Edberg crushes Krishnan to move into U.S. Open semis

NEW YORK (AP) — Second-seeded Stefan Edberg used a blistering serve-and-volley attack to overpower unseeded Ramesh Krishnan 2-6, 6-2, 6-2 Thursday and move into the semifinals of the U.S. Open tennis championships for the second straight year.

Krishnan's finesse game was no match for Edberg's assault.

"Right from the beginning, he was it over me," said Krishnan, the last seeded player left in singles play.

"We were always fighting it out on my serve. I thought I was very well prepared. I played the way I wanted, but I thought he was a little bit quicker on the court."

Edberg needed five sets to beat Krishnan in the third round at last year's Open.

"I think I've improved as a player since then," the 21-year-old Swede said. "I started off very well today. I didn't give him anything."

The highlight of the match was the 24-minute, 38-point third game of the second set. Krishnan had seven game points, but Edberg ended up winning the game to take a 3-0 lead.

Krishnan, ranked 42nd in the world, said he was pleased with his showing in the tournament.

"Even today I felt I was well prepared," the 26-year-old Indian said. "I just got outplayed."

Edberg, who lost to Ivan Lendl in last year's semifinals, will play the winner of Thursday night's Miloslav Mecir-Mats Wilander match on Saturday.

Mecir, the No. 5 seed, holds a 4-3 lifetime edge over Edberg.

"I lost to him at Key Biscayne, but I beat him three times in a row before that," Edberg said. "So I know how to beat him."

Wilander, seeded third, has beaten Edberg six times in 10 meetings.

"Mats is playing very well from the back of the court," Edberg said. "I have to play him the same way as Mecir — serve well and attack."

In the other men's semifinal Saturday, top-seeded Lendl meets No. 6 Jimmy Connors.

Lendl, who is seeking his third consecutive Open title, beat John McEnroe in straight sets Wednesday night to move within one victory of his sixth straight Open final.

Lendl leads his series with Connors 18-13, including 13 straight victories dating back to 1984. Lendl has beaten Connors in three semifinal matches this year, most recently at last month's Canadian Open.
