Marcel Vos, Texas A&M's No. 1 singles player, slices a return against Arkansas' Simon Robinson.

Vos won the match 6-3, 6-3 to help give the Aggies a 7-2 victory over the Razorbacks.

Goldfine comeback helps Ags beat Hogs for 1st time in 9 years

By Ed Bodde
 Assistant Sports Editor

The Texas A&M men's tennis team defeated Arkansas 7-2 Thursday at the Omar Smith Tennis Center. It was the Aggies' first win over the Razorbacks in nine years.

A&M clinched the win after Dean Goldfine came from behind to win his No. 2 singles match. Goldfine and Arkansas' Danny Granot split the first two sets before Granot took a seemingly comfortable 5-1 lead in the third and final set. But Goldfine was able to force a tie-breaker and win the match 6-0, 6-7, 7-6.

"I didn't want to give up, and he (Granot) was chipping and charging on the serve and volleying," Goldfine said. "We hadn't beaten Arkansas in a long time and that really made me want this one more. This was the best comeback that I can remember."

In all, A&M won five of the six singles matches. The Aggies' No. 1 singles player, Marcel Vos, beat Simon Robinson in straight sets 6-3, 6-3. Vos is now 16-5 on the year in singles play.

Goldfine and Vos completed a perfect day for themselves as they teamed up to win the No. 1 doubles 6-4, 6-0, over Robinson and Simone of Arkansas.

"Dean Goldfine really had a great comeback from being down 5-1," A&M Coach David Kent said. Vos really played good tennis. This was a great comeback and a great team effort. It was a great win for us."

Lady Aggies slip past Owls in conference tennis action

By Hal L. Hammons
 Sports Writer

The Texas A&M women's tennis team came through with a big conference win over Rice Thursday at Royal Oaks Country Club.

The 5-4 match went right down to the wire as the Lady Aggies had to win the final two doubles matches to get the victory.

A&M raised their record to 8-18 and 2-5 in the Southwest Conference. The Owls are 1-6 in conference action.

The Lady Aggies had lost three SWC matches in a row, so Coach Bobby Kleinecke said his team was especially appreciative of the win.

"We've been waiting a long time for this," Kleinecke said.

After splitting the singles matches 3-3, A&M's No. 3 doubles team of Missy Kibler and Sammy Gonzalez lost quickly to Marion Campbell and Liz Sulzberger 6-0, 6-3.

The other matches went to three sets, but the Lady Aggies prevailed in both.

No. 2 team Lisa Keller and Jenifer Jones knotted the match with a 3-6, 6-1, 6-4 win. The No. 1 duo of Kim Labuschagne and Laura Leong finished it off by winning 6-4, 3-6, 6-3.

In singles action, Labuschagne defeated Allison Culver 6-3, 6-2; Liong beat Emily Cates 7-6, 2-6, 6-3; Keller lost to Campbell 7-6, 7-5; Jones beat Lori Cronk 3-6, 6-2, 6-3; Sulzberger beat Kibler 6-4, 4-6, 7-6; and Melissa Dowling lost to Megan Tanner 6-0, 6-1.

Home runs lead Orioles past Rangers

BALTIMORE (AP) — Consecutive home runs by Fred Lynn and Ray Knight touched off a tie-breaking six-run sixth inning and Ken Gerhart also homered to lead the Baltimore Orioles past the Texas Rangers 8-6 Thursday night.

Lynn's drive to center field off Texas starter Mike Mason, 0-1, snapped a 2-2 tie. Third baseman Knight, whose throwing error gave Texas an unearned run in the third inning, followed with a shot over the left-field fence, and the Orioles scored four more runs before Texas recorded the first out.

Terry Kennedy followed the consecutive homers with a double that chased Texas' Mike Mason, 0-1.
