

Mayotte snares U.S. Pro Indoor

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Fifth-seeded Tim Mayotte erased a bitter year-long memory Sunday as he upset favored John McEnroe 3-6, 6-1, 6-3, 6-1 to capture the $465,000 U.S. Pro Indoor Tennis Championship. Mayotte, 26, earned the $67,500 first-place prize as he beat a struggling McEnroe for the first time in six career confrontations. Last year, Mayotte reached the final of the U.S. Pro Indoor, but had to default the title to Ivan Lendl because of pulled stomach muscles suffered in his semifinal victory. Against McEnroe, Mayotte lost the first set, but rallied to win the next three in the best-of-five final. Mayotte successfully attacked the net and the fourth-seeded McEnroe was unable to pass him in the familiar manner that made him the world's top player four of the last six years. McEnroe, 27, collected $33,750 for second place, but didn't appear close to the form that preceded last year's 6½-month self-exile from competition. He took leave to start a family and take stock of his life. Mayotte advanced through the tournament for his third pro title with a first-round bye and victories over Gary Muller of South Africa, Ben Testerman, Paul Annacone and Milan Srejber of Czechoslovakia. McEnroe, trying to win an unprecedented fifth U.S. Pro Indoor, advanced on a bye, triumphs over Mel Purcell, Tomas Smid of Czechoslovakia, Jakob Hlasek of Switzerland and Amos Mansdorf of Israel. McEnroe took the first set with a service break in the sixth game. He won three of the first four points for a 15-40 lead. Then, after Mayotte forced an error to 30-40, McEnroe finished the break with a backhand passing shot. The set then followed service with McEnroe closing it out in game nine. From then on, however, it was all Mayotte, who dominated by racing out to a 5-0 lead in the second set, a 3-1 margin in the third and a 3-0 lead in the fourth. Mayotte broke McEnroe for the first time in the second game of the second set after trailing 30-0. He won the next two points on brilliant passing shots. And after McEnroe went to 40-30 on a netted shot by Mayotte, the right-hander from Springfield, Mass., captured the next three points. Mayotte broke McEnroe's service again in the sixth game as the eventual winner forced two errors, then took the game when McEnroe allowed a return of service to drop just inside the baseline. In the third set, Mayotte broke McEnroe's service in the first and final games. He took the fourth and deciding set with breaks in the second and sixth games, holding McEnroe to just three points in the last three games.

Heels edge Cavs 74-73 in overtime

(AP) — Freshman center J.R. Reid scored 21 points, including a three-point play with 1:36 left in overtime, to boost third-ranked North Carolina to a 74-73 victory over Virginia Sunday. Reid hit a jumper inside the lane to break a 71-71 tie and was fouled by Mel Kennedy. The free throw put North Carolina ahead 74-71, and John Johnson's basket with 47 seconds left pulled Virginia within a point. Richard Morgau missed a jumper at the buzzer that could have given Virginia the victory. North Carolina is now 20-2 and has not lost in nine Atlantic Coast Conference games. Virginia is 14-7 and 4-5. In other games Sunday, No. 2 Indiana beat Michigan 83-67, and No. 18 Kansas beat Notre Dame 70-60, winning for the second time this weekend. The Jayhawks beat Oklahoma State 88-65 Saturday. On Saturday, it was No. 1 Nevada-Las Vegas 83, San Jose State 74; No. 4 Iowa 89, Arizona 80; No. 5 DePaul 88, Dayton 65; No. 6 Temple 78, St. Joseph's 69; No. 7 Purdue 86, Northwestern 60; No. 8 Oklahoma 81, Missouri 78; Kentucky 70, No. 9 Alabama 69, and No. 10 Georgetown 89, Villanova 86. Also, No. 11 Syracuse 59, Connecticut 53; No. 12 Clemson 74, South Carolina 52; No. 13 Pittsburgh 87, No. 17 Providence 81; No. 14 Illinois 99, Wisconsin 74; No. 16 Duke 76, Maryland 67, and Georgia 75, No. 20 Auburn 71.

Pavin takes Hawaiian Open after playoff

HONOLULU (AP) — Corey Pavin climaxed a six-stroke comeback with a 20-foot birdie putt on the second playoff hole and successfully defended his title Sunday in the Hawaiian Open golf tournament. Pavin, who started the day's play six strokes back of leader Craig Stadler, ripped the Waialae Country Club course with an 8-under-par 64 that put him through 72 holes at 270, 18 under par. Stadler, playing almost an hour behind Pavin, came to the par-5 18th in a tie for the lead and had a six-foot birdie putt to win it outright. But Stadler, a former Masters champion who hasn't won in 2½ years, missed the little putt and the playoff was on. Both made routine pars on the first hole of sudden death. On the next, both reached the green in regulation, with Pavin pin-high about 20 feet to the left of the cup. Stadler was closer, perhaps 12-15 feet behind the hole. After a lengthy delay to scare away a persistent pigeon, Pavin rolled his into the hole for birdie. Stadler missed and Pavin, who won the Bob Hope Classic three weeks ago, became the first two-time winner of the season. The sixth victory of his four-year PGA tour career was worth $108,000 from the total purse of $600,000 and pushed Pavin's tour-leading earnings to $307,040 in only five starts this season. Stadler, who played the last round in 70 in the warm, sunny, weather, collected $64,800. Paul Azinger, who scored his first tour victory in Phoenix last month, was in the race until the last few holes. He dropped out of a tie for the lead when he bogeyed the 17th from a bunker, lipping out a three-to-four foot par-saving putt. He had an eight-foot birdie putt on the 18th to join the playoff, but again saw the putt slide by. "I had my chances," said Azinger, who was alone in third at 271 after a closing 70. "I hit good shots coming in, but over the last few holes the putts just wouldn't go in. That's the way it goes." Lanny Wadkins and Larry Mize were next at 272. Mize had a closing 67, Wadkins a 68. Fred Couples, who made eagle on the first hole and once had a share of the lead, had a 71 and led a large group at 273.
