Corps to eat in Sbisa, Commons in 'trial run'

By Bob Grube
Staff Writer

Beginning Monday, the Corps of Cadets will vacate its 47-year-old Duncan Dining Hall for the more modern Sbisa and Commons dining halls for a one-week trial run.

Col. Fred Dollar, director of the Food Services Department at Texas A&M, said Tuesday that if the trial run is successful, the cadets will continue eating in the non-Corps dining areas until the renovation of Duncan Dining Hall is complete.

The Corps will send 450 cadets to the Commons and the other 1,600 cadets to Sbisa. Renovations of Duncan will begin on the last day of the last semester and are scheduled to last for one year.

The cadets will eat breakfast and lunch at their convenience, but will march in their familiar manner for evening chow at the two alternate dining halls. So, during the week non-Corps students will be asked to stop entering the Commons and Sbisa after 6:10 p.m. The cadets will eat dinner from 6:40 p.m. to 7 p.m., and the basement of Sbisa will be open from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m. for later non-Corps dining.

Dollar said he thinks both the Corps and the non-Corps students will benefit from the change of pace.

"I hope this turns into a live-and-let-live situation," he said. "The change creates a little inconvenience for everybody, but I think both groups will have a little fun also.

"When Duncan is finished . . . it will offer the cadets a larger variety of food and a quieter atmosphere."

Gorbachev visits India, calls for end to arms race

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — Soviet leader Mikhail S. Gorbachev, on his first trip to the Third World, on Tuesday warned that militarism threatens man's survival and called for new initiatives to halt the nuclear arms race.

Gorbachev and Prime Minister Rajiv Gandhi both blamed the U.S. "Star Wars" program for obstructing progress toward a nuclear-free world.

The Soviet leader said his Iceland summit with President Reagan revealed obstacles that block nuclear disarmament. The talks broke down over Reagan's refusal to accept the Soviet demand that the Star Wars program to develop a space-based anti-missile defense not involve tests outside the laboratory.

"The chains of militarism hold up progress," Gorbachev said. "The arms race devours the resources that are so badly needed to solve the burning problems affecting the lives of hundreds of millions of people.

"The situation urgently calls for a new approach to security issues, a new thinking in politics. . . . Survival of mankind must be placed above all other interests."

Police Beat

The following were reported to the University Police Department through Monday:

- MISDEMEANOR THEFT:
- Eleven bicycles were reported stolen.
  - Five backpacks were reported stolen.
  - Someone stole one pencil drawing and one watercolor drawing from the second floor gallery area of the Langford Architecture Center.
  - Someone stole all the microphones from the mouthpieces of all the public telephones in the Commons area.
  - Some students from Mary Hardin Baylor University were arrested and jailed in connection with the stealing of a car cover from a car parked on campus.

ATTEMPTED THEFT/ASSAULT:

A pizza delivery man reported that upon returning from delivering pizzas to a campus dormitory, he saw two men stealing pizzas from his truck. He said when he tried to get the pizzas back, one of the men assaulted him and then the men ran away. The delivery man ran after the two men and said he saw them go into a dorm room.

The report said the resident adviser of the dorm called the police and told them that eight men were in the dorm room. The police contacted the men and brought them to the station, but the delivery man couldn't identify any of the men as the pizza thieves.

CRIMINAL MISCHIEF:

Someone plugged a bathroom sink in a dormitory with a golf ball, turned the water on and flooded the room.

• A man reported that he saw somebody drive a pickup truck through a campus parking lot gate arm. Officers found a pickup truck in the lot with white paint on the front of it and had the truck towed. The police called the owner of the truck, told him his truck had been towed and then referred the matter to the Department of Student Affairs.

• A man reported that he saw three men stuff some paper towels into a moped gas tank and try to set them on fire. The men took off when they saw the man approaching, the report said. Police contacted the owner of the moped and she told police that the men also had broken the moped's headlight and taillight.

CRIMINAL TRESPASS:

A woman reported that three men entered her dormitory building through a bathroom window and went into several second-floor dorm rooms. She said one of the men opened her shower door and peeped in. The woman said the men left the building after the police were called.

HARASSMENT:

A woman reported that she has been receiving harassing phone calls between 2 a.m. and 3 a.m. for the last few years.

PUBLIC INTOXICATION:

Someone reported that a man was lying on a bench by the bowling alley entrance at the Memorial Student Center, and appeared to be very ill. Upon investigation, police found the man was drunk and arrested and jailed him for public intoxication.

THE NIGHT BEFORE.

Ring out the old year, Southfork style with two exciting celebrations, beginning with New Year's Eve. Join us for a party even J.R. would be impressed with. There'll be dancing to three different bands, a delicious buffet extravaganza, open bar, party favors and more. Then, after a night of celebration, those hearty revelers are in for an exciting morning after.

THE MORNING AFTER.

Enjoy all the festivities of the Cotton Bowl Game. With your tickets from the night before, you'll receive a prime ticket to The Cotton Bowl Classic, featuring the best of the Southwest Conference. For those really early risers (or those who haven't gone to sleep from the night before), you can cheer on the new year beginning with the parade through downtown.

Either way, this will be a New Year's to remember, when you begin the celebration with us at Southfork! For reservations and more information call (214) 442-6536 or 1-800-527-1624. Tickets $100, $125 and $150 per person. Additional package includes hotel room and transportation to Southfork and the game.
