

NEW LOOK
THE SHAPE OF THINGS
 Hair Styling Salon for Men and Woman

Perm Special $27.50
 Cut Included

Coupon Good Until Feb. 15, 1987
NEXUS 4417 Texas Ave. South (next to Fajita Rita's) 846-7614

cut here

Defensive Driving Course
 February 4, 5 and February 9, 10
College Station Hilton

Pre-register by phone: 693-8178
 Ticket deferral and 10% insurance discount

cut here

20% 20% DISCOUNT 20%
 with this coupon

The Balloon Boutique & Gifts

1405-B Harvey Rd.
 696-3076
 across from Post Oak Mall
 expires May 31, 1987 Valentine Orders Excluded

YESTERDAYS
DART TOURNAMENT

Blind Draw Doubles
 Mondays 8:00 pm
 House Dress Code
 near Lubys
 846-2625

It's Valentine's at PARTY TIME

send your special someone

A Hug Cup of Hearts
Chocolate Roses
Balloon Bouquet

Displayed at both locations

Party Time U Rent M

2501 Texas Ave S.C.S. 1904 Texas Ave Bryan
 696-5555 779-0094

Local Delivery Available: Order By Phone Visa/MC

Hillel Jewish Student Center
 800 Jersey St.

Announces 3 Courses Open to the Public
Beginning Feb. 3rd

7-8 pm Hebrew-For beginners and intermediates
 8-9 pm Introduction to Medieval Jewish Philosophy
 9-10 pm Jewish Mysticism

All courses free except for xeroxing fees
 Each course must have 10 people in order to meet

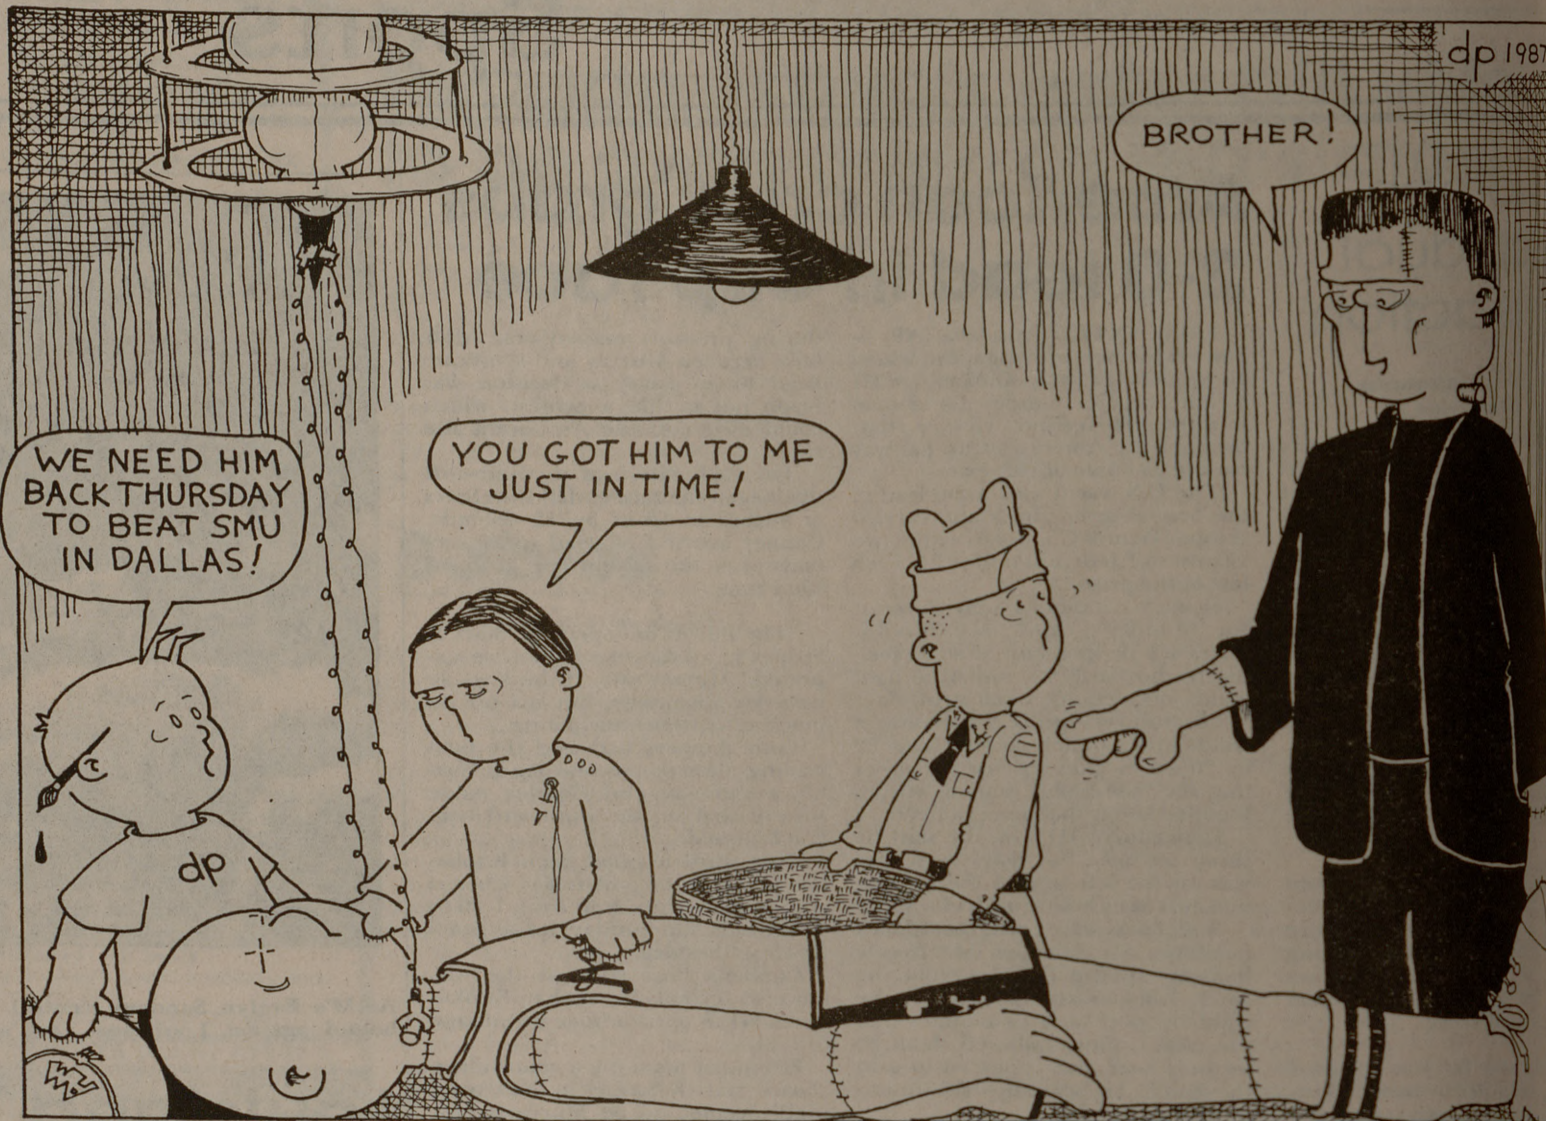

Further Information
 Call 696-7313 between 1-5 pm

Reacquaint yourself with Student Y!

Welcome Back Meeting

Tuesday, Feb. 3
6:00 pm
225 MSC

Refreshments will be served.

Miller snares 1-stroke win at Pro-Am

PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (AP) — Johnny Miller, the Golden Boy of another golfing era, rolled back the years with a come-from-behind 66 that brought him a one-stroke victory Sunday over Payne Stewart in the Pebble Beach National Pro-Am.

"It's been a long time since I was able to come down the last fairway in contention," said Miller, 39, whose last previous triumph came in the 1983 Inverrary Classic.

"This is my favorite place to play golf in the whole world, and my favorite course," he said of the picturesque Pebble Beach golf links that stretch 6,799 yards along the cliffs and crags of Carmel Bay.

"To be able to get in contention, then make that putt on 18, it's a great thrill for me, a dream come true," said Miller.

The 23rd victory of his career came on a 278 total, 10-under-par, and was worth $108,000 from the total purse of $600,000.

For Stewart it was a second consecutive runner-up finish in this tournament and another chapter of what might have been in his dreary, discouraging saga.

Stewart led the PGA Tour in top-10 finishes last year with 16. He was second in three tournaments. He won $535,389.

But he did not win a tournament. He has not won since 1983.

The third-round leader here, he stood alone at one point on the back nine.

But Miller, playing well in front of him, moved into a tie for the lead with a 15-18 foot birdie putt on the 72nd hole.

Rockets nip Hawks 106-104

ATLANTA (AP) — Robert Reid of the Houston Rockets says he's just like any other guard in the NBA with the belief that, "If you get the ball to me, I'll score."

Reid scored 27 points Sunday, hitting 12 of 19 shots from the field, as the Rockets survived going scoreless for the final 1:51 to edge the Atlanta Hawks 106-104.

"When you play with two great post players like Ralph (Sampson) and Akeem (Olajuwon), things will open up for the outside players," Reid said. "They attract a lot of attention."

The Rockets took a 106-100 lead with 1:51 remaining on two free throws by Rodney McCray, but Atlanta failed to get the tying basket with three shots, two of them tips, in the final seven seconds.

Dominique Wilkins scored from the lane with 1:33 to play and John Battle completed a career-high 27-point performance with a layup that cut the lead to 106-104 with 40 seconds left.

A steal by Wilkins gave the Hawks possession at the end, but the season's scoring leader for Atlanta had a drive blocked by Olajuwon with 10 seconds left. That set up the final flurry that fell short for the Hawks, who lost at home for only the time in 22 games this season.

"We held on at the end and a credit to our guys playing under pressure," Houston Coach Fitch said.

"We had a couple of chances at the end, but it just didn't work out," Atlanta Coach Mike Fratello said. "I can't fault anybody's effort."

Sampson added 17 points for the Rockets before fouling out and

Defense gives AFC Pro Bowl win

HONOLULU (AP) — John Elway threw for the game's only touchdown, and Denver Broncos teammate Karl Mecklenburg spearheaded a smothering defense to lead the AFC to a 10-6 victory over the NFC in Sunday's Pro Bowl game.

Elway, who threw for 304 yards in the Broncos' 39-20 Super Bowl loss to the New York Giants the previous Sunday, put the AFC ahead to stay with a 10-yard touchdown pass to Todd Christensen of the Los Angeles Raiders on the final play of the first quarter.

That touchdown and a 26-yard field goal by New England's Tony Franklin just before halftime were set up when the NFC's return specialist, rookie Vai Sikahema of St. Louis, fumbled the ball away on punt returns.

The victory halted the NFC's domination of the AFC in recent postseason play. The National Conference had won five of the last seven NFL all-star games and five of the last six Super Bowls.

Seattle's Freddie Young recovered the first fumble by Sikahema, who had turned the ball over just twice during the regular season, at the NFC 17 to set up the touchdown. Miami rookie linebacker John Oferdahl fell on the second Sikahema fumble at the AFC 44, setting up Franklin's field goal and a 10-0 lead.

The NFC was limited to a field goal of 38 yards by Morten Andersen in the third quarter and a 19-yarder by the New Orleans kicker in the opening seconds of the final period.

Defensive end Reggie White of Philadelphia was a standout for the NFC, logging a Pro Bowl record-tying four sacks. Although on the losing team, he was voted the game's most valuable player.

The AFC came through with a couple of late goal-line stands to make the 10 points stand up.

Safety Lloyd Burruss of Kansas City ended the final NFC scoring threat when he intercepted a pass by Washington's Jay Schroeder in the AFC end zone with 8:05 remaining in the game.

In the defense-dominated game, Elway completed five of 11 passes for 66 yards. Cincinnati's Boomer Esiason, the AFC backup quarterback, was the game's most passer with five completions for 105 yards.

On its final stand, the AFC helped of a critical penalty against the NFC. The Los Angeles Raiders' Dickerson ran one yard for a parent touchdown, but Walter Garrison's pass was called illegal motion and the ball was back to the AFC 6-yard line. Dickerson made his interception on the play.

Although neither quarterback nor running backs had much to do against either defense, Walter Payton picked up 10 yards to become the Pro Bowl time leading career rusher.

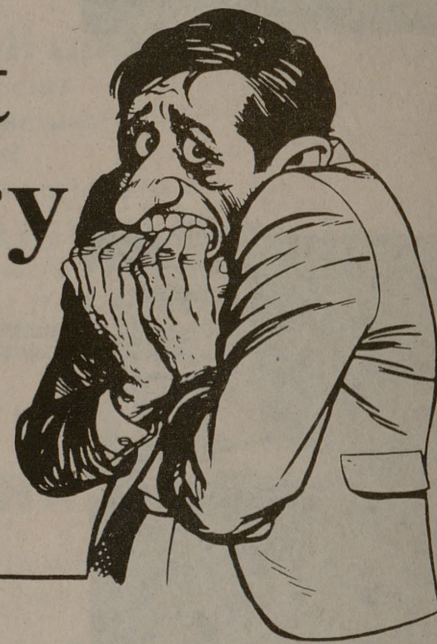

Payton, already the league's top regular-season rushing performer, set a Pro Bowl record by totaling 364 yards, gaining 24 carries in Sunday's game.

The NFC quarterback was Schroeder and starter Tommy Taylor of Minnesota, combined for 156 yards. Schroeder was 16 for 83 yards, and Taylor was 8 for 73.

Don't Worry

when an accident or sudden illness occurs

CarePlus is open when you need them 7 days a week with affordable medical care.

Pharmacy now open 7 days a week for your convenience

CarePlus

Medical/Dental Center
 696-0683
 1712 S.W. Parkway • C.S. Open 8am - 8pm
 (across from Kroger Center)

HELP US TO HELP OTHERS

SPRING "BANANA SPLASH" & BLUE JEANS RUSH

Tues., Feb. 3
 MSC 145
 7 p.m.

Wed., Feb. 4
 MSC 230, 231
 7 p.m.

Please call us for more info:

Liz
 Jenny
 Becky

693-1098
 846-7781
 696-3090