Tampa Bay rolls to win as NFL year kicks off

From The Associated Press
Steve DeBerg, who threw seven interceptions on the first week of the 1986 season, when Tampa Bay was 2-14 for the second straight year, looked like an All-Pro on opening day in the NFL Sunday.

DeBerg, who beat out No. 1 draft pick Vinny Testaverde, passed for 333 yards and a team-record five touchdowns as the Buccaneers crushed the Atlanta Falcons 48-10 in Ray Perkins' debut as Tampa Bay coach.

The Tampa Bay offense, which ranked No. 27 among the NFL's 28 teams in 1986, was virtually unstoppable in the first half when DeBerg directed scoring drives of 91, 76 and 80 yards before Rick Woods returned an interception 42 yards to set up Tampa Bay's fourth touchdown.

Redskins 34, Eagles 24
Doug Williams, replacing the injured Jay Schroeder, threw two touchdown passes to Art Monk leading Washington over Philadelphia.

Williams passed for 272 yards in his second NFL appearance since 1982, including a 39-yard TD pass to Monk on the first play of the fourth quarter to snap a 24-24 tie. Williams' other scoring pass was for 6 yards to Monk in the first quarter.

Later, Williams' 46-yard pass to Gary Clark set up a 40-yard field goal by Steve Cox with 5:20 left. He also had a 57-yard pass to Ricky Sanders to set up a 1-yard TD run by Reggie Branch in the third quarter.

Steelers 30, 49ers 17
Rookie cornerback Delton Hall put Pittsburgh in the lead with a 50-yard fumble recovery return and Mark Malone overcame a nine-of-33 passing performance against turnover-prone San Francisco.

The Steelers, coming off their first winless preseason in 22 years, took a 20-3 lead by shutting down the 49ers' running game and pressuring 49ers quarterback Joe Montana into throwing hurried incompletions. Pittsburgh forced five turnovers and converted three of them into points.

Hall, a second-round draft choice from Clemson making his first NFL start, grabbed Joe Cribbs' fumble in midair and raced untouched into the end zone with 9:03 left in the first quarter.

Patriots 28, Dolphins 21
New England scored twice within 50 seconds of the third quarter on Tony Collins' 7-yard run and Ronnie Lippett's 20-yard interception return against Miami.

Dan Marino threw three touchdown passes that gave the Dolphins a 21-14 halftime lead.

Marino went out with an apparent eye injury with 2:22 left in the game and backup quarterback Don Strock led the Dolphins to the Patriots' 3-yard line with five seconds left, but his pass into the end zone was incomplete.

With the score tied 21-21, Marino threw a short pass to Bruce Hardy, who deflected it toward Lippett. The cornerback raced untouched to his first NFL touchdown with 7:52 left in the third period.

Jets 31, Bills 28
Ken O'Brien threw two touchdown passes and former Texas A&M running back Johnny Hector ran for two scores as the New York Jets held off Buffalo.

A reshuffled Jets offensive line, after allowing three Buffalo sacks in the first half, gave O'Brien ample time to pass, and the Jets quarterback responded with a 55-yard scoring bomb to Wesley Walker and a 4-yard scoring pass to Mickey Shuler.

Saints 28, Browns 21
Bobby Hebert threw two touchdown passes to Hoby Brenner, and Bruce Clark and Brett Maxie both sacked Bernie Kosar in the end zone in the fourth quarter as New Orleans whipped Cleveland.

Dalton Hilliard ran 5 yards for a third-quarter touchdown for the Saints, and Morten Andersen kicked a clinching 39-yard field goal with 1:43 left in the game. Rueben Mayes rushed for 147 yards for New Orleans.

Kosar completed 28 of 38 passes for 314 yards and two touchdowns for Cleveland. He also ran 3 yards for a fourth-quarter score that tied the game 21-21.

Bengals 23, Colts 21
Boomer Esiason threw two touchdown passes in the first quarter and Jim Brech kicked a 20-yard field goal after a fight-marred fourth-quarter drive, helping Cincinnati beat Indianapolis.

On the first play of the final quarter, with Indianapolis leading 14-13, the Colts' Dave Ahrens was called for unnecessary roughness on a tackle of James Brooks. Players from both sides began fighting, and Indianapolis linebacker Cliff Odom and Cincinnati fullback Larry Kinnebrew were ejected.

Chiefs 20, Chargers 13
Rookie Paul Palmer returned a kickoff 95 yards late in the fourth quarter to give Kansas City its victory over San Diego.

Palmer, the Chiefs' first-round draft choice, broke free behind a block by Paul Coffman and won a foot race down the right sideline with 3:19 left in the game.

Christian Okoye, the Chiefs' second-round draft choice, ran 43 yards for a second-quarter touchdown and finished with 105 yards rushing.

Vikings 34, Lions 19
Wade Wilson, whose three interceptions put Minnesota in a 16-3 first-half hole, threw a 73-yard touchdown pass to Anthony Carter to spark a 21-point third-quarter rally against Detroit.

Carter was an even bigger culprit than Wilson on two of the interceptions, as perfect passes from Wilson went right through his hands and into the arms of Detroit defenders. Wilson, starting in place of the injured Tommy Kramer, finished with three touchdown passes.

Broncos 40, Seahawks 17
John Elway threw for 338 yards and four touchdowns, Rich Karlis kicked four field goals and Dennis Smith forced two third-quarter turnovers as Denver routed Seattle.

Elway completed 22 of 32 passes and had touchdown completions of 72 yards to Steve Sewell, 4 yards to Steve Watson, 5 yards to Orson Mobley and 59 yards to Vance Johnson as Denver scored 33 straight points after trailing 17-7 in the second quarter.

Elway was helped by a defense that forced three turnovers in a 10-minute stretch at the end of the first half and beginning of the second and had five in all. The turnovers led to 27 Denver points.

Raiders 20, Packers 0
Marcus Allen rushed for 136 yards and a touchdown on a career-high 33 carries and Vann McElroy returned an interception 35 yards for a touchdown as the Los Angeles Raiders blanked Green Bay.

The Raiders intercepted quarterback Randy Wright three times in their NFL season-opening victory over the Packers, who were bogged down by their own mistakes, including 12 penalties for 72 yards. Wright, booed by Green Bay fans, completed eight of 21 passes for 99 yards before being replaced in the fourth quarter by rookie Don Majkowski.
