The Wind Dancers
 by Robert Potter

The world premiere of a provocative comedy/drama! The 16th Century California coast is the setting for this intriguing encounter between native Americans and European sailors under the command of Sir Francis Drake. Drake, his crew, his captured Spaniards, his Cimarron mistress, and the Olamentko Indians all find each other equally mysterious. This comic clash of cultures is an innovative, sometimes poignant, often disconcerting and always entertaining, perspective on the roots of much of today's cultural misunderstanding. The Aggie Players non-traditional/cross-cultural casting will accentuate the play's theme.

Please join us for this exciting world premiere!

Moon shines in Oiler comeback win

HOUSTON (AP) — Quarterback Warren Moon, Houston's player representative during the NFL strike, suffered the brunt of criticism during the walkout and in pre-game introductions Sunday.

Moon was booed by the hometown crowd when he was introduced with the starting lineup. He was booed again when he threw an interception on his third pass of the game.

But that was all forgotten and forgiven in the final seconds of the fourth quarter, when Moon completed a 14-yard touchdown pass to Curtis Duncan with 27 seconds left, rallying the Oilers to a 37-33 victory over Atlanta.

"My personal confidence goes with the team," Moon said. "If they believe in me and fight for me, I'm willing to fight for them."

"Nobody likes to be booed but that doesn't bother me as much as if the team doesn't have confidence in me."

"I'm the guy that's going to lead this team in the playoffs whether people like me or not."

Houston Coach Jerry Glanville said the victory was a reflection of the team's efforts to heal strike wounds.

"Everybody went out of their way during the week to shake a hand and to resolve differences," Glanville said. "The win was just icing on the cake."

Duncan called his two-touchdown performance the ultimate of his career.

"I didn't realize I was that open (on winning touchdown), it seemed like the ball was in the air two to three minutes. This is by far my biggest thrill in football," he said.

Oilers guard Mike Munchak said the team was behind Moon.

"Warren did an excellent job because we had a lot of bad field position and he marched us everytime we needed it," Munchak said.

The game was tied six times, but Moon and the Oilers kept coming back. Moon had three touchdown passes and combined with Mike Rozier on a fourth touchdown.

Tony Zendejas kicked field goals of 31, 43 and 24 yards to help offset a four-field goal show by Atlanta's Mick Luckhurst. Luckhurst had kicks of 39, 37, 45 and 18.

Atlanta's Scott Campbell completed 14 of 26 passes for 187 yards and had one intercepted.

"A quarterback can't play without confidence," Campbell said. "I don't know where I stand ability-wise, but I try to be cool and believe that I can put the ball where I want it."

Luckhurst's 45-yarder with 6:45 to go tied the game, and his 18-yarder with 2:24 to go gave the Falcons their final lead, 33-30.

"We fought hard all day but it boils down to opportunities we didn't take advantage of," Atlanta Coach Marion Campbell said. "They took advantage of their's and we didn't."

The game drew a crowd of 29,062, with 4,825 non-students at the AstroDome and 4,000 in attendance for the home game against the Rams, the Oilers here before the strike.

Atlanta's Billy "White" Johnson set up Luckhurst's ahead field goal with a 45-yard pass to tight end Mike Bly.

Then Moon hit Drew Hill with a 29-yarder to set up Duncan's touchdown catch of the game.

Moon had completed 15 of 15 passes in the second half and thrown two interceptions in his game-winner.

Moon hit Givins with a 29-yard touchdown pass, rushed for a 14-yard touchdown run, and kicked a 24-yard field goal to lead Houston 30-27.

Eagles gain revenge with win over Cowboy

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The regular Eagles' first game since the 24-day players strike could not have ended better if Buddy Ryan had planned it.

Ryan's Philadelphia Eagles scored a touchdown on the last play of the game in beating the Dallas Cowboys 37-20 Sunday.

"That last touchdown was very satisfying," Ryan said.

Ryan was enraged two weeks ago when Coach Tom Landry ended an Eagle threat to score a meaningless touchdown by sending in veterans who had crossed the picket line.

"I told you — what goes around comes around," Ryan said, echoing the statement he made two weeks ago.

The Eagles led 30-20 with one second on the clock and Philadelphia at the Dallas 1-yard line when Keith Byars, starting for the first time since he broke his left foot in a May minicamp, scored as time ran out.

"I had it planned that way all along," said Ryan.

The reaction in the Dallas dressing room was quick.

"That's the pathetic ramblings of a pathetic, senile old man. They only did it to pacify Ryan's over-inflated ego," said Linebacker Steve DeOssie.

The Eagles had dedicated the game to Ryan for his support of their one-for-all, all-for-one stance during the NFL strike.

Ryan defied club owner Norman Braman in urging the Eagles to act as a unit, whether they stayed out or crossed the picket line.

His stand prompted Braman to characterize the coach with an unprintable word and to criticize Ryan's distaste for the strike games.

Defensive end Clyde Simmons triggered the Eagles to their early lead. He recovered a fumble and blocked a field-goal attempt to set up 10 points. Simmons also had 2½ sacks.

"There is no question about it, this was a great win for our program. We needed something like this to get over the hump," Ryan said.

The Eagles also were keyed by Randall Cunningham's two TD passes to John Spagnola and Byars' 94 yards on 20 carries.

The Eagles, left in a 1-4 hole by their replacements' three losses, boosted their record to 2-4. Dallas, which accumulated a 2-1 replacement record with the help of eight regulars who crossed the picket line, slipped to 3-3 overall.

The Eagles' defense recovered three fumbles, blocked a field goal and sacked quarterback Danny White five times. Two of the fumbles led to field goals and the blocked kick to a touchdown.

Philadelphia snapped a 13-13 tie with 5:21 left in the third period on a nine-play, 75-yard drive capped by Anthony Toney's 1-yard touchdown sweep. The drive was keyed by Keith Byars' 34 yards rushing on three plays and a 29-yard pass from Cunningham to Mike Quick.

The Cowboys' Roger Ruzek kicked a 23-yard field goal and the Eagles' Paul McFadden a 26-yarder to leave the score tied 3-3 after one quarter.

Philadelphia went ahead 6-3 on McFadden's 45-yard field goal in the second period after Simmons recovered a Dallas fumble at the Cowboys' 22.

The Eagles boosted their record to 13-3 on a 10-yard touchdown pass from Cunningham to Spagnola. The score was set up when Byars blocked Ruzek's 49-yard field goal attempt.

Dallas closed to 13-10 on Herschel Walker's 100-yard touchdown plunge.

Dallas tied the game at 10-10 on field goal by Ruzek 48:10 in the third period. Toney's 14th then sent the Eagles ahead.

The Eagles took a 29-10 lead into the fourth period on den's 21-yard field goal.

Philadelphia made it 30-19 yard pass from Cunningham to Spagnola with 8:17 remaining in the final quarter.

Dallas scored its final touchdown on a six-play, 51-yard drive. The 2:58 left in the game. Mike 19 yards to Tony Dorsett touchdown.

For the last touchdown, Philadelphia moved 36 yards and benefited from a 15-yard interference penalty that was on the 1.
