WIMBLEDON, England (AP) — Martina Navratilova, Steffi Graf and Mats Wilander led a blitz by a host of seeded players through the first-round of the Wimbledon tennis championships Wednesday.

SMU investigating all its athletics

DALLAS (AP) — A broad investi-gation of all athletics programs at Southern Methodist University grew from the inquiry into the school's pay-for-players football scandal, its president said Wednesday.

So far, the school has found no violations of NCAA rules in any other sports on campus, but interim Presi-dent William Stallcup said appropri-ate action will be taken if any are discovered.

"This was action taken by me, in which I began in a less-methodical way in January" to look into other programs, he said. "We did have an anonymous caller who was making a number of allegations. We brought the investigators in at that time.

"In addition to investigating that aspect, we decided to broaden their (investigators') charge and they will now look at all athletics, all sports," he said.

Watson looks to end drought in Greater Hartford Open

CROMWELL, Conn. (AP) — Tom Watson barely missed his first tournament victory in three frustrating years, but his second-place finish in the U.S. Open gave him something almost as valuable.

"It gave me a lot of confi-dence," he said Wednesday as he joined the field for the $700,000 Sammy Davis Jr.-Greater Hartford Open.

Second place in the U.S. Open was Watson's best finish since the 1985 Hertz Bay Hill Classic, in which he also placed second.

"Very simply, I hadn't been playing as well as I did in the U.S. Open . . . and you might say you can take that confidence to the bank."

With Scott Simpson, the tour's leading money maker, sitting out the Greater Hartford Open, Watson has emerged as a favorite based on the near-victory.

Other notables taking a breather include Greg Norman, Larry Mize, Payne Stewart, Corey Pavin and Seve Ballesteros.

That leaves the tournament wide open for the likes of Watson and defending GHO champion

Mac O'Grady, who finished in a tie for ninth at the U.S. Open.

Others competing for the $126,000 top prize will be Paul Azinger, the tour's No. 2 money-winner, veterans Ray Floyd and Fuzzy Zoeller, John Mahaffey and West German Bernhard Lan-and west German Bermand Lan-ger, who is making his first ap-pearance in the GHO. "Guys like Watson and Langer have been really swinging well," said Hubert Green. "So I guess they might have a little better chance than some of the rest of Watson, the winner of 31 tour-naments in his 16-year career but none since the 1984 Western Open, almost passed up the GHO after his one-stroke loss to Simp-son at the U.S. Open.

In the minutes following, he said he wouldn't play in Hart-ford. But after asking his wife, Linda, and his caddy, Watson changed his mind and committed to the GHO with about five minutes to spare.

Watson said the strong showing last week would outweigh the dissapointment of not ending his three-year slump.

NEW YORK (AP) — Mike Tyson spoke up for Michael Spinks Wednesday, but he made it clear that to him Spinks is just another fighter who will have to wait his turn.

Tyson, who will be 21 June 30, apeared at a news conference to formally announce his fight against Tony Tucker Aug. 1 at the Las Ve-gas Hilton for the heavyweight titles of all three sanctioning bodies. Tyson holds the World Boxing Association and World Boxing Council titles, while Tucker is recognized as champion by the Interna-tional Boxing Federation, which stripped Spinks Feb. 26 for refusing to agree to a mandatory defense against Tucker.

Tucker virtually was ignored at the news conference. A lot of questions directed to Tyson concerned Spinks, who on June 15 stopped Gerry Cooney in the fifth round for what promoter Butch Lewis billed as being for the heavyweight championship of the world.

Tyson was asked if felt Spinks has any claim to the heavyweight title. "I can't say no, because he believes

he is, and there are people out there
