Oilers, Moon use Bengal miscues in 31-29 conference comeback

Moon's quarterback sneak touchdown with 55 seconds remaining completed a 17-point Houston rally in the closing minutes that gave the Oilers a 31-29 National Football League victory Sunday over the Cincinnati Bengals.

The Bengals, 2-5, have lost their last three non-strike games in the closing minutes. They doomed themselves Sunday with a kickoff fumble and a shanked punt that set up Houston's final two touchdowns.

Tony Zendejas kicked a 47-yard field goal to cut Cincinnati's lead to 29-17 with 5:38 to play, and Houston recovered a fumble on the ensuing kickoff to set up Spencer Till-man's 1-yard touchdown run.

The Oilers then stopped Cincinnati and forced a punt by rookie Greg Horne that went straight up in the air and traveled 19 yards to the Six plays later, Moon snuck the fi-nal inches for the winning touch-down, giving the 5-2 Oilers their first victory at Riverfront Stadium since 1980. Houston is off to its best start since 1980, the last year it won the American Football Conference

CINCINNATI (AP) - Warren Central Division and went to the

A stunned crowd of 52,700 booed loudly when Boomer Esiason threw his second interception to end Cincinnati's hopes in the final seconds.

The Bengals lost their last pre-strike game to San Francisco by failing to run out the clock, then stumbled last week in Pittsburgh by failing to get off a potential game-tying field goal.

The outcome overshadowed a spectacular passing performance by Esiason, who completed 26 of 42 passes for two touchdowns and 387 yards. He threw a 47-yard scoring pass to Eddie Brown at the outset of the second half, and seemed to put the game out of reach with a 3-yard toss to Anthony Munoz on a tackle-eligible play with 6:41 remaining. Jim Breech kicked five field goals for Cincinnati to match the club record set by Horst Muhlmann.

A pair of Houston fumbles set up Breech's first two field goals.

The Oilers failed to cleanly cover a short, bouncing kickoff that opened the game, and Cincinnati re-covered on the Houston 34. The Bengals got a lucky break four plays later when Breech's 32-yard kick slammed off the right upright and deflected through. Moon's precise passing gave the Oilers a lead they would hold until late in the half. He completed five of seven tosses for 60 yards in the Oilers' first drive, including a 7-yard scoring pass to Jamie Williams.

A replay dispute delayed the game for several minutes and gave the Bengals possession in the second quarter. A fumble on Moon's option pitch was recovered by linebacker Reggie Williams as he slid out of bounds, but officials initially ruled that the Oilers retained possession at the Cincinnati 27. The call was overruled on review, and Cincinnati covered 59 yards in eight plays to set up Breech's 33-yard kick.

The Bengals had to settle for a 26yard field goal with seven seconds left in the half after driving to the Houston 8. With the Bengals out of time outs, Esiason threw a second-down incompletion to stop the clock and set up the go-ahead field goal as the fans booed the inability to get

Cowboys falling on trying times Pokes may be disadvantaged at home

IRVING (AP) — Ever hear of a home field disadvantage in the National Football League?

The Dallas Cowboys may be facing one on Monday night against the

New York Giants when they come back to Texas Stadium for the first time since the regulars returned from the strike.

The Cowboys are 3-3 while the defending world champion Giants are 1-5 and face what Coach Bill Parcells' calls a "must-win" situation in every game.

Parcells might feel he is playing in the Meadowlands before the eve-

The Cowboys' strike strife is well documented and there has even been recent squabbling by Herschel Walker and Tony Dorsett over who should get the ball more.

While the Giants' replacement team cratered with an 0-3 record, Dallas' collection of free agents and high draft choices captured the fans' imagination with a 2-1 mark.

Dorsett, who had called defensive tackle Randy White "Captain Scab" for crossing the picket line, was booed off the field after a 10-yard touchdown run. Quarterback Danny White was booed every time he Dallas Coach Tom Landry didn't start rookie quarterback Kevin Sweeney in the last replacement game against Washington after sparkling in two earlier victories. Then Dallas lost to the Redskins.

"The fans are supposed to be on our side," safety Bill Bates said. "If they boo us Monday night I'll be ashamed. The home field advantage is supposed to be in your favor and not against you. That just wouldn't be the city of Dallas and I can't believe the true-blue fans will boo us."

"I hope the fans have forgotten the reasons they had for booing us," said defensive end Ed Jones. "We need them in this game. You need your fans. I hope everything is back drowned out in a chorus of jeers lately as fans have fallen out of love with the Dallas Cowboys.

"I almost feel like we should move out of the city and go somewhere we are appreciated," said running back Tony Dorsett, who was booed on the field after he crossed the picket line.

A Dallas Morning News telephone poll last week showed that 57.1 percent of the 266 people polled said they liked the Cowboys less since the National Football League players' strike; 65.1 percent blamed the

About 24 percent of the respondents said they were negative toward the team before the strike.

The survey, which had a margin of error of plus or minus 6 percent-age points, also showed that Dallas' other professional teams, the basketball Mavericks and indoor soccer Sidekicks are becoming more popu-

Explanations for how the city's love for the Cowboys went on the rocks include the marketing and success of the replacement players, the change on the walkout, players' atti-tudes or players' salaries. Only 4.5 frustration with the team's showing 22 years.

In the past Dallas was proud of the Cowboys, as the team racked up five Super Bowl appearances in the 1970s and three NFC title game appearances in the early 1980s.

Team President Tex Schramm says the relationship between the team and its fans is a love affair.

If that's true, 1984 saw a trial separation when Dallas missed the playoffs for the first time in 10 years, 1985 saw a reconciliation with the NFC-East title and 1986 was the first rumble of divorce when the Cowboys had their first losing season in

McMahon leads way to Bear win

(AP)— Jim McMahon had to turn up the tempo Sunday to get his 24th consecutive victory as starting quarterback for the Chicago Bears.

McMahon, with the Bears trailing 28-14, went to a hurry-up offense in the second half and threw two touchdown passes to Willie Gault in the fourth quarter, leading Chicago to a 31-28 victory over the Kansas City Chiefs.

"I went to the hurry-up because we know what we're doing and and it keeps the other team off balance," McMahon said. "I was happy because I started throwing right away. They had stopped our running so I decided

McMahon, who completed only six of nine passes for 83 yards and a 28-yard touchdown to Cap Boso in the first half, fin-ished with 23 of 34 completions for 287 yards, including touch-down throws of 25 and 38 yards to Gault, the latter coming with to data, the latter coming with 4:44 to play.

The Bears won despite four touchdown passes from the Chiefs' Bill Kenney.

Elsewhere in the National Football League Sunday, it was Indianapolis 19, New York Jets 14; New England 26, Los Angeles Raiders 23; New Orleans 38, Atlanta 0; Philadelphia 28, St. Louis 23; Miami 35, Pittsburgh 24; Tampa Bay 23, Green Bay 17; and Washington 27, Buffalo 7.
