Volleyballers regain winning ways

By Tom Mulos
Reporter

The Texas A&M volleyball team changed its losing ways over the weekend by going undefeated in three matches to win the Texas Aggie Classic at G. Rollie White Coliseum.

The other schools in the four-team tournament were Oral Roberts, Texas-San Antonio and Southwest Texas State.

"It is definitely long overdue," A&M Coach Al Givens said. "Southwest Texas is as good as anyone who was here at last weekend's tournament."

"After placing third in the Texas A&M Invitational and losing a five-game match to Rice on Wednesday, I think the girls had a different attitude going into this tournament. Now, maybe we can get down to business."

In each of A&M's three matches, the Aggies' only real trouble came in the third game. Twice, they lost the third game and in the other, they won by two points.

The Lady Aggies, 8-12 on the season, defeated ORU on Friday, 15-5, 15-12, 9-15 and 15-11, with the help of all-tournament team members

Kelli Kellen and Yvonne Van Brandt. Kellen had an attack percentage of .588 and Van Brandt added a setting percentage of .491.

On Saturday morning, A&M defeated UTSA, 15-8, 15-5 and 15-13 in its only three game sweep of the tournament.

"The last tournament, combined with the loss to Rice really tired us," Givens said. "It showed that the team had confidence in the way they came back in the fourth games, though."

Saturday evening, SWTSU, which defeated A&M in three games earlier in the season, came into the final match also undefeated after two games.

But this time the outcome was different.

A&M took the first two games, 15-12 and 15-7. In the third game, A&M had come back to tie the game at 11, but three straight service errors gave the Bobcats their only game of the match, 11-15. A&M won the fourth game, 15-8, to hand the Bobcats second place in the tournament. UTSA finished third.

"A&M deserved to win," Bobcat Coach Karen Chisum said. "We knew that after we had beaten them earlier in the season, they would be gunning for us. Neither team served well. Both teams were sluggish, but the difference was our back line..."

Along with Kellen and Van Brandt, Lady Aggie Vivian Viera also was named to the all-tournament team as well as ORU's Kristen Dorsey, UTSA's Stacey Rose and SWTSU's Christine Lange and Darbie Bruning, the tournament's most valuable player.

Texas A&M's Kelli Kellen smashes a return against Oral Roberts University Friday night during the Aggies' four-game win in the Texas Aggie Invitational Tournament. The Lady Aggies won all of their matches to claim the tournament title.

Oilers romp to one-sided win over Broncos

DENVER (AP) — A crowd of more than 38,000 dwindled to a few thousand in the second half as Houston quarterback Brent Pease directed a surprisingly polished offense, leading the Oilers' replacement team to a 40-10 rout of the Denver Broncos on Sunday.

More than 300 picketers, including about 20 striking Broncos, demonstrated outside the stadium prior to kickoff. The strikers yelled insults at the replacement players as they arrived for the game, but except for a few heated arguments between strikers and fans, there were no incidents.

Four Broncos who crossed the picket line last week played in the game - compared with just one Oiler - but the Broncos were no match for Pease and Co.

Pease, a late cut of the Minnesota Vikings, ran 1 yard to cap a 50-yard drive and give Houston its first score midway through the opening quarter.

Pease's 24-yard pass to Keith McDonald set up the first of four field goals by John Diettrich in the second quarter.

The Oilers led 17-10 at the half and, after a Diettrich field goal in the third period, portly linebacker Eugene Seale picked off a pass from Ken Karcher and lumbered 73 yards for a score and a 27-10 lead.

Pease hit tight end Mark Gehring on a 31-yard scoring play on the first play of the final quarter to put the Oilers up 34-10.

Denver's lone scores came in the second quarter — on a 28-yard field goal by Mike Clendenen and Karcher's 21-yard TD pass to Rick Mast.

It was the most one-sided victory on the road for the Oilers since 1975, and it raised their record in the strike-marred season to 2-1. Denver fell to 1-1-1.

Fans who showed up for the game passed picket holders, who were, for the most part, non-threatening, and they cheered lustily during the first half. Their enthusiasm began to dwindle, however, as the Oilers scored on their first possession of the second half and as Seale put the game away with his long interception return.
