Sanders sparks A&M scrimmage

By Brad Marquardt
Reporter

After weeks of practice, the White team coached by Assistant Coach Eileen Feeney outscored the Maroon team piloted by Head Coach Lynn Hickey 56-48 in the annual Maroon-and-White women's basketball scrimmage at G. Rollie White Coliseum Tuesday.

The White team was sparked by the 19 points scored by senior forward Evelyn Sanders and the rebounding of junior center Lisa Jordan.

"The key to what Evelyn does for our team is making an immediate impact on the game," Feeney said.

"As soon as she came in she got a few quick rebounds and scored six points."

Lisa Jordan was a force underneath the basket and grabbed nine rebounds.

"It was good to see Lisa so much more mobile than she was a year ago," Hickey said.

"She did a really good job on the boards."

Junior guard Donna Roper led the Maroon team with 19 points and junior forward Veronda Roundtree was close behind adding 18.

"Donna played a steady game and was explosive at times," Feeney said. "But she's capable of scoring more and doing a lot more things defensively."

Feeney was also happy with the play of Lisa Herner.

Since Herner was the only point guard, she had to play the entire 30 minutes.

"Lisa did an excellent job of running the floor without having a break," Feeney said.

Wendy Jennings, who is a true freshman, showed that she was ready to play by canning two shots from the three-point range.

Jennings had eight points and also grabbed three offensive rebounds.

Overall, Hickey said she was pleased with the progress of the team but wasn't satisfied.

"We're further along than we were last year," Hickey said. "It's just that we're perfectionists and we only have a week before our first game."

Hickey said that the game helped to get rid of the team's initial game nervousness.

The Lady Aggies hope to improve from last season's 9-17 record, but that possibility looks good. With three returning starters, A&M should be one of the most experienced teams in the Southwest Conference.
