

Rangers slip past Red Sox with 13th-inning home run

ARLINGTON (AP) — Pete O'Brien hit a two-run homer with no outs in the bottom of the 13th inning to lift the Texas Rangers to a 5-3 victory over the Boston Red Sox.

Calvin Schiraldi, 0-2, came in to start the 13th and gave up a single to Scott Fletcher before O'Brien hit his second homer of the season and give Texas the sweep of the weekend series.

On Friday night, Pete Incaviglia's two-run homer off Schiraldi in the 10th inning had given the Rangers a 4-4 victory. Mitch Williams, 1-1, earned the victory in relief.

Held to three hits over eight innings by starter Charlie Hough, the Red Sox tied it in the ninth when Hough hit Don Baylor leading off the inning. Greg Harris relieved and Dwight Evans doubled to left, sending Baylor to third. Baylor scored on Harris' wild pitch.

Roger Clemens started for Boston and allowed 10 hits, walked four and struck out 10 in eight innings.

The Rangers snapped a 2-2 tie in the fifth when Curtis Wilkerson singled leading off and O'Brien walked. Both runners advanced on a wild pitch, and Wilkerson scored on Darrell Porter's single. With runners on first and third and none out, Clemens struck out Ruben Sierra, Geno Petralli and Tom Paciorek.

In the bottom of the first, Wilkerson singled with one out and went to second on a single by O'Brien. Porter walked to load the bases and Wilkerson scored on Sierra's fielder's choice.

The Red Sox got a break on the play when Porter, originally called safe at second, overslid the bag and was tagged out.

The Red Sox tied the score in the third when Dave Henderson drew a leadoff walk, stole second, advanced to third on a passed ball and scored on Wade Boggs' single to left.

Texas took a 2-1 lead in the bottom of the third. Wilkerson struck out leading off but made it to first when Red Sox catcher Danny Sheaffer couldn't hold the third strike.

O'Brien doubled Wilkerson to third, and after Porter struck out, Sierra got his second RBI of the game with a single to deep second.

But the Red Sox tied it 2-2 in the fourth. Henderson doubled to left leading off, went to third on a groundout and scored on Boggs' sacrifice fly to left.

Evert stuns Navratilova in tourney

HOUSTON (AP) — Third-seeded Chris Evert upset top-seeded Martina Navratilova 3-6, 6-1, 7-6 (7-4) Sunday for the championship of the $150,000 Virginia Slims of Houston Women's Tennis Tournament at Lakeside Racquet and Athletic Club.

The victory was Evert's 150th career tournament title and her 34th win over Navratilova in the 71 meetings between the two. Evert, ranked No. 4 in the world, received a check for $30,000 for winning the tournament, which she previously had won three times, including last year.

The match came down to a third-set tie-breaker in which Navratilova committed three errors and Evert passed Navratilova with a forehand down the line and two perfect lobs.

At double-match point, Evert clinched the victory with a drop volley.

Evert had not beaten Navratilova since the final of the French Open in 1986.

Evert played near-flawless tennis, with a consistent baseline game.

Navratilova coasted to a 6-2 first set edge, breaking Evert's serve in games one, seven and nine.

But Evert broke Navratilova to take a 1-0 lead in the second set. After Navratilova broke back to tie the set 1-1, she didn't win another game throughout the set.

"Chris started playing better," Navratilova said. "She wasn't making any unforced errors. Something made me lose my concentration at 2-1, and when I was down 3-1, I thought: 'It's a long way back unless Chris hands me something on a silver platter.'"

Chris didn't, taking the second set 6-1.

Tied 1-set apiece, both players won their serve through the first eight games. Then, Navratilova broke Evert's serve on the strength of a passing shot to take a 5-4 lead.

"I thought my chances (of winning) were pretty slim," Evert said about trailing 5-4. "That's usually where Martina is her toughest. But I hung in there, and didn't get down on myself."

Evert broke back to tie the set 5-5, and then held serve to go ahead 6-5. Navratilova won her next service forcing the tie-breaker at 6-6.
