

OPEN HOUSE & TOURS

of the newly renovated

Michel T. Halbouty Geosciences Building

Saturday, October 10, 1987 11:00 A.M. to 1:00 P.M. before the Univ. of Houston Game

Sponsored by: Department of Geology Page 4/The Battalion/Thursday, October 8, 1987

Illegal aliens sue attorney for false acts

SAN ANTONIO (AP) - A prominent immigration attorney has been named in a $1 million lawsuit that he jeopardized the residency status of nine illegal aliens who paid him, but never received help, another attorney charged Wednesday. Ruben Montemayor, 58, a certi-fied immigration law specialist and attorney since 1961, is accused of engaging in false, misleading and deceptive acts in violation of the Texas Deceptive Trade Practices-Consumer Protection Act.

Attorney Pete Torres, who filed the suit on behalf of the nine plain-tiffs, said Wednesday that Monte-mayor took $1,500 from the nine but news represented them but never represented them.

Torres said four of the nine were deported, but have returned to the United States and their eligibility status now may be in question. Montemayor contends that his former clients misunderstood what he agreed to do. Montemayor is a former U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service examiner and a former member of Texas Board of Corrections. He also was recommended to President Jimmy Carter in 1979 by Sen. Lloyd Bentsen, D-Texas, as an immigration commissioner.

The suit, filed Sept. 25, accuses Montemayor of "unconscionable actions.

Montemayor said he began representing the nine clients on immigration matters between 1981 and 1983.

Like other immigration clients, the nine received a form letter stating Montemayor would represent them in the event they were arrested as illegal immigrants.

Montemayor said he had processed about 60 cases, but the nine were not among those because they never came back to him once the new immigration law was passed last

The new law allows illegal aliens in the country before Jan. 1, 1982, the opportunity to apply for resi-dency if they have the proper documentation

.. = Rain 99 = Drizzle A = Ice Pellets = Rain Shower = Freezing Rain

Valid: Noon today

Sunset Today: 7:01 p.m.

Sunrise Friday: 7:23 a.m.

Map Discussion: Rain showers will be scattered from the lower Great Lakes and upper Ohio Valley to New Jersey and New England. Most sunny skies will prevail across the rest of the nation. Widely scattered rain showers will accompany the low pressure system over southwester Minnesota and the associated frontal systems.

Forecast:

Today: Sunny and warm with a high temperature of 86 degrees and winds east-southeasterly at 7 to 12 mph.

Tonight: Clear and mild with a low temperature of 57 degrees and southeasterly winds at 3 to 7 mph.

Friday: Fair to partly cloudy and warmer with a high temperature of 8 degrees and winds south-southeasterly near 10 mph.

Weather Fact: Isobar: A line of equal or constant pressure; an isopleth of pressure, it most often refers to a line drawn through all points of equal mean-sea-level pressure on surface charts. The values are in unit and tens of millibars. For example, the "24" isobar around the high over Georgia on today's map represents the 1024.0 millibar meanse level isopleth.

> Prepared by: Charlie Brenton Staff Meteorologist A&M Department of Met

Nar

JESDA

IRPD

TIME

Wald

oe l

I REAL

M

A bill t

nmittee

tudent A&M Boa

ented to ednesday

The bill

its' conc ortunity

e preser

ugh the

exc

esti

ALLAS

e the

eputy C ment. paration ons to c It'll be ju law, wh

demean edestria

State Fair to feature exhibit cre from Sea World, acrobats

DALLAS (AP) — The 101st State Fair of Texas opens Friday with a splashy Sea World exhibit, pefor-mances of "South Pacific" and the return of a popular Chinese acrobatic troupe.

With its Texas-shaped swimming pool, Sea World sets a nautical theme for this year's fair, enhanced by the national touring company production of Rodgers and Hammerstein's "South Pacific." The musical, starring Robert Goulet, opens Tuesday in Fair Park Music Hall.

"The biggest new attraction is a

"We expect somewhere between 2.5 million to 2.9 million people this year," he said, noting that weekday admission prices have been reduced $1 to attract more fair-goers. Admission is $3 for adults and $1 for children Monday through Friday. Senior citizens get in free on Tuesdays. Saturday and Sunday admissions are $5 and $3, he said. The Chinese acrobats were a favorite among the record crowds at last year's fair. So this year, the Shanghai Acrobatic Troupe, the top-ranked acrobats from the People's Republic of China, will perform erally cut down on the opportun for crime to be committed. Eight more officers will be added to the larger force that made the So quicentennial fair one of the safest years, Schifelbein said.

en assign Last year an extra 65 officers wet mmittee put on the fair patrol after a surged crime at the 1985 fair, he said. Me peaker of robably w ported crime dropped from 227 d nate for fenses - including two murder Hays said three rapes - two years ago to 16 Ill serve a offenses - no rapes or slavings-1 nts and t 1986. Capt. Dwight Walker, whoisher able studer

Department of Geophysics

See the restored exterior, main lecture hall and lobby along with the totally renovated remainder of the building.

huge exhibit from Sea World," Wayne Gallagher, the fair's executive director, said. "It's a major exhibit from its new park in San Antonio, which opens next year." Sea World will have its own maritime musical centered around its Texas pool, complete with dancing water and prancing performers be-fore a backdrop of the Alamo.

Attendance at this year's fair is expected to be about 1 million less than last year, which was Texas' long-running Sesquicentennial fair, drawing 3.9 million people, the largest ever, Gallagher said.

But the Sesquicentennial edition had a 31-day run, compared to this year's 17-day fair, Gallagher said.

daily in a specially made tent seating 2,000 - twice the capacity of last year, Gallagher said.

The fair, which continues through Oct. 25, also features the Texas-Oklahoma football classic this Saturday; the annual high school band Parade of Champions; the traditional slate of concerts, exhibits, parades, livestock and farm animals; and the Midway with the Texas Star ferris wheel. Daily attendance averaged 140,000 people last year, but only six fairgoers were victims of crime on a given day, Dallas police said.

"For 31 days, Fair Park was the safest place in Dallas," Deputy Police Chief R.L. Schifelbein said. "We lit-ing Schifelbein coordinate state security, said, "Last year show what we could do if we have enough resources.'

This year, 106 uniformed offer will patrol the fairgrounds while officers will be assigned to the p meter of Fair Park, police said Six community service office also will be working near fairgrounds to ensure that pro-parking lots charge no more the legal limit of $4.50 per day said.

"What we're going for in formed-officer visibility," in bein said. "People are going use smiling, uniformed police and just about everywhere they um.

CONOCO INC. PETROLEUM PRODUCTS, NORTH AMERICA MANAGEMENT DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM

All December and May Graduates of the COLLEGE OF BUSINESS

are invited to attend a presentation/reception on career opportunities with PP,NA

> OCTOBER 8, 1987 DATE:

6:00 - 8:00 P.M. TIME:

PLACE: 231 MEMORIAL STUDENT CENTER

Degrees Sought BS/BA/BBA - Finance, Economics, Management MBA