

TAN U
Early Bird Special
 Tan before 12 noon and get 10 sessions for only $35.00
 offer expires 1-31-87
 104 College Main at Northgate 846-9779
 James & Carol Barrett Class of '86

Pine Cove
 Christian Camp
INTERVIEWING FOR SUMMER POSITIONS
 Rudder - 10th floor
Jan. 26 & 27 8:30-5:00
 Need more info? Leslye 845-7525
 823-8739

Chimney Hill Bowling Center
 "A Family Recreation Center"
NEW
 A&M Student Special M-F 9am to 5:30pm $1.25 per game
 also good for faculty & A&M employees. 1987 ID required.
 40 Lanes — Automatic Scoring League & Open Bowling Bar & Snack Bar
 701 University Drive East 260-9184

INTERNATIONAL BREVETTES
ONE OF THE YEAR'S 10 BEST
 —Roger Ebert —Gene Siskel —Judith Crist —Gannett Publications
 —Newhouse Newspapers —San Francisco Chronicle —Soho Arts Weekly
 —Manhattan Arts —Rev. Reed —Kathleen Carroll
The Official Story
 ALAMI PICTURES, INC. MEX/JAM 1987 Film Festival: All Rights Reserved
Tues, Jan. 27, 1987 7:30
 Rudder Theatre $2

pepes MEXICAN FOOD
39¢ SPECIALS
 Regular Tacos Regular Burritos
 Regular Chalupas
 107 Dominik • 3312 S. College Ave. • Post Oak Mall
 Expires 2/28/87

BREAK OUT OF THE ORDINARY!
MSC CEPHEID VARIABLE
 SCIENCE FICTION & FANTASY AT TEXAS A&M
NEW MEMBERS MEETING
TUESDAY 8:30 P.M.
JAN. 27TH IN 701 RUDDER
 "STUFF" WILL BE GIVEN AWAY!
 BE THERE!

STAR TEL
 Long Distance Telephone Service
 In Your Search For Excellence, Find
 EXCELLENT Discounts--Up to 50% Savings!
 EXCELLENT Location here in the Brazos Valley!
 EXCELLENT Opportunities for Aggies to sign up free--the "Aggie Special"!
 EXCELLENT Service--reach every U.S. phone!
EXCELLENCE and STARTEL... don't settle for less!
 779-2830 1313 Briarcrest, Bryan

Scalpers ticketed at Mavs game

DALLAS (AP)—While the Dallas Mavericks were busy wiping up the Los Angeles Lakers, police were busy wiping out scalpers outside the arena.
 Before Saturday's game, officers cited 14 scalpers, including two who were ticketed twice, for illegally selling tickets at inflated prices.
 Meanwhile, the Mavericks ended a six-game Laker winning streak by defeating Los Angeles 132-117.
 Ticket scalping in Texas is legal, but a city ordinance prohibits selling tickets above face value outside Reunion Arena and the Dallas Convention Center.
 Eight consumer affairs investigators and five undercover Dallas police officers milled through the crowd outside the building, watching for illegal ticket transactions.
 Complaints from fans and Maverick officials triggered increased enforcement at Reunion, and officers have issued about 120 citations.

Goal-line stand by Giants causes momentum change

PASADENA, Calif. (AP)—Denver's ground game had its chance and when the Bronco runners came up short on first-and-goal from the New York Giants' 1-yard line it was essentially their last opportunity to win the Super Bowl.
 With the Broncos ahead 10-7 and driving downfield on quarterback John Elway's passing, Denver moved to New York's 1 early in the second quarter Sunday. The Giants threw Elway for a one-yard loss, stopped Gerald Willhite for no gain and then threw Sammy Winder for a four-yard loss.
 When Rich Karlis missed a 23-yard field goal attempt, Coach Dan Reeves turned the ball over to Elway almost entirely.
 Elway attempted 23 consecutive pass plays before he got a running call from the bench midway through the fourth quarter. By then, New York led 33-10 and this Super Bowl was essentially over.
 "We felt we could take advantage of their zone defense," Reeves said. "I do whatever I can to move the football. What hurt us was not scoring in close."

Reeves defended the three straight running plays in the first-and-goal situation.
 "Those were the plays we called and we thought they were good plays," he said. "They are not an easy team to get into the end zone against. The first play was a sweep with an extra blocker to clear the guy to the corner and a fullback and guard coming around. That should be in (the end zone). We felt good about the play and they wiped it out."
 "Then they threw us for a loss when we came back and ran a trap up the middle and they stopped that. Then we ran a sweep on third down and they stopped us."
 Elway understood the sequence of calls.
 "On the 2-yard line, throwing down there is tough," he said. "I felt I did everything I could. That's all I can ask of myself."
 "It was very disappointing, but in the first half we just didn't get into the end zone and after that, when we fell behind, we had to keep throwing."
 New York linebacker Carl Banks, who made the tackle on the key third down in the goal-line stand, said that series was a big turnaround in the game.

 "It was a momentum-builder for us," he said. "It demoralized them. They take pride in their short-yardage goal-line offense. When they went away from the run, it was a tribute to our defense. We closed the off-tackle hole and made them go up the middle, but when he's throwing, that's a lot of pressure, too. We survived, though."
 Of Elway's 304 yards passing, 187 came in the first half, but only 13 in the third quarter, when the game turned.
 "The difference was that our pass defense was lopsided in the first half," Banks said. "We adjusted at halftime."
 "They gave us their best shot in the first half," Giants linebacker Lawrence Taylor said. "John had us snake-bit for a while."
 Taylor said he was not surprised at the Broncos' pass-run ratio, which included only 19 rushes in the game.

3-pointer lifts Hoyas past DePaul

LANDOVER, Md. (AP)—Dorie Williams' 3-point field with 28 seconds remaining Sunday highlighted a 13-1 run over Georgetown a 74-71 over previously unbeaten sixth-ranked DePaul.
 No. 15 Georgetown trailed 61 with 2:44 remaining, guard Mark Tillmon came on a pair of 3-point baskets to the deficit to 70-67. A free by the Blue Demons' Comegys made it 71-67, but Tillmon hit a running one-handed put Georgetown within two. DePaul's Rod Strick missed the front end of a and-one, Williams hit his winning shot from the right ner.
 After a DePaul turnover, botched inbound play, Williams made two free throws with 10 seconds remaining. Comegys' three-point field goal with seconds remaining, but the bounced off the rim.

ALPHA? CHI OMEGA
SPRING RUSH 1987
 JANUARY 27th-SNEAK PREVIEW OF AXΩ
 JANUARY 28th-COME SEE THE "BEST LITTLE SORORITY ON CAMPUS"
 ALL PARTIES AT THE COLLEGE STATION COMMUNITY CENTER AT 7:00 p.m.
 * ALL INTERESTED FRESHMEN & SOPHMORE WOMEN ARE INVITED.
 QUESTIONS CALL LISA 260-0722
 DEBBIE 846-7613

Our 2 Bedroom Studios
 best kept secret in town!
Rates starting at $325
East Gate Apartments
 401 Lincoln Dr. East
 (409)696-7380

Get Fit Get Tan Get To the new Waist Basket
 The Finest In Aerobic Fitness is having Their January Special
 1003 University Dr. 846-1013