NFL suspends Wilson

NEW YORK (AP) — Chicago Bears linebacker Otis Wilson was suspended for one game without pay "as a result of his flagrant forearm blow to the jaw" of Pittsburgh wide receiver Louis Lipps last Sunday, NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle announced Tuesday.

Rozelle, who earlier Tuesday upheld the two-game suspension of Green Bay nose tackle Charles Martin for his body slam of Chicago quarterback Jim McMahon two weeks ago, said the game Wilson must sit out will be Dec. 7 against Tampa Bay. If Wilson decides to appeal, Rozelle said he will arrange a hearing promptly after receiving written notification.

Bears spokesman Jim Carr said Wilson learned of the suspension Tuesday afternoon and hadn't informed the club whether he would appeal.

"Specifically, the (videotape) review revealed that Lipps, after being in motion and following a handoff to a Pittsburgh running back, turned and headed toward Wilson as a potential blocker," Rozelle's statement read. "Wilson cocked his left arm and delivered a forearm blow to Lipps' jaw, knocking him down. It was the initial contact between the two players."

Lipps suffered a concussion and was forced to leave the game.

The statement said "though Wilson's action went undetected by the game officials and no penalty was assessed, there is no justification for this type of dangerous action in the NFL."

Wilson said Monday that he felt there was nothing wrong with his hit.

"What I saw was legal," Wilson said after viewing footage of the play. "He came out to block me and I happened to catch him under the chin because he ducked. If he hadn't ducked, I'd have caught him on the chest."

Both Wilson and Bears' Coach Mike Ditka were furious over comments by NBC announcer Charlie Jones, who was broadcasting the game.

When the incident occurred, Jones asked for a replay and then said, "Oh, no, come on, what is happening in the National Football League? After what happened last week, he (Wilson) ought to be thrown out of the ballgame... immediately."

Jones was referring to Martin's late hit on McMahon.

"I'm going to talk to my attorney and have him write them a letter. Defamation of character," Wilson said.

Astros fire announcer Gene Elston

HOUSTON (AP) — General Elston, the play-by-play broadcaster for the Houston Astros since the National League baseball team was formed in 1962, was fired by the club Tuesday.

The Astros, in a statement released by General Manager Dick Wagner, said they would not be renewing Elston's contract but would offer him another spot in the organization.

"Gene has been a part of the history and tradition of Astros baseball," Wagner said. "We sincerely appreciate his contributions over the years and hope he will choose to continue his affiliation with the organization."

Elston said the non-broadcast job with the Astros was not attractive but he had until mid-January to tell them of his decision.

"It's their choice," Elston said. "They just canned me. I didn't have any inkling of it. I just got the news."

"They gave me absolutely no reason at all," he said. "The only thing they said was my work was unsatisfactory. I asked them to elaborate. Dick Wagner said he didn't want to do that and get into nitpicking."

Kentucky holds off stubborn Red Raiders

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP) — Freshman guard Derrick Miller hit three baskets in the final 7 minutes, 22 seconds, including two three-point shots, to help 13th-ranked Kentucky turn back Texas Tech 66-60 in a non-conference college basketball game Tuesday night.

Texas Tech, trailing 32-22 at the half, closed to within 47-43 on guard Mike Nelson's jumper with 7:47 left in the game.

Miller countered 25 seconds later with a straight-away jumper from 22 feet to give Kentucky a 7-point margin.

Miller sank another 22-footer with 5:31 to go for a 56-47 lead, and a 16-footer at 3:50 to push Kentucky to a 60-49 advantage. He finished with 10 points.

Texas Tech could get no closer than 63-60 on guard Jerry Mason's three-point shot with 14 seconds to go.

Guard Ed Davender topped Kentucky, 2-0, with 23 points, and forward Irv Thomas added 11 in support.

Texas Tech, 1-1, was paced by guard Sean Gay with 18 points and Nelson with 10.

After the teams traded opening baskets, Davender scored six points and forward Richard Madison five as Kentucky went on a 13-2 tear to go up 15-4 with 13:19 remaining in the first half.

Texas Tech sliced the margin to 15-12 at 11:40 as forward Dewayne Chism and Gay scored four points apiece in an 8-0 run.

Bowman out as Sabres' GM

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — Scotty Bowman, who fired himself as coach last month, was fired as general manager of the Buffalo Sabres Tuesday, ending an eight-season tenure that saw the team slide into the National Hockey League basement.

Bowman, whose 739-327-210 coaching record with the Sabres, Montreal Canadiens and St. Louis Blues made him the winningest coach in NHL history, will be replaced by former Sabre captain Gerry Meehan, who was the team's assistant general manager.

Team co-owner Seymour Knox announced a move that had been widely anticipated because of the team's failure to make the playoffs last season and its league-worst record of 5-15-3 this year.

"We wanted to give him all the possible time that we could because of his stature in the game and his hockey brilliance," said Knox. "We wanted to give him every instant of time we could and we felt we had given him enough. The team was just not getting the job done on the ice."

The 53-year-old Bowman, who guided the Canadiens to five Stanley Cups in his eight seasons coaching in Montreal, said that, despite the rumors of his impending dismissal, "I didn't see it coming."

Harper paces Cavs to win over hapless San Antonio, 115-105

RICHFIELD, Ohio (AP) — Rookie Ron Harper matched his season high with 34 points Tuesday night and six other Cleveland players scored in double figures as the Cavaliers defeated the San Antonio Spurs 115-105.

The victory was the Cavaliers' third straight, their longest winning streak since the 1984-85 season. Cleveland had eight two-game winning streaks on the way to last season's 29-53 record.

Harper scored 13 points in the third quarter to help the Cavaliers pull away from a 58-58 halftime tie to a 92-79 lead. Cleveland scored its final 11 points of the period from the free throw line.

San Antonio, which has lost three straight and six of its last eight games, got no closer than eight in the final quarter. At one point in the fourth period, Cleveland had five rookies and the Spurs had three rookies on the floor.

Tyrone Corbin led the Spurs with 23 points, while Alvin Robertson had 21.

Phil Hubbard had 19 and "Hot Rod" Williams scored 16 for Cleveland.
