President receives tax refund

SANTA BARBARA, Calif. (AP) — President Reagan and his wife Nancy paid $123,517 in taxes on an adjusted gross income of $336,640 in 1986, according to a copy of the

The Reagans' tax form, which they signed on Monday and which the White House press office made available to reporters Tuesday, shows the Reagans got a tax refund of about $31,000.

They set aside $15,000 of the refund to apply to 1987, the forms

In a statement accompanying the release of the tax form, Reagan said that "for most of us, Tax Day has never been what you would call a cause for celebration. But this year is different.

"This is the last gasp of the old tax de," he said in a statement. "This April 15th is the last time Americans will pay the higher, complicated rates of the old system. Starting this year, tax reform takes over."

The Reagans donated approximately $30,000 to charity.

Senate seeks account records connected to Iran-Contra deal

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate urged a skeptical federal judge on Tuesday to order retired Air Force Maj. General Richard V. Secord to release foreign bank records believed linked to the Iran-Contra arms deals.

U.S. District Judge Aubrey E. Robinson Jr. said he would rule in the case, but he called the order the Senate was seeking "a charade," and said the Swiss might reject it. He suggested whatever decision he makes will surely be appealed.

Tower commission, appointed by Reagan to investigate the Iran-Contra affair, had identified Secord's "prominence in global arrangements with respect to shipment of arms to Iran."

Senate attorney Michael Davidson said the

The commission's report also said Secord was involved in a network supporting the Nicaraguan rebels known as Contras. It said contributions appear to have been routed to the Contras through a series of private organizations, some of them linked to Secord-controlled bank accounts by a lease of bank records,' "Green said.

chart found in the safe of fired National Security Council aide Oliver North.

The Senate Iran-Contra committee wants the records to learn about "the flow of money through these bank accounts," Davidson said.

The Senate voted last month to seek a contempt of court citation that would threaten Secord with imprisonment if he did not sign documents giving investigators access to bank records in Switzerland, the Cayman Islands and Panama.

Secord's attorney, Thomas C. Green, said Tuesday that such an order would violate the retired general's constitutional protection against self-incrimination.

"This statement that Gen. Secord is being asked to make under the threat of contempt and threat of imprisonment is nothing more than compelled speech.

It's the equivalent of transporting Mr. Second to Switzerland or some other foreign destination Judge Robinson told Davidson, the Son yer, he had problems with the consent Davidson said "consent" in the sa context was merely a legal term so "the shall be construed as consent" to satisfy Si Cayman Islands law.

And he said the Swiss authorities out to honor the directive, knowing that Sen jected to signing it.
But Robinson nodded when Davidson that the only issue before the judge's law empowering Congress to seek out directing production of documents.

Secord's lawyer suggested the condefer its decision to give the Senate time mine if it could obtain the Swiss bankmut der a U.S.-Swiss treaty.

The Senate, in a related effort to lem about Secord's affairs, has voted to report ited immunity from prosecution for two ies of Secord companies, Joan Corbinad Napier, in order to compel them to testify the Senate panel.

Rapist's release angers citizens; officials consider moving parole

MARTINEZ, Calif. (AP) plan to parole a convict who hacked the arms off a 15-year-old rape victim has caused so much anger in Antioch that state prison officials are considering changing the parole location, a state deputy attorney general said Tuesday.

A judge continued until Friday a hearing held on a suit to stop the corrections department from sending Lawrence Singleton to Antioch. Police on Monday had warned angry Antioch residents not to take vigi lante action if Singleton was paroled there as planned April 26.
Morris Lenk, a state deputy attorney general, said in court that the Department of Corrections is taking residents' anger into consideration and might change the parole location. Officials have said there is a possibility Singleton could be paroled to a state in the South where he has relatives.

The 59-year-old former merchant seaman picked up Mary Vincent hitchhiking in September 1978 and raped her, cut off both her arms below the elbow with an ax and left her to die on a road near Modesto. He has been in prison since 1979.

Antioch residents complained and started petition drives as soon as the plan was disclosed, and Police Chief Len Herendeen said that some residents have been circulating Singleton's photograph. "One thing's for sure: If he's not a danger to us, we're a danger to him," said eighth-grader Amy Rickerson, who attended a Monday night meeting of the Antioch Police Commis-

Herendeen cautioned 200 residents at the meeting against resorting to violence. Police will be closely watching Singleton, who will have to stay in his home from 10 p.m. to 6 publicly and I would take them seriously," Herendeen said in an interview."I can just picture some red-necks driving by his house at 2 a.m. and shooting up the windows.

Parole officials said they usually parole convicts to the county where they last lived. Singleton did not want to return to San Pablo, where he last lived, so another city in Contra Costa County was chosen.

Under restrictions set by state parole officials, Herendeen said, Sin-gleton would also be required to un-dergo psychiatric counseling and be forbidden to drink alcohol, leave the county or contact his former wife or daughter.

Singleton was sentenced to serve 14 years and four months and earned an early release for good behavior and involvement in a work
