it.

Sen. Dale Bumpers, D-Ark., said on "Face the Nation" that Regan should hold a press conference and admit to mistakes regarding Iran.

He said although Congress had been told the arms were valued at $12 million, it appears the pricetag could be as much as $100 million.

Newspaper: Libya has nerve gas

LONDON (AP) — A weekly newspaper said Sunday that Libya has Soviet-made nerve gas warheads and has passed some of them on to Syria and Iran.

The conservative Sunday Telegraph quoted unidentified Western intelligence sources as saying the warheads can be fired from Scud-B missiles and contain a lethal nerve agent capable of killing anyone within 25 square miles of a target.

The warheads also render a city uninhabitable for about 24 hours after an attack, the report said.

"I don't have anything on this," State Department spokesman Anita Stockman said in Washington on Sunday.

The newspaper's defense correspondent, Simon O'Dwyer-Russell, wrote that Libya supplied the nerve agents "within the last few weeks" to Syria and Iran, which operate identical Scud-B systems.

British intelligence services have "traced the source of the nerve agent back to the Soviet Union," the report said.

Student's killing sparks violence in protest by Jews

JERUSALEM (AP) — About 700 Jews shouting "Death to Arabs!" marched through Jerusalem on Sunday, and some smashed windows and bashed doors in a protest rising from the fatal stabbing of a Jewish seminary student a week ago.

A rabbi demanded vengeance for the Nov. 15 knifing of his student, 22-year-old Eliyahu Amedi, in the Moslem quarter of the walled Old City of Jerusalem.

Three Palestinian suspects were arrested in connection with the killing.

About 400 police and soldiers were deployed in the Old City and along the one-mile march route from Amedi's home in the Shmuel Hanavi neighborhood to the site of the stabbing on the doorstep of his seminary.

Most Arabs shuttered their homes and stayed inside.

Baton-wielding police drove other Arabs off the streets, saying it was for their own protection.

Two Arabs were rescued by riot police from a mob throwing bottles in a narrow alley.

One policeman was hit in the head by a bottle.

Witnesses said marchers hurled stones and banged on the metal shutters of stores and homes, shouting "Arabs out!" and "We want revenge!"

Three demonstrators were seen being dragged into a police van.

Jerusalem Police Commander Yosef Yehudai said the demonstrators were arrested on suspicion of smashing car windows.

Earlier, hundreds of mourners gathered at Amedi's grave for a memorial service.

Rabbi Eliezer Berland, head of the seminary Amedi had attended, encouraged the crowd.

"We will redeem your blood even if it costs us our lives," he said. "We will avenge this blood."

Meanwhile, Police Commissioner David Krauss reported to the Cabinet on the weeklong anti-Arab spree of arson and stone-throwing by Jews.

He said 45 people were arrested, eight of them Arabs, not including the three arrested Sunday.

Congressmen voice satisfaction at failed coup, support for Aquino

WASHINGTON (AP) — The administration and key congressional leaders repeated Sunday "strong and unequivocal" support for Philippine President Corazon Aquino and expressed satisfaction that a reported coup attempt failed.

Senate Foreign Relations Committee Chairman Richard Lugar, R-Ind., said Aquino "is the only unifying factor in Filipino politics," and added that, "Mrs. Aquino is receiving assurances every day from the United States government of 100 percent support."

As news came from Manila that Aquino was receiving the resignations of her Cabinet members, State Department spokeswoman Anita Stockman said, "We are pleased that this reported coup attempt failed."

The president's request for resignations followed a night in which soldiers loyal to her took over radio and television facilities as coup rumors swept the capital.

"We reiterate our strong and unequivocal support for President Aquino and her administration," Stockman said. "We earnestly hope her appeal of Nov. 23 for all sectors of Philippine society to unite in protecting democracy and reconstructing their country meets with success."

The reported coup plans were apparently quashed as Aquino's chief of staff, Gen. Fidel V. Ramos, on Sunday ordered military commanders to disregard all orders except those issued by him or his deputies, and to defend the government against a plot to oust Aquino.

Ramos cited intelligence reports that politicians from the Marcos regime planned to move against the government with backing from "some elements of the military."

In Honolulu, where the deposed president now lives, Marcos declined any immediate comment on the developments in his homeland, his spokesman, Guillermo Trinidad, said.

Sen. Sam Nunn, D-Ga., incoming chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee, on Sunday expressed support for Aquino's actions during the recent test of her authority, and said the United States must leave her to call the shots.
