Body of missing clerk found behind house

SULPHUR SPRINGS (AP) — The body of a motel clerk who had been discovered missing from her overnight job at 5:15 a.m. Sunday was found about four hours later behind a vacant house in this Northeast Texas town, authorities said.

Rena Lyne White, 36, apparently died from a single gunshot wound to the head, Police Chief Donnie Lewis said.

White was a clerk at the Best Western Motel, where $400 was also reported missing, the chief added.

Sulphur Springs is a town of 13,000, about 90 miles northeast of Dallas.

Shortly before 9:30 a.m., a woman moving belongings out of a vacant house discovered White's body in the back yard, Lewis said.

Lewis said authorities had few clues. Investigators are looking into similarities between the crime and last month's abduction and slaying of a convenience store clerk who also had an overnight job and disappeared on a Sunday, Lewis said.

On Aug. 2, Diana Havner, 38, disappeared from her job at a convenience store near state 30. Her body was found the following day in a wooded area nearby.

An autopsy revealed she died from two blows to the head.

In each case, the killer chose places women worked alone. Neither established an alarm system. There was no sign of a suspect in either case, the chief said.

Authorities said it is hoped an autopsy of White's body will yield information not available from the decomposed body of Havner.
