

CYCLES etc...

Now that Spring is here; Get your Bike out and ride it over to cycles etc... for all your cycling needs.

We got What it Takes When it Comes to Bikes

We carry: Hunter MIYATA Bianchi SPECIALIZED

110 College Main Northgate 846-BIKE

Mario & Sons Pizzeria
EAT IN • TAKE OUT
FREE DELIVERY
846-0379

405 W. University Northgate

coupons

Small Thin Crust 12" one topping Pizza $4.99 plus tax expires 4-19-87

Large Thin Crust 16" one topping $5.99 plus tax expires 4-19-87

X-Large Thin Crust 18" one topping $6.99 plus tax expires 4-19-87

Coupon

INTERNATIONAL HOUSE OF PANCAKES RESTAURANT

$2.99

Mon: Burgers & French Fries
Tues: Buttermilk Pancakes
Wed: Burger & French Fries
Thur: Hot Dogs & French Fries
Fri: Beer Battered Fish
Sat: French Toast
Sun: Spaghetti & Meat Sauce

All You Can Eat $2.99 6 p.m.-6 a.m.
no take outs must present this
Expires 5/15/87

International House of Pancakes Restaurant
103 S. College Skaggs Center

FRI and SAT 7:30/9:45 $2.00 RUDDER THEATER

There's a little of him in all of us.

DUNDEE

NO STANDING NO STOPPING NO KIDDING

AGGIE CINEMA

PAUL HOGAN IS Crocodile

'Lone Star War' moves to The Summit

DALLAS (AP) — Round 2 of the "Lone Star NBA War" between the Dallas Mavericks and the Houston Rockets will be played in The Summit Arena in Houston tonight.

The Mavericks won the first round on a 113-107 decision Wednesday night in a game that featured hot words, flying fists and Derek Harper's career-high 31 points.

Al Wood of Dallas and Steve Harris of Houston were ejected for fighting before a noisy sellout crowd of 17,007 fans in Reunion Arena.

Dallas has already clinched a playoff berth and the Midwest Division title. Houston is in the playoffs but the Rockets' position hasn't been determined.

"It should be another exciting game," Dallas Coach Dick Motta said.

"This game had enough fire and enthusiasm where the fans got their money's worth," Houston Coach Bill Fitch said. "In the old days, you might not have had this kind of a game at this stage of the season."

It was the first meeting between the two teams since Motta accused Fitch of manipulating games to avoid the Los Angeles Lakers as long as possible in the playoffs.

Fitch replied by calling Motta's charges "ridiculous."

Motta was suspended a game by the NBA office for the statement.

"It was a crazy game," Harper said. "The intensity came from the words the coaches exchanged. That's why we were so emotional."

Harper said he was proud of Wood for standing his ground in an exchange of punches with Harris in the second period that cleared both benches.

"I told Al Wood he did a good job," Harper said. "I like to see that kind of stuff. I wished I had been in it."

Wood and Harris were ejected from the game at 5:22 in the second period for exchanging punches. Both benches emptied but none of the blows landed. The players will get automatic fines from the NBA office.

Motta downplayed the incident.

"I thought it was a very dull game," Motta said. "I expected some real excitement."

Fitch said little about the flying punches.

"There were a few short tempers out there but it wasn't much," Fitch said. "It's an intense series. I thought Dallas' bench played great. Harper really hurt us."

"We'll try to get them back if they come to our place tonight."

Houston's Jim Peters missed most of the first half when he suffered a cut over his left eye from a flying elbow.

"The crowd was in the game from the beginning," Dallas Coach Dick Motta said. "They were booing Rockets during the timeout and that started the tempers."

Houston's Robert Reid said the Mavs "are more physical now than they used to be because of Al Wood."

"We're shooting for 50 percent," Motta said. "And I don't plan to change our playing routine when we go to Houston."

Phillies mired in frustration after poor start

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The frustration shows on his face, and the anxiety is evident in his voice.

Lance Parrish, the free-agent catcher who signed with Philadelphia after a prolonged and controversial negotiation, is suffering.

So are the Phillies, off to a 1-7 start.

Even Mike Schmidt, who should be brimming with excitement at the prospect of his 500th home run, is in the dumps.

Schmidt, just two homers shy of becoming the 14th player in history to hit 500 or more homers, said the problems of the team are much greater than his goal.

"We have to turn it around as a team right now. That's more an issue with me. That's where my personal thoughts lie," he said.

Schmidt is not one of the culprits in the horrendous start. He is hitting .345, with three homers and seven RBI.

Manager John Felske, a low-key, stoic type, lost his cool after Tuesday night's giveaway to the New York Mets. He snapped bat handles, stormed into his office and wrecked it. Desk, chairs, and the wastepaper basket all felt the wrath of Felske's frustration.

The manager came to the ball park Wednesday night, his calm restored. He held a five-minute team meeting in which he told his players to just relax. He never raised his voice. Gone were the unprintable words with which he described the team's performance the night before.

Parrish is hitting .180, with just four hits in 25 at-bats and only three RBI.

His defensive skills also have deserted him. He has three passed balls and has been unable to throw anyone out. Opponents are 16 for 16 in stolen bases.

Parrish is affected by the boos of the Philadelphia fans, who some rate as the worst in baseball.

"I'm just trying to do my job as best I can," said Parrish. "If that isn't enough for these people, then I know what to do."

Parrish feels that because of the team's 1-7 start everything he does or doesn't do, is magnified. "It's not a one-man team," he said.

As one of the most recognized defensive catchers in the game, Parrish said he is more concerned about defense than his offense.

Parrish, who came to the Phillies after a falling-out with Detroit, signed for $800,000 a season, with an additional $250,000 if he is not disabled by a chronic ailment.

Felske said he has talked with Parrish.

What did he tell him?

"Relax."

AM/PM Clinics

Minor Emergencies
10% Student Discount with ID card

3820 Texas Ave. Bryan, Texas 846-4756

401 S. Texas Ave. Bryan, Texas 779-4756

8a.m.-11p.m. 7 days a week
Walk-in Family Practice

Lecture
Joseph Raben,
Founding Editor of
Computers and the Humanities
Computers and the Social Sciences
Computers and Translation
SCOPE

"THE HUMANIST AND COMPUTING"

Monday April 20
4 PM
Rudder Tower Rm. 301

Sponsored by the Departments of Modern Languages, Philosophy and Humanities, English, Computer Science, and the Campus Computer Users Group.

Free Summer Shuttle

RESORT ATMOSPHERE

Now Preleasing Summer/Fall/Spring

Huge 2 Bdrm/2 Full Baths
3 Bdrm/2 Full Baths
Pool • Hot Tub
• Basketball Court

• On Site Manager + Security
24 Hour Maintenance

Parkway Circle
401 S.W. Parkway
696-6909

Now Open on Saturday 'til 3 p.m.

WILLIAMS LUBE KING

10 Minute Drive-Thru Lube, Oil, & Filter Change!

$3.00 off

205 Holleman

OIL, LUBE & Filter Change (your choice of oil)

A basketful of cash is better than a garage full of 'stuff'

Have a garage or yard sale this week - Call 845-2611