Super Bowl champs of last 2 years meet

CHICAGO (AP) — The rarity of an NFL season opener between the last two Super Bowl champions will add to the extravaganza Monday night when the New York Giants meet the Chicago Bears.

One change finds veteran Gary Fencik in a backup role, with Todd Bell teaming at safety with Dave Duerson.

A crowd of more than 66,000 will jam Soldier Field, while the game is expected to attract the largest television audience in Monday night football history.

The Bears' defense will have to contain a Giants' offense led by quarterback Phil Simms, running back Joe Morris and tight end Mark Bavaro. Simms was voted the Super Bowl's Most Valuable Player after completing 22 of 25 passes for 268 yards and three touchdowns against the Broncos.

"I doubt if the game will be as good as the hype," Bears Coach Mike Ditka said.

"I hope we don't have to ask Phil Simms to carry the load," Parcells said. "If we don't do a little something about running the ball, we're not going to win. I'm concerned."

Two years ago, the Bears defeated the Giants 21-0 in the playoffs and went on to capture the Super Bowl with a 46-10 drubbing of the New England Patriots.

Simms agreed and said the running game "is the hardest thing to put together. The passing game sometimes can work with a mistake. But in the running game, a lot of things have to be good before you can get it done."

The Giants extended their winning streak to 12 games last season with a 39-20 triumph over the Denver Broncos in the Super Bowl.

The big question surrounding the Bears is the quarterback position. Jim McMahon is out for at least six weeks, if not the season, because his surgically repaired shoulder has been slow to heal.

The only other time successive Super Bowl champions have met in a season-opener was in 1982 when the Los Angeles Raiders defeated the defending champion San Francisco 49ers 23-17.

Mike Tomczak will be the quarterback. Ditka said he is "not worried about Tomczak. He'll do a good job."

The game will feature two of the toughest defenses in the league. The Bears will be aiming for an unprecedented fourth straight NFL defensive title. They set an NFL record by allowing only 187 points for a 16-game season last year.

Ditka could be more concerned about the offensive line. Center Jay Hilgenberg missed most of the pre-season because of a shoulder injury. The All-Pro will play against the Giants while wearing a harness. Tackle Jim Covert also has been bothered with shoulder problems.

The Bears also are trying to become the first team to lead the league in rushing five straight years, and that worries Giants Coach Bill Parcells.

Walter Payton, the NFL's all-time rushing leader with 16,193 yards, will lead the Bears' offense. But Neal Anderson will start at fullback instead of Matt Suhey, a move which will add speed to the attack.

Parcells said he sees little difference between the Bears' 1985 defense directed by Buddy Ryan and the current unit under coordinator Vince Tobin.

UH off to shaky start, loses to Cowboys 35-0

HOUSTON (AP) — The Houston Cougars didn't intend for their new run-and-shoot offense to sputter in its debut or for their defense to give up the big play.

Ware completed five of eight passes for 78 yards. Starter David Dacus hit seven of 18 for 62 yards but had two interceptions, one returned for a touchdown. Ed Powers hit two of eight passes for 10 yards.

But both happened Saturday as the Oklahoma State Cowboys beat Houston 35-0, marking the Cougars' first shutout loss in the Astrodome since 1965, a string that included 121 games.

The defense, which was supposed to be the team's backbone, couldn't contain Thomas, who rushed 111 yards on 21 carries, and Gundy, who hit 14 of 27 passes for 162 yards.

Houston linebacker Gary McGuire said, "Going into the game, we were just trying to avoid the big play and what we didn't want to happen, happened.

"Thomas opened it up," McGuire said. "He just stopped us. We are not going to have any excuses this year. There's no doubt we have got a lot of work to do and a lot to prove."

OSU tailback Thurman Thomas ran 49 yards in the first quarter. After taking a 14-0 halftime lead, the Cowboys scored 21 points over a 5:04 span, beginning late in the third quarter.

Houston's defense did stop the Cowboys at their one yard line in the first quarter and punter Simon Rodriguez helped the Cougars with 56 and 54-yard punts.

Barry Sanders returned a punt 68 yards, Rod Smith ran back a Dacus interception 41 yards in the third quarter and quarterback Mike Gundy ran one yard early in the fourth quarter to complete the rout.

"We decided we could have put them away in the first half but didn't," Thomas said. "We had to have a big play in the second half."

Houston Coach Jack Pardee, in his first game as head coach, used three quarterbacks without much success in trying to get the pass-oriented offense off the ground.

"When Sanders broke the punt return, that was it. We never looked back."

Freshman Andre Ware had marginal success in the fourth quarter, driving the Cougars to their deepest penetration, the Cowboy 12-yard line.

"The receivers we have are tall and have good speed," Gundy said. "They can get open and they know when I'm scrambling, when to come back to me."

"There were some good points, like the guys were open all day, but we have to work real hard in the week we have off," Ware said.

Oklahoma State, 2-0, plays at Wyoming on Saturday. The Cougars have the week off.

UT victimized by turnovers as BYU deals Horns 2nd loss

AUSTIN (AP) — Quarterback Bob Jensen threw for two touchdowns and took advantage of eight Texas turnovers as Brigham Young defeated the Longhorns 22-17 Saturday night in non-conference college football.

ord in the first quarter, but two of the turnovers in the second quarter led to Jensen scoring tosses of 21 yards to David Miles and 27 yards to Chuck Cutler.

BYU is now 1-1 on the year, while Texas falls to 0-2.

Texas narrowed the gap to 14-10 when Wayne Clements hit a 46-yard field goal to end the first half.

The Brigham Young defense grabbed four interceptions — two by defensive back Rodney Rice — and four fumbles.

Stafford, however, was sacked twice in the early moments of the second half, forcing the Longhorns back from their own 20. Then Alex Waits' punt was blocked by Brigham Young linebacker Richard Hobbs for a safety to make it 16-10.

Texas opened the scoring on a 1-yard run by quarterback Bret Stafford

Texas Tech survives scare, defeats Colorado St. 33-24

LUBBOCK (AP) — Texas Tech's James Gray rushed for 150 yards, Ervin Farris ran for two touchdowns and Scott Segrist kicked two field goals to carry the Red Raiders to a wild 33-24 non-conference victory over Colorado State Saturday night.

knockout punch with 1:23 to go on a 32-yard scoring pass from Scott Tooman to Wayne Walker.

It was Spike Dykes' first victory as head coach of the Red Raiders after three tries.

Texas Tech, 1-1, built a 19-10 lead in the third quarter on Farris' 39-yard touchdown run and Segrist' 20-yard field goal.

Colorado State, 0-2, made Tech sweat to the final gun as Sanjay Beach returned a kickoff 99 yards for a touchdown after the Raiders took a 26-17 lead on Gray's 2-yard touchdown run with 5:58 to play.

Segrist kicked a career-long 52-yard field goal, and the Red Raiders rolled 62 yards on seven plays for a 10-0 halftime lead on Farris' 3-yard scoring run.

The Raiders finally delivered the
