HERE'S ONE COLLEGE MEMORY WE'LL HELP YOU FORGET.

If you're like a lot of people, your longest-lasting memory of college is the student loan you're still paying back. The Army has a solution, though: qualify, sign up with us, and we'll sign off on your loan. Each year you serve as a soldier, the Army will reduce your college debt by 1/3 or $1,500, whichever amount is greater. So after serving just 3 years, your government loan could be completely paid off. You're eligible for this program if you have a National Direct Student Loan, or a Guaranteed Student Loan, or a Federally Insured Student Loan made after October 1, 1975. The loan must not be in default. Get a clean slate, by erasing your college debt. Take advantage of the Army's Loan Repayment Program. Your local Recruiter can tell you if you qualify.

Asset records say former head of PTL made big bucks

FORT MILL, S.C. (AP) — Evangelist Jim Bakker, who in 1984 bought a Palm Springs home while continuing televised pleas to get his PTL ministry out of debt, had amassed at least $500,000 in real estate and cars in recent years, records show.

Last fall, the Bakkers bought and began renovations on a $148,500 mountainside home overlooking Gatlinburg, Tenn. Renovations to the 2,300-square-foot home were projected to cost $35,500.

It was unclear Tuesday what holdings Bakker and his wife will keep now that Bakker has turned his television ministry over to the Rev. Jerry Falwell.

Bakker resigned as president of PTL last week, saying he had been blackmailed after a sexual encounter seven years ago. In a videotaped statement Monday, Bakker said the sex scandal was the beginning of a "diabolical plot" to take over the ministry, which reported $129 million in revenues last year.

The Charlotte (N.C.) Observer reported last November that when Bakker bought the Tennessee property, he said he planned to sell the California home.

Lawyer says Swaggart tried takeover bid

NEW YORK (AP) — TV evangelist Jim Bakker's lawyer accused rival preacher Jimmy Swaggart on Tuesday of masterminding a bid to take over Bakker's $172 million PTL empire.

"Last night Jim Swaggart came out of his cave or the high grass or wherever he was hiding and identified himself to the Charlotte Observer as the man that Roy Grutman had in his mind," Bakker's lawyer, Norman Roy Grutman, said at a news conference in New York.

"Now that Jimmy Swaggart identified himself, I will not deny Jim Swaggart was that man," he said.

When Bakker stepped down as head of the 500,000-member PTL ministry last week, he accused a rival of seeking to usurp the organization by exposing the fact that Bakker had an extramarital encounter seven years ago and paid blackmail to cover it up.

Swaggart, president of Jimmy Swaggart Ministries in Baton Rouge, La., was in Los Angeles preparing for a weekend crusade and was not immediately available to comment on Grutman's latest accusations.

But in an interview with the Charlotte (N.C.) Observer published Tuesday Swaggart had said, "I'm totally aghast because nothing like that has ever been considered, thought of or remotely engaged in."

Swaggart, who has feuded in the past with Bakker, denied any attempt to take over the PTL, saying "that would be the last thing in the world I would ever want."

New cancer therapy gives hope to victims of fatal brain tumors in Pasadena, Calif. He described his results at an American Cancer Society meeting underway this week.

SAN DIEGO (AP) — A new form of therapy is providing "some hope" for the first time for victims of the most common form of brain cancer, which until now has been relentlessly fatal, a researcher says.

Doctors are unsure whether they have cured anyone with the new approach, but 44 of their 60 patients are still alive long after such victims usually die.

"It's not a panacea," he said. "It's highly experimental. But in a disease that's heretofore been 100 percent fatal, at least for the first time there's some hope for these people."

The patients were treated at an advanced stage of their disease, when the expected survival is 14 weeks. But some are apparently free of disease more than two years later.

The approach, called adoptive immunotherapy, uses the patient's white blood cells as the primary assault against cancer. The white cells are separated from the blood and grown for 10 days in interleukin-2, one of the body's natural chemical weapons against disease. This seems to stimulate the white cells to fight the cancer.

The therapy uses a newly developed technique to rally the body's own immune defenses to fight cancer. In this case, it's being used to attack brain tumors called gliomas.

All of the patients have failed to respond to surgery and radiation. When their cancers recur, surgeons remove as much of the tumors as they can, then fill up the resulting cavity with a mixture of the activated white cells and blood plasma.

Dr. Deane Brunton Jacques and colleagues began using the treatment in February 1985 at the Huntington Medical Research Institutes culture, won what they consider important concessions from the Walt Disney company aimed at guaranteeing a French and European flavor to the theme park.

Fourth Disney theme park to open by 1992 in France

PARIS (AP) — Mickey Mouse and the Magic Kingdom are coming to Europe, under a contract Premier Jacques Chirac signed Tuesday for a $2 billion Disney theme park outside Paris.

The world's fourth Disney park is to open in 1992 on a 4,400-acre site in rural Marne-la-Vallee, 20 miles east of Paris.

Negotiations took nearly two years. Jean-Rene Bernard, negotiator for the French government, said he estimates EuroDisneyland will contribute $500 million a year to France's gross domestic product.

French officials say it will create 30,000 new jobs and should draw about 10 million visitors a year.

EuroDisneyland is to include 13,500 hotel rooms, camping grounds, sports facilities and a large commercial complex spread through five villages. Total cost could go as high as $7.5 billion, with the first phase to be completed in 1992 and other themes to be completed in 1995, officials said.

"We think France is the ideal country to welcome EuroDisneyland," Michael D. Eisner, president of the Walt Disney Co., said at the signing ceremony.

Like the world's three other Disneyland theme parks, the centerpiece of EuroDisneyland will be the Magic Kingdom dominated by a huge Cinderella castle and populated by familiar Disney characters.

In French, he told reporters, "It is difficult to imagine a country richer in artistic traditions. It is as respectful beneficiaries of this cultural richness that we come to France."

"The Disney culture . . . will be brought to France intact, but it will be different in that it will respect French culture," Eisner said.

Chirac told a news conference the venture marked the first time France signed a contract with a private foreign company for a project on French soil, "but I'm sure it will be a great success because it's Disney Co. and France." The French negotiators, sensitive to inroads on their
