

Aguirre leads Mavs past Sonics

DALLAS (AP) — Mark Aguirre scored 26 points as the Dallas Mavericks cruised to an easy 130-117 victory over the Seattle SuperSonics in an NBA contest Wednesday night. The Mavericks, who had lost two games in a row on the road, overcame an early first-quarter Sonics lead to register their seventh consecutive victory at home, where they are 27-5. Seattle which had won eight of its last 10 games, snapped a three-game winning streak. Dallas overcame a 21-20 Seattle lead midway through the first period to outscore the Sonics 26-15 en route to a 46-point first quarter. It was the Mavericks' biggest quarter of the season and the most points ever scored in the first period in club history. Dallas, which led 73-58 at halftime, increased its lead to 20 points, 99-79, late in the third period. The Mavericks' biggest lead was 24, 123-99, with 3:04 left in the game. In addition to Aguirre, Rolando Blackman had 22 points and Derek Harper had 20 for Dallas. Detlef Schrempf came off the bench to score 18 for the Mavericks, and Sam Perkins, who had to leave the game late in the third quarter with an injured cheekbone, had 17. Xavier McDaniel, Tom Chambers and former Maverick Dale Ellis all had 21 points for the Sonics, who were outscored 45-40. The Sonics' Clemon Johnson suffered a broken nose early in the game and was taken to a hospital for X-rays. He later returned to the arena but did not play. Perkins, who made the only 3-point field goal, helped Dallas tie the league record of 177, made during the 1979-80 season by the San Diego Clippers. The Mavericks have made 177 of 493 attempts. San Diego made 177 in 543 attempts. "This was one of those up-tempo games," Dallas coach Dick Motta said. "We got a nice lead, but we just couldn't put it away early. They hit some big shots. It just didn't seem to be an intense game, but we did what we had to do to win." Seattle is 0-5 against the Mavericks this season, and Chambers said, "Dallas seems to have our number. We haven't put a game together against them all year. They are a good team and they always seem to be at their best and we at our worst when we match up."

Cleveland State must settle for NIT bid instead of NCAA

From the Associated Press
Upstart Cleveland State reached the final 16 of the NCAA tournament a year ago. This time, the scrappy urban school is seeking the NIT title. The Vikings, 24-7, travel to Tennessee-Chattanooga, 21-7, tonight for a first-round encounter in the National Invitation Tournament. The 32-team tournament began Wednesday night with Marquette at Nebraska, Utah at Boise State and Washington at Montana State. Besides Cleveland State at Tennessee-Chattanooga, other first-round matches today will have La Salle at Villanova, Rhode Island at Florida State, Baylor at Arkansas-Little Rock, Akron at Illinois State, Jacksonville at Vanderbilt and James Madison at Stephen F. Austin. On Friday, the first round will be completed with Seton Hall at Niagara, Arkansas State at Arkansas, Mississippi at Southern Mississippi, St. Peter's at St. Louis, Oregon State at New Mexico and Fullerton State at California. Last year, the Vikings reached the final 16 of the NCAA tournament where they lost to Navy 71-70. The commuter university first gained national attention by beating DePaul, Indiana and St. Joseph's last season. This year, the Vikings beat three teams invited to the NCAA postseason tournament: Marist, Virginia Commonwealth and Mid-American champion Central Michigan. Cleveland State is led by sophomore Ken "Mouse" McFadden, who averaged 21.5 points per game. McFadden already is the school's eighth-leading scorer and scored in double figures in all but one game this year. Coach Pat Kennedy guided the Florida State Seminoles to an 18-10 mark and their first home-court NIT appearance, while Rhode Island's Tom Penders, who previously coached against Kennedy in the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference, coached his team to a 20-9 mark, just a year after the team finished 9-19. The Seminoles are led in scoring by senior guards Pee Wee Barber and LaRae Davis and junior forward Jerome Fitchett. The trio accounts for approximately 45 points a game for the Seminoles, who average 82 points an outing. Junior guards Carlton Owens and Tom Garrick average 18.6 and 16.9 points, respectively, for the Rams, who get most of their rebounding from Atlantic 10 freshman of the year Kenny Green, a 6-foot-8 forward. Arkansas-Little Rock, 23-9, won the regular-season Trans America Athletic Conference title, but lost in the TAAC tournament.

Lloyd says he'll return to Rockets

HOUSTON (AP) — Although Lewis Lloyd is not eligible to play in the National Basketball Association until 1989, he told his former Houston Rockets teammates he'd be back. Lloyd and Mitchell Wiggins were banned from the NBA in January after testing positive for cocaine use. Lloyd, who was recently released from a drug rehabilitation clinic in Van Nuys, Calif., said his biggest regret is a feeling that his absence has hurt the Rockets. "It's hard for me to watch when they lose," Lloyd said Tuesday after watching the Seattle-Houston game. "When this happened, I was at the top of my game, and so was the team. If Ralph (Sampson) and Mitch and I were still playing, we would have passed Utah for second place a long time ago." Sampson is out with an injury. "This is the toughest thing I've ever been through," he said. "But because of it, I know I'm a better person. I'm going to be all right." Talking to former teammates Jim Petersen and Dave Feitl, Lloyd said, "I'll be back." Lloyd said he'll be joining a team in Europe within a week, but says he is confident he can get back in the NBA in 1989.
