If only typewriters let you proofread your work before they printed it on the page.

What a mess!
You've just proofread your term paper and it's got typos, spelling errors and misplaced paragraphs.
Now, you can't hand in a paper like this. So no matter how tired you are, you've got to retype the entire thing.

That is, unless you typed it on a Videowriter.®

The Videowriter solves all your typing problems.

Take the most obvious one: typos.

On an ordinary typewriter it would mean a bottle of white-out and a frustrating interruption.

On a Videowriter it just means pressing the key marked "delete." That's all. Because you type your work on a screen before you print it on a page.

It edits.

And how about those bigger problems like wanting to rearrange paragraphs?

On an ordinary typewriter you have to "cut and paste" them.

On a Videowriter you only have to press the key marked "move" and then indicate the area you want it moved to. It's that simple.

It spells.

What happens when you're typing and you come to a word you can't spell?

On an ordinary typewriter you have to stop typing, find a dictionary and look it up.

Not so on a Videowriter. Spelling problems can be corrected simply by pressing the key marked "spell."

It counts words.

If you've ever had a teacher tell you to write a thousand word essay, you know what a pain it is trying to count your words.

On an ordinary typewriter you have to do it with your finger.

But on a Videowriter you can press a mere two buttons and it does the counting for you.

It makes multiple copies.

From time to time you want a copy of what you've typed, right?

Well, if you use a Videowriter you won't have to go to the school library to look for a copier machine.

All you'll have to look for is the button marked "print." Press it and the Videowriter will make another original.

And because your work is automatically stored on a standard 3 1/2" floppy disk, you can make those copies whenever you want.

It obviously does a lot more than type.

That's because the word processing features just go on and on.

What's more, we sell the Videowriter® Word Processor for around the price of a good electronic typewriter.

And that's quite a bargain when you consider the amount of time it'll save you. Time you can spend doing the work for your other classes.

You would do that, wouldn't you?

Ags back in AP poll after beating Huskies

From The Associated Press
Oklahoma, Nebraska, Auburn and LSU — the first three idle last weekend — held onto the top four spots in the Associated Press college football poll Monday while Miami and Florida State inched ahead of Ohio State, which slipped from fifth place to seventh.

Michigan State and Pitt fell out of the Top Twenty after two-week stays while Texas A&M and Iowa moved back into the rankings for the first time since the preseason poll.

Oklahoma, which returns to action on Saturday at Tulsa, received 53 of 60 first-place votes and 1,193 of a possible 1,200 votes from a nationwide panel of sports writers and broadcasters.

Nebraska, which visits 12th-ranked Arizona State on Saturday, received the other seven first-place votes and 1,129 points.

Auburn, with a road game against Tennessee coming up, received 1,028 points. All three teams have 2-0 records.

LSU, 3-0 following a 49-16 victory over Rice, remained No. 4 with 995 points.

Miami has been idle for two weeks — the Hurricanes meet 10th-ranked Arkansas in Little Rock on Saturday — but jumped from sixth place to fifth with 888 points. Florida State, a 41-24 winner over Memphis, climbed from seventh to eighth with 869 points.

Ohio State's shaky 24-14 loss over Oregon cost the Buckeyes spots in the rankings, dropping them from fifth to seventh with 869 points. Ohio State visits LSU Saturday.

Notre Dame's impressive rout of Michigan State in the Fighting Irish from ninth to 12th with 788 points, while Georgia which needed a last-second goal to nip Georgia Tech 21-20 from eighth to ninth with 788 points.

Arkansas' 30-15 victory over Tulsa boosted the Razorbacks 12th to 10th with 643 points.

The Second Ten consists of Tennessee, Arizona State, UCLA, Oregon, Penn State, Texas A&M, Alabama, Washington, Iowa and Georgia.

Last week, it was Alabama, Texas A&M, UCLA, Tennessee, Texas State, Pitt, Michigan State, Georgia, Michigan and Penn State.

Texas A&M returned to the top 10 by defeating Washington and Iowa made it back by beating Iowa State 48-9 for its 11th straight victory after an 11-0 game loss to Tennessee in the off Class.

Glanville says Kelly's tenacity led to Bills' win

HOUSTON (AP) — The Houston Oilers' own mistakes and the tenacity of Buffalo quarterback Jim Kelly were major factors in the Bills' 34-30 last minute victory, Oiler Coach Jerry Glanville said Monday.

Glanville also started making plans to continue the season if the NFL players union went on strike.

"The only thing I hope is that each player honors the individual choices of their teammates," Glanville said. "I don't think you should judge another man on what he chooses to do."

A player strike would mean going back to basics with new players, Glanville said.

"It would be like going back to San Angelo (preseason training site) and teaching what we do all over again."

Glanville preferred talking about Sunday's game, despite the outcome.

"We had our chances to win the game and didn't, that's what's most disappointing," Glanville said. "We played some good football but we had too many mistakes."

The Oilers built a 30-20 lead with 4:58 to play but Kelly put together scoring drives of 54 and 80 yards to beat the Oilers on a 2-yard touchdown pass to Ronnie Harmon with 54 seconds left in the game.

"As much as he was sacked, hit and run over, he just kept on coming back and playing," Glanville said of Kelly. "Most quarterbacks have been pretty well gunned in the fourth quarter."

The Oilers had hoped to come home with a 2-0 record but their impressive season-opening victory over the Los Angeles Raiders in the overtime game to beat Los Angeles.

"Now we know how LA felt," Glanville said.

The Oilers were penalized 113 yards.

"Making penalties like we're making would make it hard to win a game," Glanville said. "When you're low on time to keep the ball in the end zone, it's tough."

Oiler cornerback Patrick Allen said the defense had regressed.

"Today, we looked like we were going to be a good team at winning on the road, we've got these stupid mistakes out."

The loss extended Houston's miseries. They now have lost their last 43 road games dating to the 1981 season.

The loss overshadowed the Oilers' back Mike Rozier's NFL career-high 29 yards rushing on 29 carries.

"One thing Rozier proved to me he will compete on Sunday," Glanville said. "He played really well so did the offensive line."

Landry: Cowboy facilities will remain open to players

IRVING (AP) — Dallas Cowboys Coach Tom Landry said on the eve of a strike by the National Football League Players Association that the club's Valley Ranch practice facility will be open at 2 p.m. on Tuesday for professional football players.

"The door is open tomorrow if a strike is called for anyone who wants to play football," Landry said on Monday.

"The players have to make their own decisions. I hope they respect each other," Landry said. "In any (strike) situation, you have a number of players who don't want to go on strike. There are always some hard feelings."

Cowboys' players who have yet to announce whether they would strike include quarterback Danny White, defensive tackle Randy White, and middle linebacker Eugene Lockhart. Landry said he could field a team in three or four days if he had to do so with players the Cowboys have signed in the event of a strike.

"We scrimmage the rookies after three days in training camp," Landry said. "It would be just like rookie camp all over again, working with somebody at the practice field on Wednesday."

The Cowboys said they were giving physicals on Tuesday at Valley Ranch.

Landry said the Cowboys were looking for training camp to start on Tuesday.

"We want players who know our system," Landry said. "We were scrimmaging with the Los Angeles Raiders after the training camp. It would be a problem playing a game in a training camp. He thought it would be done so long as it didn't last more than two weeks."

"If it doesn't last past two weeks, you can recover quickly," Landry said. "The last strike (in 1985) was too long (57 days). Teams suffered and hard feelings lingered."

"I have sort of mixed feelings about it," Landry said. "But I've never to get frustrated over that are out of my control. I don't have anything to do with the negotiations. This is between the players and management."
