A&M forbids newspaper throwing in
G. Rollie White

Throwing newspapers before player introductions at Texas A&M home basketball games will no longer be tolerated by the A&M Athletic Department, Assistant Athletic Director John David Crow said Monday.
The tradition of pelting visiting teams with the papers from the stands in G. Rollie White Coliseum is against NCAA rules, and violators will be escorted out of the gym by security personnel, Crow said.
"It really has gotten sort of out of hand," Crow said.
He also said it is not the intention of the Athletic Department to curb any crowd excitement at the games, but sometimes a change is necessary to improve a situation.
"We certainly do not want to dull the enthusiasm of the crowd at our home basketball games," Crow said. "But that's not showing too much class."

Chicago slides past Detroit on last-second field goal

PONTIAC, Mich. (AP) — Kevin Butler kicked a 22-yard field goal on the final play of the game Monday night to lift the Chicago Bears to a 16-13 comeback victory over the Detroit Lions, spoiling the first NFL start by Lions quarterback Chuck Long.
Butler's field goal capped a 13-point fourth-quarter surge by the Bears.
The Bears, who kept alive their chance at having the homefield advantage throughout the playoffs, improved to 13-2, while Detroit dropped to 5-10.
Butler, who kicked a 41-yard field goal in the second quarter, kicked a 32-yarder with 12:26 remaining in the game to pull the Bears within seven at 13-6.

On their next possession, quarterback Doug Flutie drove the Bears 74 yards in eight plays, hitting Emery Moorehead for 25 yards along the way, and Matt Suhey dove over from the 4 with 5:49 remaining to tie the game at 13-13.
On their next possession, the Bears drove from their own 45 to the Detroit 5, setting up Butler's winning field goal.
The Lions' only touchdown followed a Bears turnover in the third quarter.
Detroit's Donnie Elder raced downfield to down Jim Arnold's punt at the Chicago 1. On the first play from scrimmage, Walter Payton fumbled and Demetrious Johnson recovered for Detroit at the 4.

Lawyer says Gooden did not break any law

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — A lawyer for New York Mets pitcher Dwight Gooden said Monday that he has talked to witnesses who corroborated his client's contention that he gave police no reason to stop him for a traffic offense or use nightsticks during a scuffle that ended with the right-hander's arrest last weekend.
Attorney Charles Erlich said his investigation of the incident continues, but that preliminary findings support Gooden's statements that he did nothing wrong.
Gooden, 22, and four companions were arrested Saturday night on their way home from a college basketball game at the University of South Florida. They were traveling in three separate cars.
According to police reports, a 1984 silver Mercedes driven by Gooden and a red Corvette driven by his nephew, Gary Sheffield, were stopped by police after an officer spotted the vehicles weaving toward each other in traffic.
Officer Jeffrey L. Smith wrote in an arrest affidavit that Gooden got out of his car "and started yelling, using profane language, accusing the affiant (Smith) of police harassment, refusing to surrender his license."
Gooden was charged with disorderly conduct, resisting arrest with violence and battery on a police officer. His attorney said he was also charged with careless driving.
Also arrested were Sheffield, 18, a first-round draft pick of the Milwaukee Brewers in 1986; California gels minor-league player Val Lovelace, 23; Phillip Walker, Jr. and Derrick Pedro, 17.

All except Pedro were bound into the Hillsborough County Jail and released on their own recognizance. Pedro was handed over to state juvenile officers, Tampa Police Lt. T.L. Cotter said.
"What we are getting from witnesses is that there was no probable cause to stop them," Erlich said in a telephone interview. "They were horsing around with their car."
"They were waiting to make a hand turn," Erlich added. "They were following them, pulled them out and told Dwight to get out."
Erlich said Gooden was told "shut his mouth," and give the officer his driver's license when asked why he had been stopped. Trouble started, he said, when Gooden "asked that his rights be respected."
The attorney said racial slurs directed at Gooden by officers "beat him with nightsticks and lights during the incident on braska Avenue."
"I'm told one of them officers said, 'Give the nigger a little pig-bait and he gets a little pig-bait,'" Erlich said.
Erlich, however, would not say the incident was racially motivated. "I think it was a factor, but I wouldn't say it was the primary factor," he said.

Baylor, Arkansas, and Texas," Woodside said. "I feel like we have just as strong a conference as the Big Ten with Ohio State and Michigan."
"We're looking forward to playing them and showing them that we play some ball in this conference also."
Besides worrying about OSU, A&M has had to battle injuries and poor weather in preparation for the Cotton Bowl.
Sammy O'Brient has been hampered by a turf-toe injury; Kip Corington has battled knee problems; and Rod Harris has a broken bone in his right hand. However, Sherrill said all the injured players will be ready to play Jan. 1.

Aggie notes... Head yell leader Marty Holmes said midnight yell practice on New Year's Eve will be held in downtown Dallas at the corner of Wood and Lamar streets, beginning shortly after midnight.
The New Year's Eve celebrations, titled Downtown Countdown '87, will feature musical performances by the Mamas and the Papas, the Byrds and Buffalo Springfield.
