

Photo by Dean Saito

Reland Garret, right, plays Medea and Timothy McEvoy plays her husband Jason in the Aggie Players' production of the classic Greek tragedy

"Medea." The play begins tonight at 8:00 in Rudder Forum and runs through Feb. 21. Tickets are $4 for students and $5 for the general public.

Irash dumping ban on Gulf urged by conservationists nization recommended Tuesthat dumping trash in the Gulf Mexico be banned by internanal agreement.

Texas land office should pre-of water, such as the Mediterran Sea and Persian Gulf.

This past September the center nsored a Texas beach cleanup sels." scribed as the biggest in the na-es of Texas coastline in three

"CEE's report of its September cleanup is 124 tons of proof why we've got to stop messing with Texas beaches," State Land Commissioner "Then all the other countries would have to decide if they were going to abide by this," O'Hara said.

The CEE report recommended Garry Mauro said. "The report shows more than ever that Texas he Washington-based Center doesn't have a litter problem, we've Environmental Education said got a garbage problem on our > has currents that direct all trash materials from the coastline. right onto the shoreline. It also has such heavy traffic of maritime ves-

O'Hara said the Coast Guard In that project, 2,772 volunteers could take the proposal to the Inter-aned 124 tons of trash from 120 national Convention for the Prevention of Pollution From Ships, MAR-POL, short for marine pollution.

that the Legislature revive the Texas Coastal and Marine Council or designate an existing agency to take the lead on the coastal debris problem.

Among the report's state recomre a proposal for designating the last special area.

CEE marine biologist Kathy
This would make it exempt from mendations were proposals to conduct a feasibility study of providing disposal facilities at Texas ports and expanding a program to remove 30can't be classified as a special area. It and 55-gallon drums of hazardous

The report also said the Legislature should consider a bill regulating the disposal of beverage containers.

Tom Henderson, a spokesman for Mauro's office, said bills also have been introduced to ban glass containers and to increase the penalties for littering.

Suspect still sought in slaying

EDINBURG (AP) — A second suspect was being sought in connection with the slaying of a government drug informant, investigators said Tuesday.

'We still have a suspect at large," said Rene Torres, a spokesman for the Hidalgo County Sheriff's De-partment. "The investigation is in Authorities arrested a Mexican national at his South Texas resi-dence last week and said he was suspected of being the gunman in the Feb. 8 death of Antonio Espinosa, 39, of Edinburg.

Espinosa was hit in the head by a gunshot fired while he was driving down a country road with his wife and infant daughter.

Espinosa's wife, Rosa, and the couple's 6-month-old daughter were not hurt.

Authorities said the fatal shot was fired from the passenger side of a truck that pulled beside Espinosa's

Capt. Albert Garcia, a sheriff's investigator, said the victim was an informant for the federal Drug En-forcement Administration. The forcement Administration. The DEA has refused to confirm or deny whether Espinosa worked for the Pedro Luna-Trigo, 26, who was arrested in connection with the case Thursday in San Juan, remained in bond on a murder charge.

Businessman 'recycling' old buildings

SAN ANTONIO (AP) - Some people save aluminum cans. Others save old newspapers. Edgar Dodson salvages buildings.

"This is a way to help the economy," Dodson said as cranes lifted the second floor of the old Americana Inn and his crew bulldozed the first floor underneath.

"In today's throwaway society, it's good to salvage anything you can,"

he said.
Dodson, third-generation owner of Dodson House Moving in San Antonio, was supervising a project in which he is saving the top floor of a

A shopping center and car dealer-ship are scheduled to be built in its place, he said.

Dodson buys buildings from de-molition contractors and resells

He said it costs buyers half as much to purchase and renovate a used building than it does to construct a new one.

His crew was preparing two buildings, both cut in half, for transport to Dodson's storage yard, which he calls his "used-house lot."

The structures are each 32 feet wide and 66 feet long. The 20-mile trip through the city takes about four hours, he said.

"Most people see house movers as a nuisance," he said. "And we are an inconvenience when we get out there on the roads, but we're only a short inconvenience that the advan-

Dance Arts Society will host a

Modern Dance Workshop with

Tana Kent

an independent modern choreographer from Austin

Saturday, February 21, $7 Sunday, February 22, $6 ($10 for the weekend)

Room 268 Read (East Kyle) For workshop schedule call: Ginger 260-0510 Kathy 696-6257

New Class Schedule for the Spring Semester:

Monday - 7:30 Aerobics, 8:30 Beg. Jazz,

9:30 Int./Adv. Jazz Tuesday - 8:30 Aerobics

205 Holleman

Wednesday - 7:30 Aerobics, 8:30 Beg. Ballet,

9:30 Int./Adv. Ballet Thursday - 7:30 Beg. Modern, 8:30 Int. Adv. Modern Semester Dues $25 Everyone Welcome!

ALL YOU CAN EAT ALL YOU CAN EA

For information: Ginger 260-0510 Leslie 260-7282

Archie's All You Can Eat Every Wonderful Wednesday 5:30pm to 8pm

Archie is now making every Wednesday Wonderful...for only $2.99 you get 2 Tacos and all the Regular Burritos you can eat.

No coupons are necessary. just you and your appetite every Wonderful Wednesday from 5:30pm to 8:00pm. Dine-in service only; including patio. Not good with any other offer.

310 North Harvey Road, College Station 920 South Texas Avenue, Bryan

