UNLV is new No. 1 in basketball poll

(AP) — Nevada-Las Vegas took over the No. 1 spot in The Associated Press college basketball poll Monday as previously top-ranked North Carolina fell to fifth.

The Runnin' Rebels, 5-0, moved up from last week's No. 2 ranking with 39 first-place votes and 1,236 two of three games last week. The Tar Heels, who had one first-place vote and 1,012 points, lost 89-84 at UCLA before posting home victories over Stetson, 100-64, and Miami, Fla., 122-77.

Illinois, the fourth Big Ten team in the top six, jumped from last week's No. 9 ranking with a 99-97 road victory over then-No. 12 Pittsburgh.

Rounding out the Top Ten were Auburn, which also received one first-place vote and 779 points; Western Kentucky, 663 points; Oklahoma, 627 points; and Navy, 547 points.

Leading off the Second Ten is UCLA, 3-0, which received one first-place vote and 517 points.

Following UCLA in the Second Ten were Syracuse, Georgetown, Kansas, North Carolina State, Georgia Tech, Pittsburgh, Alabama, Kentucky and Arkansas.

Last week's Second Ten was Oklahoma, Pittsburgh, Kentucky, Western Kentucky, Georgia Tech, Georgetown, Syracuse, North Carolina State, Northeastern and Arizona.

Syracuse jumped from last week's No. 17 ranking after winning its own Carrier Classic with a 94-74 victory over then-No. 19 Northeastern in the championship game.

Northeastern and Arizona, which had been ranked 20th, were the only teams to fall from the ranks of the ranked. Arizona was beaten by Utah 68-67.

Joining UCLA as the new teams in the poll was Arkansas. The Razorbacks, 4-0, beat then-No. 6 Kansas 103-86 and have won all of their games by at least 14 points.

Alabama dropped from eighth to 18th after losing to Florida State 72-71 and Kentucky fell from 13th to 19th after losing to Indiana 71-66.

points from the nationwide panel of sportswriters and broadcasters.

Indiana is second with 14 first-place votes and 1,144 points, followed by Purdue, seven first-place votes and 1,126 points, and Iowa, which had 1,029 points.

North Carolina, 4-1, fell from the top spot it held in the preseason and first regular-season poll as it won 22 points, followed by Jimmy McCrimmon with 19.

Texas evened its record at 3-3. Northwestern Louisiana State fell to 4-2.

Fairs added 16 points and 11 rebounds for Texas.

Longhorn starting point guard Alex Broadway was knocked out of the game with a hand injury early in the first period.

Texas trailed 36-32 at the half, but outscored the Demons 19-4 over the first 6½ minutes of the second half to take a 51-40 lead.

UT outlasts Demons

AUSTIN (AP) — Raynard Davis scored a career-high 31 points to help Texas hold off Northwestern Louisiana State 80-75 Monday night.

Northwestern, trailing 62-46 midway through the second half, used two 3-point baskets by Victor Willis to pull within 77-74 with 16 seconds to play.

The Longhorns iced the victory with a free throw by Dennis Perryman with 10 seconds left and two free throws by Patrick Fairs with one second remaining.

Rockets get Minniefield as Reid goes on injured list

HOUSTON (AP) — Houston Rockets guard Robert Reid was placed on the injured list Monday after undergoing arthroscopic surgery on his right knee and the team picked up Cleveland Cavaliers guard Dirk Minniefield to replace him, a Rockets spokesman said.

Reid is expected to be out of action for at least two weeks, according to spokesman Jim Foley.

Minniefield was acquired in exchange for a 1989 third-round draft pick, Foley said.

In 11 games for the Cavaliers this season, the second-year guard averaged 2.5 points and had 1.2 assists. Last year he averaged 5.5 points and 3.5 assists a game.

The 6-foot-3 guard was originally drafted by Dallas in the second round of the 1983 draft but spent his first two seasons out of college with Louisville of the Continental Basketball Association. There he averaged better than six assists and 17 points a game.

Minniefield, who played college ball at Kentucky, is expected to join the team Wednesday when the Rockets travel to Phoenix.

A&M Sports Club Update

FENCING had three club members compete and place at the Junior Olympic (20 years old and under) qualifying competition in Fort Arthur on Sunday. Bill Strahm won the men's foil event and Dennis Domagas took sixth place.

In men's epee, Strahm finished second and Tom Dulany grabbed third. Domagas placed second in the men's sabre and Strahm finished in fourth place in the division.

All three fencers will go to participate in the Junior Olympics in Orlando, Fla., Feb. 14-16, 1987.

POLO had a men's team travel to San Saba for a tournament over the weekend. The tourney was held at a polo ranch owned by actor Tommy Lee Jones, whose team lost to A&M. The finals of the tournament between Texas A&M and the Midland Polo Club was rained out Sunday and was rescheduled for Dec. 21.

WRESTLING will host the A&M Consolidated High School Open Tournament in the Deware Fieldhouse this Saturday.

Rumors of big trades dominate winter meetings

HOLLYWOOD, Fla. (AP) — Commissioner Peter Ueberroth renewed his call for baseball to spend wisely while a high-stakes battle over free agents began Monday.

Ueberroth, in his "State of the Game" speech at baseball's winter meetings, brushed aside the issue of expansion and also said the 1987 season should be dedicated to the memory of Jackie Robinson since it will be the 40th anniversary of the year he broke the major league color barrier.

A few trade rumors, most of them involving Philadelphia pitcher Charles Hudson and New York Yankees catcher Butch Wynegar, made the rounds and nine players were selected in the major league draft.

But most of the scramble for talent concerned free agents, particularly ones who cannot sign with their 1986 teams until May 1.

Ray Knight, the Most Valuable Player in the World Series with the New York Mets, 300-game winner Tom Seaver, Dave Kingman, Gary Ward and John Denny were among those looking for new employment. Their teams neither re-signed them nor offered the option of salary arbitration, thereby losing the right to re-sign them before May.

Last year, several free agents, including Detroit slugger Kirk Gibson, complained they did not receive any offers other than from their own clubs — a practice that prompted players' union to file a charge of collusion against owners.

Ueberroth's speech was followed by the draft, in which nine players on Class AAA rosters were taken for $50,000 apiece. Seattle took handed pitcher Tony Ferrell, Stan Clarke, while the Chicago White Sox took reliever Bob Goss and Texas selected outfielder Gary Espy.

A&M women's tennis team needs players

Due to injuries and players who have transferred this season, the Texas A&M women's tennis team is looking for A&M women students who may be interested in trying out for the squad.

Anyone with tennis experience and interested in trying out for the team can contact Coach Bob Bolen at 845-4591. Klemmeville is of town until Monday, but a message can be left on his answering machine. If leaving a message, please give your name, local number and the number you can be reached over the holidays.
