Texas Air official denies move to New York

HOUSTON (AP) — Some of Texas Air Corporation's top officials are planning to move from Houston to New York, the Houston Post reported Sunday.

Texas Air's top four corporate officers have bought homes in the New York area, industry sources told the newspaper.

Rick Scott, spokesman for Texas Air in Houston, denied that Texas Air plans to move to New York.

He confirmed that Robert D. Snedeker, senior vice president and treasurer, and some other officials were moving to New York.

"It makes sense to be there for what they do," Scott said, adding that Snedeker already spends a significant amount of his time in New York on company business.

Chairman Frank Lorenzo placed a bid on a home in the New York area and has enrolled his children in Connecticut schools for the upcoming year, the newspaper said.

Texas Air currently maintains offices in New York and Washington for use by company officials when they are in town, company officials said.

Man grabs trooper's gun in DPS, shoots companion, self in office

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — A man walked into a Department of Public Safety office Sunday, grabbed a trooper's gun, killed his female companion with it and then died after exchanging shots with officers, authorities said.

The man, believed to be 43 and from the Brownsville area, came into the office with a woman at about 2:45 p.m. and asked to speak to a Texas Ranger, DPS spokesman David Wells said.

While waiting in an office area, the man reached over a desk and picked up the .357 Magnum revolver belonging to veteran trooper Earl Conaway, who was filling out reports, Wells said.

"He (Conaway) had taken off his gunbelt at some point before these people showed up and it was sitting on the desk," Wells said. The man then pointed the weapon at the woman's side and started to leave.

"He started backing out of the section . . . talking very rapidly in Spanish so it was difficult to understand what he was saying," Wells said.

"He got up to the door frame and then fired a shot into this woman's body," he said. "She became limp from the shot and he tried to hold her up."

Wells said that after the man fired two more shots, a constable's office employee fired two shots at the man, who retreated into the office area.

Officers then heard another pair of shots. "One of the other troopers ran around to the outside and looked into the window and saw both people lying on the floor," Wells said.

The man was found dead in an office, while the woman was pronounced dead at 3:36 p.m. at Brooke Army Medical Center, said.

Authorities have tentatively identified the shooting victims as a band and wife from the Brown area, Wells said.

Their names were withheld Sunday night, pending confirmation of their identities and notification of next of kin.

The couple had come to the office after asking a San Antonio police officer how to contact a Texas Ranger, Wells said.

They were admitted to the office by the constable's employee he said. Conaway, 40, has been with DPS for 10 years, Wells said.
