Ortega to announce cease-fire proposal

WASHINGTON (AP) — Nicaraguan President Daniel Ortega, after talks with House Speaker Jim Wright, D-Texas, said Thursday he has come up with a "concrete proposal" for achieving a cease-fire with the Contra rebels.

Ortega, here for a meeting of the Organization of American States, told reporters he will announce his plan today.

There were strong hints that the proposal would include a role for Wright in the efforts to reach a cease-fire, but Ortega said he could not provide details because "we're still refining all of this."

As Ortega spoke, Nicaraguan Cardinal Miguel Obando y Bravo, who has been designated intermediary in pending cease-fire talks between the Sandinistas and the Contras, was heading for Washington and was expected to take part in today's announcement.

Congressional sources said last week that Wright had declined an offer to serve as a cease-fire intermediary because he did not have the time and felt that such a role was inappropriate for someone outside of Central America.

But meetings Wednesday and Thursday between Wright and Ortega left the impression that the speaker may have agreed to play a role. Last week, Wright said he might be willing to send a congressional delegation to Nicaragua to verify the cease-fire.

After seeing Ortega, Wright met with Secretary of State George Shultz to discuss Central America and other issues, and then met with members of the Nicaraguan Resistance, the Contras' political arm.

3 charged in Marine killings set free under amnesty law

SAN SALVADOR, El Salvador (AP) — Three suspects charged in the 1985 slayings of six Americans, including four Marine guards at the U.S. Embassy, were ordered freed Thursday under a new amnesty program.

Military Judge Jorge Alberto Serrano ruled the three, said to be leftist guerrillas, should be freed under the program providing amnesty for political prisoners, which was enacted as part of the new Central American peace plan.

It was not clear when the three actually would be released from jail.

The U.S. Embassy said in a statement, "As a matter of policy, we believe that those responsible on both the right and left for terrorist acts or crimes against U.S. citizens should not be allowed to escape justice."

Thirteen people were killed on June 19, 1985 when assailants wearing Salvadoran army uniforms opened fire with automatic weapons on patrons at two outdoor cafes in San Salvador's "Pink Zone," a strip of trendy restaurants and clubs.

The Marines were wearing civilian clothes and were seated at two tables with other young people when the assailants drove up in a red pickup truck, witnesses said at the time.

A little known leftist group, the Mardoqueo Cruz Urban Guerrilla Commandos, claimed responsibility for the massacre. The group is an offshoot of one of the five guerrilla armies that form the Farabundo Marti National Liberation Front, which has been fighting the U.S.-backed government for the past eight years. The government has authorized the release of 473 political prisoners since last Friday under the amnesty program.
